NEW PINE CREEK

By IRVIN FARIS

John Richardson will pilot the Eastside grange through the coming year. He was elected the new grange master at the grange meeting and election of officers held November 3.

The meeting was preceded by a hot supper. All whetted appetites were fully and gloriously satisfied by the big spread of wild and tame fowl dishes that dotted the two long tables.

Garland Cundiff, popular and efficient overseer, was returned to his office by the vote of the assemblage. Mrs. Gertrude Richardson was elected to fill the important office of lecturer as Mrs. Gladys Porter who has done such a fine and conscientious job for the past two years, declined renomination. Steward for the coming year will be George Carlton who won the office on a re-balloting over Kenneth Butler, the incumbent officer. However, Kenneth was not forgotten for his fidelity to office and he was put in as assistant steward with Anna Mae Fisher, elected as lady assistant steward.

Mr. Alpha Hartzog was re-elected chaplain and Fred Fisher was re-established as treasurer. Louise Miller was set back in her chair as secretary which is perhaps the most important office of the grange.

Eddie Richardson was put in as the new gate keeper. The offices of Ceres, Pomona, and Flora were respectively voted to Nelda Thompson, Leota Perry and Ethel Cundiff. On the executive committee Bishop and Raymond Fisher. This group has charge of grange policy and makes important and final decisions on issues of grange management.

Mrs. Thelma Butler was re-elected grange musician and Mrs. Daisy Fleming was elected first assistant musician, with Beverly Vincent as second assistant.

A marked degree of sensibility was shown here by the youngsters on Halloween. Several outhouses were overturned which in a way only hastens the day when this type of back lot decoration will be a thing of the past. Windows were waxed and soaped and toilet tissue was strung out to make weird, snake like patterns to glow in the moonlight. Many youngsters breezed down to Willow Ranch to get in on the very splendid Halloween party held there in the schoolhouse. Otherwise no particular damage was reported.

The "Young People" of the First Baptist church held a Halloween party on Friday, October 26, in the basement of the church.

Those who attended the party were Don Carter, Dwayne Methvin, Barbara Fisher, Janice Wells, Mary Gail Barrow, Becky St. Clair, Grace Wells, Virginia Avoult, Mike Cook and Joan Carter. The chaperones were Eugene Barrow and Margaret Carter.

Guests from Willow Ranch were Carroll Davis, Tommy Smith, Donny Gebo, Juanita Addington, Riley Harris and Johnny Smith.

Mrs. Hallie Cook gave Mrs. Louise Miller a big wild goose homecoming dinner last Sunday with copious trimmings. Her other guests included the Verle Cook family.

Mrs. Miller returned Wednesday, October 31, from an extended seven weeks trip back in Michigan. She spent one day in Windsor, Canada. On the way home she visited in "Boy's Town", Nebraska near Lincoln. She went out and viewed a herd of 50 buffalo that form a project which a group of sportsmen are sponsoring to rehabilitate the decimated buffalo herds of by-gone days. She made the trip both ways by bus. When returning she ran into a bus strike at Boise, Ida. and was delayed and re-routed by Reno.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith who have been living at the Earl Martin ranch where Smith is employed, have rented the Wellman Smith house now owned by Mrs. Lillian Reid. They plan to make their home here for a time at least.

Mr. C. F. Borton, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Schwarting, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Preston, all of Los Angeles, Calif., have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Art Lenkeit, making the Lenkeit home their headquarters while hunting. They hunted here a few days, then they left to hunt at Tulelake for a few days.
