The four o'clock ceremony was read in the Tulelake Presbyterian church, Saturday, November 3 by Rev. Marvis Keyser.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, came up the aisle marked with white silk aisle rope, while runner and pews tied with white mums complemented with white tapers.

Her eyes were veiled with white, and she wore a white gown with a white collar edged with seed pearls. Matching pearl trimmed peplums flared from the waistline. Her full-length net veil fell from a tiara of seed pearls.

Following the ceremony, the bride and groom were served by the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Earl McFall, and the bride's mother, Mrs. James Bailey.

EASTERN STAR CHAPTER 160

MALIN—Prosperity chapter 160 OES, Malin, celebrated its 20th anniversary at the regular meeting in the Presbyterian church November 13. The chapter also honored past matrons and patrons.

After the regular business meeting, a candlelighting ceremony was held. There were 21 candles lighted. Following the lighting ceremony, the chapter sang "Auld Lang Syne" while Alida Macken, first worthy matron, entered wearing the dress she was installed in 20 years ago. She carried a scroll containing the history of the chapter, which she read.

After the meeting members and visitors adjourned to the banquet room, where a birthday cake centered the table on which was a "Horn of Plenty" indicative of the chapter's name, "Prosperity."

The committee, Emma Wilde and Miriam Stasny, served the cake, ice cream and coffee.

PROSPERITY CHAPTER 160

MALIN—The twentieth birthday of Prosperity chapter 160, Order of the Eastern Star was celebrated this month at the chapter's regular monthly meeting on Thursday evening, November 8.

Mrs. Alida Macken, the chapter's first matron, dressed in a blue lace dress which she wore on the chapter's institution night in 1931, conducted a lovely tribute to the chapter and its charter members. The chapter history which she read was of her own composition.

Following a prayer, by honorary chaplain Helen Ottoman, the chapter members were escorted by junior past matron Ethel Hamilton to the east through the garden gate. The east was attractively decorated with a picket fence covered with red roses.

Charter members introduced and welcomed were Mrs. Ann Payser, Ann Fruits, A. E. Street and Alida Macken. Each responded with a short talk.

After the birthday program, the meeting was regularly opened by Mrs. Ann Payser. The associate matron, Hazel Bowman read from a list the year and the matron and patron responded with the name of the past matron and past patron for that year. As each name was read the conductresses lighted a candle in the candle-bra which was placed in the east.

Past matrons and patrons so honored were Hazel Kallina, Ann Fruits, Marian Wilson, Buelah Eber, Leah Street, Alida Macken, Ethel Hamilton, Theima Stukel, Florence DeMerritt, Ted DeMerritt, A. E. Street and P. G. Wilson. Corsages and gifts were presented them by the worthy matron.

Past matrons and patrons of other chapters who were present and welcomed were: Nell Rether, Mary Sharp, Elizabeth Zeller and George Graham.

Mrs. and Mrs. Lawrence Myers, matron and patron of Cascade Great chapter, Chilquin were escorted to the east and extended a hearty welcome.

At the close of the meeting everyone was invited to the dining hall, where they were served from a large birthday cake bearing the years 1931 and 1951 written in frosting. The cake was cut and served by Alida Macken.

The tables were attractively decorated in Thanksgiving motif by Marian Stasny and Emma Wilde.

FOUR GENERATIONS in direct lineage are represented in the family group (above) on the occasion of Alice Catherine Favell's first birthday, October 17. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. E. H. (Gene) Favell, (Winifred Lamm) 2244 Darrow. On her father's knee, she is shown with her grandmother, Mrs. E. G. Favell, standing, and her great grandmother, Mrs. William Bernard, both of Lakeview.
