

Big Ones Loom For Top Grids

By ED CORRIGAN
NEW YORK, N.Y. — Coaches and athletic directors of the country's top football teams—a cautious lot—were waiting around their campuses with fingers crossed today, afraid even to think of the games coming up.

Every time they begin to think of the coming bowl games and perhaps start figuring what's going on in the cash box, they shudder and think back to what happened to Southern California.

The big, powerful Trojans were the shoo-ins of the Pacific Coast conference, especially after they bounced undefeated California, the pre-season favorite, several weeks ago. The coast title and the gold and glory of the Rose Bowl were virtually theirs.

OVERLOOKED

But Stanford, completely overlooked before the start of hostilities, crashed the Trojan hopes Saturday with a 27-20 victory.

Now they're saying the Indians can't miss. But can they? They probably can beat Oregon State without much trouble this week, but the following week they go against California, which is not rated a pushover. Southern Cal has only one more game—a November 24 date with UCLA.

Same thing in the Big Ten. Illinois—another school overlooked in the pre-season dope—boasts a 4-0 mark after trouncing Iowa, 40-13, Saturday. Michigan, in second place, has a 3-1-0 mark. Then comes Wisconsin (3-1-1) and Purdue (2-1-0). All four have two conference games to play.

CAN'T GO

Illinois tangles with Ohio State and Northwestern, Michigan meets the same pair while Wisconsin goes against Iowa and Minnesota. If defending champion Michigan wins, the Wolverines won't go to the Rose Bowl, since a Big Ten rule prohibits the same school from playing there two years in a row.

Illinois needs only one win of its two remaining games for at least a share of the title. Wisconsin is virtually out of it because it tied Ohio State. Purdue has a slim chance but the Boilermakers still have Minnesota and Indiana left to play.

Wisconsin beat Penn. 16-7, Saturday, while Michigan lost to Cornell, 20-7, in a couple of Big Ten league games.

ACCEPTS

Tennessee probably is the only team that can take things moderately easy—with the exception of Georgia Tech, which already has accepted an invitation to the Orange Bowl in Miami. The Vols, masters of the Southeastern conference, had a 60-14 limbering up exercise at the expense of Washington and Lee, and need worry only about Kentucky.

Even if the slow starting behemoths from the blue grass should beat Tennessee, Gen. Bob Neyland's outfit would get into some bowl—Sugar, Cotton, or Orange. Babe Parilli and his Kentucky outfit could do it, too. They trimmed Tulane, 37-0, Saturday.

FEATURE OF the Klamath Sportsman's association show tomorrow and Wednesday at the Klamath county fairgrounds will be a demonstration of spin fishing by experts Don Ihlen (left) and Jim Gillard, both of Seattle. Archery experts Russell Jones and Johnny Hobson, Salem, will stage an exhibition also. Jim O'Donahue, local representative of the Izaak Walton and Conservation leagues, will show his waterfowl exhibit. Doors open at 7 p.m., show starts 8 p.m. both nights.

22 Still Unbeaten

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Cincinnati, with nine victories, tops a list of 22 unbeaten, untied college football teams today.

Four schools have won eight games. They include Stanford, Valparaiso, Northern Illinois and Bucknell.

Six previously-unbeaten teams suffered defeats this weekend to drop off the select list. They were Rochester, Eastern New Mexico, Morris Brown (Ga.), St. Vincent (Pa.), New Haven (Conn.) Teachers and Centre (Ky.).

Six of the leading teams in collegiate football still boast unblemished records. They are Tennessee (No. 1), Illinois (No. 2), Maryland (No. 3), Princeton (No. 4), Michigan State (No. 5) and Stanford (No. 6).

Champion Back, Tag Tilt On

A champion and the return of an old favorite highlight Wednesday night at the army ring.

The champ is Andy Tremaine, world's light-heavyweight kimpin in a tag team match against the Galloping Ghost and Jack Carter.

Dusette has been here for almost a year. Win, lose or draw, he always draws the plaudits of the fans.

TAG TEAM
Dusette will team with Jack O'Reilly, the Australian black-bust, in a tag team match against the Galloping Ghost and Jack Carter.

Tremaine beat Hessel last week but the New Mexico grappler wants another crack at the champ.

It will be a non-title scrap—but it's as good as last week's bout. Wrestling goers will want to be on hand.

WILL HE ROUGH
The squamish should stay away from the tag tilt. It's bound to hit high gear for mayhem.

Both the Ghost and Carter are profound believers in thumbing their noses at the wrestling book of hoyle.

Neither Dusette or O'Reilly have been accused of taking abuse sitting down.

Reserved tickets are on sale at Castleberry's drug.

When Winter Comes What Do You Do?

The Thrifty Squirrel Prepares for Winter

Most folks are wise who do the same thing. If the roof leaks they fix it. They also lay in their winter fuel. The rancher harvests his crops and makes all necessary preparations to take care of his family and stock through the long winter months. ALL WISE PEOPLE DO THESE THINGS.

Now What Do You Do?

The Pioneer Service Company is offering a suggestion. Don't overlook your credit rating with your local merchant, doctor and hospital. When you are making your other preparations for winter, be sure that you don't overlook your credit, as it is your greatest asset when winter comes. Don't let yourself be overlord on installment plan buying. Try to pay all your bills between the 1st and the 10th of the month, and keep your credit good.

When you receive one of our Pioneer Service County Credit Board Statements, bearing our Registered Trademark, try to pay part, or satisfactorily arrange to pay at once, on your past due accounts, so that you can get credit that you may be forced to ask for.

No commissions charged for collections. All money is paid direct to creditors.

REMEMBER

When you lose your credit you lose something you may never regain.

REMEMBER

The wise ones prepare for winter, so why not do as other thrifty folks do?

POLO SPLIT

SAN MATEO, Calif. — New Mexico Military Institute's polo team split a pair of weekend games with Stanford and, in the Sunday match, New Mexico's No. 3, Mickey Samuelli, broke his wrist. Stanford took the first game 6-0 but the Roswell team, despite Samuelli's mishap, won yesterday's tilt 5-3.

DOOR MIRRORS

Every bedroom should have a door mirror. The satisfaction these mirrors give plus the added attractiveness to the bedroom make a door mirror a first class investment. They don't cost so much either.
