

Merrill Chest Drive Pushed

MERRILL—The community chest drive sponsored by the Merrill Lions club has now reached three-fourths of its $1700 quota, according to an announcement made by Lion Pres. Clyde Hammond at Monday evening's dinner meeting. The drive will be concluded this week, and as all returns are not in yet, it is hoped that the full quota may yet be reached.

3 Birthdays In One Party

FORT KLAMATH—Three birthday anniversaries were celebrated jointly Nov. 18th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Pritchett and family at the William Zambun ranch, when Mrs. Pritchett entertained local Cub scouts and a few other friends in honor of the birthdays of her son, Lane (Smoky) Pritchett, Bradford Logomarsino and Mrs. Joseph Halford, the latter being den mother of the Fort Klamath Cub scouts. All three had birthdays during the past week.

Following the opening of their gifts by the three guests of honor, games were the diversion of the afternoon, at the close of which three appropriately decorated birthday cakes were cut and served with ice cream to her guests by Mrs. Pritchett.
