Chest Drive Still In Hole

With Thanksgiving tucked away, Chest workers were pressing hard this week to bring the collection total to $50,000.

Thus far, $49,269.90 has been given or pledged toward the 1951 Community Chest goal of $77,370 and the drive will wind up next week according to Co-Chairmen George McIntyre and Nelson Reed.

Youth agency heads were checking firms and individuals who have not made their usual donations and were hoping for generous giving that the work of these agencies need not be curtailed.

Klamath county has a large goal McIntyre pointed out, but it has hundreds of young people taking advantage of Camp Fire Girls, YMCA, Salvation Army, and the youth groups at Merrill and Chiloquin.

In addition, the local Chest has pledged $16,413 toward the operation of state youth and child care.
