LEGION PARTY

A Halloween party sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, was held Wednesday night, October 31 at the Broadway hall for all Main Girl Scouts and children of auxiliary members.

The children all came in costume and prizes were awarded as follows: Prettiest, first prize to Nancy Kolkow dressed as a little Dutch girl, second prize to Lynette Lyon dressed as a fairy, first and second prizes for the funniest costume went to Mary Ann Evans, dressed as a farmer and Sharon Scott dressed to represent "Mr. Peanut." Prizes for the most Halloweenish were won by Carol Vacknitz, the witch and Denny Kalina, the skeleton.

Following games Mrs. Teresa McComb entertained the children with stories. Dressed as an old witch she told the stories of "The Pumpkin Giant," "The Farmer's Daughter," and "Little Orphan Annie."

Refreshments of doughnuts, cider and punch were served at the close of the party.

October Bride

CHILQUIN—An October bride was Alice Marie Pohl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pohl, when she became the bride of Robert Wampler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wampler.

The double ring ceremony was read at eight o'clock on Saturday evening, October 20, at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. David Sutton of the Bible Standard church. Tall baskets of white chrysanthemums and white tapers banked the end of the living room. The bride wore an aqua tulle gown with brown accessories. Her maid of honor was Jessie Hatcher, who also wore a suit for the occasion. Both had gardenia corsages. Albert Wampler Jr. of Coos Bay was best man for his cousin. Candelighters were the seven year old niece of the bride, Marilee Pohl of Sacramento.

Following the ceremony Mrs. Norman Pohl of Sacramento cut and served the three tiered bride's cake, which was decorated with pale pink roses and topped by a cluster of wedding bells. Pouring were Kathryn Wampler, sister of the groom, and Mrs. William Wampler of Klamath Falls.

Attending from out of town were Mrs. Bob Mathis of Port Klamath, Mr. and Mrs. Albert "Mickey" Wampler and son Albert of Rocky Point, Kathryn Wampler of Coos Bay, William Pohl of Ely, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Pohl and children of Sacramento, Mr. and Mrs. George Pohl and children, Mrs. Ida Bevan, Helen Bertram, Mrs. Olena Briscoe, all of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. James Wampler of Saffley, California.

After a week's trip to Seattle and the Oregon and Washington coasts, the young couple are at home in the home next door to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Markwardt. Both Mr. and Mrs. Wampler are graduates of the local schools.

ALTAR SOCIETY AT MERRILL

MERRILL—Ladies of St. Augustine's altar society are making plans for their annual bazaar scheduled for Saturday November 17, in the Merrill recreation hall.

This year for the first time in several years a buffet style dinner will be served. The menu will feature fried chicken and hours are from 6 till 8 p.m. Fee is $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children. Co-chairmen are Mrs. Dan Barry, Mrs. Dan Cashman, and Mrs. W. E. Hammond. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Ben Murphy or any member of the society.

A variety of hand-made articles will be on sale and numerous forms of entertainment are planned. Mrs. John Madden, Altar Society president, is general chairman.

BRIDAL SHOWER FOR COUPLE

FORT ROCK—A bride and bridegroom shower honoring Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Branch (nee Venita Dehne Perry) was held at the Fort Rock Grange hall, Saturday evening, November 3, with Mrs. Maurice Ward, Mrs. Leonard Pitcher and Mrs. Zula Klerk as hostesses. The dining room was the setting for the shower. The honored guests were seated at an arch that was decorated with flowers, tinsel bells and streamers. The gifts were displayed on a table with a white umbrella also decorated with tinsel bells and streamers.

Games were played before the gifts were opened. Winners were Helen Parks, Roy Morehouse, Owen Pitcher, Gladys Emery, Zula Klerk, Barbara Harbison, Venita Branch, Floyd Branch, Howard McGee and Bernie Sult.

There were approximately 65 persons present.

The hostesses served a supper of chicken salad, pumpkin pie and sandwiches.

Square dancing and waltzes were the major entertainment of the evening and a few played cards. The musicians were Nick Klerk, violin, Ralph and Ruth Webber, drums and piano, Mrs. Glider piano, Avon Derrick saxophone and Owen Pitcher calling.

Jerry Pitcher won the prize for his jack-o-lantern. The hall had jack-o-lanterns around the room depicting the Halloween theme.

Halloween Party

MERRILL—Freshman class members of Merrill high held a costume Halloween party at the E. C. Lemler home Saturday evening.

Dancing, and all the traditional Halloween games were enjoyed by the young people. Noreen Bredeen and Rae Honeycutt were judged "winners of the prettiest costume." Billy Polmester and Betty Icebelle won the prizes for the funniest.

Enjoying the fun were Billy Green, Billy Polmester, Earl Loper, Edward McCullough, Clifford Turner, Betty Icebelle, Loretta Lemler, Nancy Dewey, Marjorie Flaugh, Betty Hawk, Noreen Bredeen, Rae Honeycutt, Mary Jo Hendrickson, Barbara Hodges, Francis Barber, Joyce Haskins, Carol Poe, Peggy Noonan, Mr. and Mrs. Croston, Mrs. Elmer Lemler, Arlene Lemler, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Brickner and children.

Hardie Gramatky writes that his illustrations may be found in the October copy of Today's Woman and True magazines and in the September Farm Journal. He tells us that the Eli Lilly Co. has made reprints of his painting "Pioneering in Mexico" which is in their series of famous American Painters. Any one wishing a copy of this painting which is ready for framing, can write to the Eli Lilly Co., Indianapolis 6, Indiana, and the copy will be sent to you free. There have been over 10,000 requests for this picture so far—that's how good it is.

Gramatky's wife, who paints under the name of Dorothea Cooke, and was here with him this summer, her Halloween painting was on the cover of the October issue of Jack and Jill magazine.

Sam Harte, the recipient of our Art Workshop last summer has his design on the cover of the October issue of Everyday Art. He writes that he decided to continue his studies this year at Columbia university so that he will be qualified to teach.

Nora Zweybruck writes from Los Angeles that she and her famous mother Emmy, are snowed under with preparations for the grand opening of the western branch office of the American Crayon Co. on November 17. Nora has returned to Klamath Falls to paint each summer since she and her mother came here three years ago to teach in our first Summer Art Workshop. Nora has an article on art in the October issue of Everyday Art.

Now it can be told—that Johnny Gannon, who is another very top-flight illustrator, was visiting here with Gramatky this summer. Mr. Gannon, a shy, darling of a man—and very famous, didn't want his whereabouts known at the time, so we kept his secret. He has an illustration on page 56 of the October Cosmopolitan.

Both Gannon and Gramatky took hundreds of color photos and made hundreds of sketches as well as many finished paintings to take east with them. In the course of time, these will all be used as reference material for the many magazine illustrations they will be commissioned to do each month. So don't be surprised to pick up a magazine any day and see a familiar Klamath landmark in one or many of the illustrations.

Bringing these famous people to Klamath Falls is only one of the many things the Klamath Art Assoc. is doing for the community.

Scavenger Hunt At Agency Lake

CHILQUIN—Marcine Erickson was hostess at a Sunday evening party for a group of friends at her agency lakeshore home a week ago.

Guests enjoyed a scavenger hunt and wiener roast.

Attending were Joan and Edith Ling, James Weddle, Errol Hatcher, Keith Anderson of Modoc Point, Carol W. Barnes and Dick Tracy, both of Klamath Falls, Gloria Ochoa and the hostess.

Marcine's two younger sisters, Della and Bernice, had Linda and Minda Mendenhall as their guests the same evening.

MR. AND MRS. ABBY GREEN, for years identified with the Rogue Valley golf and country club, Medford, during recent winter seasons with the Thunderbird Ranch and country club, Palm Springs, were in town for a brief stay with Abby's mother Mrs. Myrtle Duffy, 515 Jefferson. They have gone to Palm Springs for this winter's season at the Thunderbird. Mrs. Duffy also will winter in the south, in Fresno with her son Dallas W. Green.

ST. BARNABAS GUILD MEETING

LANGELL VALLEY—Guild of St. Barnabas church met at the parish hall November 1 for a no-business party.

Handwork was completed for the bazaar to be held at Bonanza high school November 10.

Pres. Carolyn Dearborn presided. Mrs. Bill Cunningham played the accordion accompaniment for group singing.

Refreshments were served to Helen Derry, Joan Marchant, Norma Becholdt, Dale Smelter, Ethel Jones, Elfreda Lindsay, Bobette Gilt, Mary Noble, Edith Walsh, Monroe, Solveig Ashbee, Eva Roberts, Grace Dearborn, Jeanette Stewart, Irene Botens, Erma Partwright, Mrs. Blazer, Cora Leavitt, Carolyn Dearborn and Mildred Cunningham.

BPW TEA

Business and Professional Women, hosts at the annual tea and card party at the Willard hotel November 3 entertained 150 guests at bridge, pinocle, canasta and other games. Thirty tables were in play.

Funds from the card party go to the club's annual project which this year is scholarships and campships for Girl Scouts and Camp Fire girls.

Several pretty models from the Town Shop were afternoon and casual frocks and lovely lingerie for the style show. Those assisting were Charlotte Adolph, Virginia Miller, Liza McDonald, Ann Waters, Delores Howard, Beth Chase, Georgia Lane, Marguerite Bradley, Mrs. Keith Rice and Elaine Miller. Mrs. Keith Moon emceed the show.

During the tea hour, Mrs. Emil Albrecht president and Mrs. T. C. Griggs poured at a table centered with an arrangement of bronze chrysanthemums and yellow and green tapers.

Janis Larson, music student, Sacred Heart academy was at the piano during the tea hour.

Costume Party

MALIN—A Halloween costume party for little Kathy Herringshaw in honor of her birthday was held Monday, October 29 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. An Herringshaw.

Games were played and a candy hunt held. Winners in the hunt were Maria and Joan Kirkpatrick and Danny Toifell.

Halloween refreshments were served from an attractively decorated table, carrying out the Halloween theme.

Little friends of Kathy who attended were: Tommy and Danny Toifell, Peggy Long, Maria and Joan Kirkpatrick, Rosemary Mauney and Margaret Jo Herringshaw.

Mothers who also were there included: Mrs. Emil Toifell, Mrs. Floyd Mauney, Mrs. Orville Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Charles Long.

Klamath Falls Garden Club

The Klamath Falls garden club met Monday, November 5 at the city library. Mrs. Fred Karlson reported on the Siskiyou district meeting held at Medford, October 18. Mrs. Will Wood was commended on her contribution of 24 cleverly-fashioned pine cone favors which were Klamath garden club's quota for the district luncheon.

Mrs. Jermark of Ashland, district director, gave a resume of the state and the national conventions of state garden clubs.

Mrs. Jermark's projects for the year include conservation, horticulture and membership.

Klamath Falls was asked to contribute evergreen swags and an all-white Christmas arrangement at the State Christmas show scheduled for December 16-17 at the Imperial Hotel in Portland. The national Federation's slogan is "Save and Serve"—a theme especially timely in the present emergency.

Mrs. Scott McKendree, reported a very successful rummage sale Friday and Saturday, October 18-19.

Following adjournment, Mrs. Jermark presided at a special meeting at which time steps were taken toward creating a sub-district of the Siskiyou section to include only Klamath county. This move was necessitated by Klamath's remote geographic position.

A judging school course is scheduled the first part of May in southern Oregon—the date and location to be published later.

Mrs. Hugh O'Connor announced plans for the "Christmas Through the House Tour" to be staged the first week in December, full details of which will appear soon. Anyone interested in flower arrangement and horticulture, whether a garden club member or not, is eligible to attend this two-day school. Further details may be obtained by contacting any garden club member. Out-of-state residents are welcomed.

Mrs. Ray Brownell, program chairman, staged a fall arrangement exhibit by garden club members.

WTC - Camp 6

By ELEANOR THOMPSON

Vern Hunk, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Hunk, entertained his friends October 30 with a Halloween party. Decorations, refreshments, and games were all in keeping with the Halloween theme.

Those helping him celebrate were Wayne Heywood, Levert Henderson, Roger Glassburn, Georgia, Danny, Nancy and Jeanie Thompson, and Karen Fairfield. Helping the hostess, Vern's mother, was Mrs. Gordon Good. The youngsters had a really bang-up good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Chandler and children, Sammy, Mollie, and Randy returned November 2 from a three-week trip to Jacksonville, Tex., where they visited their respective families.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Schlotfeldt, who lived in camp for several years, moving away this spring, called in camp Friday November 2. Bob went duck hunting with Dick Fairfield and Mr. Schlotfeldt spent the day visiting Mrs. Fairfield and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Fairfield and family spent Sunday in Klamath Falls visiting at the H. S. Bridge residence on Arthur street where the Bob Schlotfeldts have had their trailer house parked for several days. The Bridges are former residents of camp, where they ran the camp store for two years. The Schlotfeldts plan to settle somewhere in northern California in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith and son Roddy are moving to Klamath Falls where they have bought a home in the Holstonville district.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Woodard and family are expecting to move into camp. They lived here about four years ago for a short time, and more recently in Klamath Falls in the Stewart-Lenox addition.

Cover Girl"

Picked by Parents' Magazine for the November cover because it's such a news-making "happy holiday" fashion. Its new moire Sanforized cotton glows with festive shimmer... and the pannier-effect skirt is billowed by its own bouffant petticoat of crisp, permanent finish organdy. Just-right "grown up" touches — rhinestone buttons, velvet sash, tiny shawl collar — inspire her very best company manners. Each with a pocket. In gold, rose or turquoise.
