

MR. AND MRS. JOE HICKS and 22 months old daughter, Marilyn left Monday for a vacation in Mexico. They will spend the most of the time in Mexico City and Acapulca. Returning here the first of the year for ten days, they will pack up again for a jaunt abroad. Sailing January 18 for a six weeks Mediterranean cruise, they will afterwards tour Spain, Switzerland and most of continental Europe. —Photo by Kettler.

SOMETHING CAUGHT MY eye the other day in the paper that still thinking about—A news item concerning a newly organized group of people whose slogan is a statement to all shut-ins — "We want to be your friends if you will accept us." Moreover, the planned program is to furnish people who are cut off from the world for any reason — with reading matter — materials for needlework — such as quilting — writing or any diversion possible for that shut-in — Mrs. Frank R. Meads is president of this "helping hand," Dorothea McNulty is vp and Mrs. Robert Aveline is sec-treas—There are no membership dues — just interest and a willingness to share a little of you with someone who can't "go places" as you do—

DON AND BARBARA COLWELL, children and Barbara's father Mr. H. H. Jenkins are Buxfield-bound to visit Barbara's sister Addie during Thanksgiving.

IRENE BULLARD, student at UO was initiated into the office of Sec-treas—of the freshman YWCA music commission. A frosh in Journalism, Irene is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Bullard, 3333 Johns Ave.

OREGON STATE MOTHER'S CLUB

The Oregon State Mother's club held its first meeting with Mrs. Orman Gildow presiding, and Mrs. Cecil Adams acting as secretary pro-tem. The purpose of the newly organized unit in Klamath Falls is to help swell scholarship funds for students at Oregon State college.

A nominating committee was appointed consisting of Mrs. Herbert Bands, chairman, assisted by Mrs. J. D. Huck and Mrs. H. S. Rone. A by-laws committee was also appointed with Mrs. Lloyd Young, chairman, Mrs. A. V. McVey, Mrs. J. W. Pinniger, Mrs. J. W. Van Doren and Mrs. H. F. Altman.

Mrs. M. W. Poole was appointed publicity chairman.

The meetings are to be held the second Thursday in each month, alternating afternoon and evening meetings.

The next meeting is to be Thursday, December 13, at 7:30 p.m. in the recreational hall, on Washington Way. All mothers of OSC students and alumni are urged to attend.

SOROPTIMIST CLUB MEETING

The Klamath Falls Soroptimist club met at the Pelican party room Thursday noon for their weekly meeting. This was the Thanksgiving luncheon and the tables were beautifully decorated with fruits, fall flowers and holiday candles.

It as one of the special luncheons at which time the members invite the Venture club members as their guests. The Venture club is a young business girls organization, actively sponsored by the Soroptimist club.

Alice Lamm introduced as her guest, Mrs. Iris Pearson, president of the Rotana club. Mrs. Pearson is also Klamath county chairman of the Oregon Society for Crippled Children and Adults for the current year.

The musical portion of the Thanksgiving program was presented by Eloise McIntyre. Mrs. McIntyre accompanied a quartet composed of Jean Adams, Deniece Kenyon, Richard Tracy and Marvin Nerseith. They sang two numbers, "Bless the Lord, O My Son" by Ivanoff and "Song of Thanksgiving" by Kremsner. Jean Adams sang a soprano solo, "O Brother Man" by Matthews.

Clara Shaw introduced Kathleen Thompson who gave the Thanksgiving message, "Can't We Tell Right From Wrong." Mrs. Thompson talked of the change in our thoughts, attitudes and way of life during the past decade. She suggested that we turn our thoughts more to our religion and to our church — that we live closer to our church and let our church live closer to us. She reminded us of the text of the Golden Rule and that we might all enjoy a happier and more peaceful life if we would abide by that rule.

YACHT CLUB PIRATE PARTY

A pirate treasure chest, daggers, crossbones, seafaring gear, pirate heads and lighted candelabra provided the background for the pirate party at the Yacht club November 10.

The gangplank was lowered promptly at nine bells, when male and female characters from pirate-land swarmed aboard.

Syne Halaas' Buccaneers were musicians for the occasions.

At the stroke of midnight Long John Regan served an excellent buffet dinner.

Some of the costumed were: Dr. and Mrs. Richard Currin as King Neptune and wife, George Flitcraft as Captain Horatio Hornblower, Ray Oldenburg as an Irishman, Bob Mead as a satire on Captain Kidd, Wilson Wiley as a cavalier, Mrs. Wiley as a French noblewoman, Mrs. C. M. Howie as an Egyptian dancer, Mrs. Murdo Morrison, a senora, Mrs. Neil Black as a Turkish harem girl, Mrs. Delos Mills and Mrs. Elbert Stiles as hula girls and Mrs. Lloyd Prock and Mrs. Howard Pernel as south sea island girls.

Mrs. Robert Sprout Jr. won first prize for women as a slave girl, chains and all.

Lloyd Prock, Howard Pernel and Delos Mills were three cannibals, winning first prize for men.

Committee members were Mr. and Mrs. George Dugan, Mr. and Mrs. Art Treibwasser, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Burrell and Mr. and Mrs. Murdo Morrison.

SACRED HEART PARISH BAZAAR

The second annual Sacred Heart parish bazaar will take place Friday and Saturday nights November 16 and 17, at Sacred Heart gym. With all proceeds going to the building fund, a large crowd is expected to be on hand to enjoy the many games and amusements.

Featured again this year will be the culinary skill of the men of the Lay-A-Brick committee who will prepare and serve a "Chow Chow Feed" Friday night and a "Prime Roast Beef Dinner" Saturday evening from 5:30 to 8 p.m. Highlight of the bazaar will be the big Saturday night raffle. Over $1600 worth of merchandise prizes have been purchased and will be given away, including a 12 cubic foot deep freeze, an automatic washer and a refrigerator. Everyone is invited to attend.
