

KLAMATH YOUNGSTERS will get the treat of their lives Saturday morning when these giant balloon figures and many others bring a Fairyland on Parade to Klamath Falls. Klamath Merchants have scheduled the giant balloon parade, complete with bands and incidental features, for 11:00 a.m. The Klamath Falls 20-30 will cooperate with Santa and Mrs. Santa to distribute candy to every youngster. All children in the Klamath Basin—in fact from everywhere, Santa said—are invited to be here and greet him. This is the same parade of fairyland creatures which has been featured at the Mardi Gras and celebrations from coast to coast.

Turkey Dinners Go Up In Cost

WASHINGTON, (P)—A turkey dinner for four Washingtonians will cost about $6.16, or 34 cents more than it cost last Thanksgiving day, the government says.

The bureau of labor statistics, announcing the estimate yesterday, said there will be local variations but that generally the higher cost will hold true throughout the country.

County PMA Meetings Scheduled Next Week

Production and marketing administration farmer-committee elections have been set for each of four Klamath county's farm communities from November 27 to 29, county PMA Chairman Earl Wilson has announced.

Voting will be by ballot at each election meeting, and farmers are eligible for voting who are participating in the agricultural conservation program of the USDA or are eligible for a cooperator's loan or other price support.

At each election farmers will choose three farmers who will serve as a community committee during the coming year, and a delegate to the county convention where a county committee will be chosen.

Community meetings will be held as follows:

Beating Leads To Jail Terms

SPRINGFIELD, (P)—A 16-year-old youth was sentenced to 10 days in the county jail yesterday after he admitted he was one of a gang who beat up another youth and tried to cut his hair.

Lyle R. Schultz, Springfield, was brought into court after the victim of the beating, Millard Peake, 18, of Eugene, signed a complaint.
