

CIVIC CLUB MEETING

PORT KLAMATH—The regular meeting of the Civic Improvement club was held in the clubhouse on Friday afternoon, November 16, with a good attendance. The newly-elected president, Mrs. Harold (Myrtle) Wimer conducted the business session.

At this time, plans were made and committees appointed for two annual December affairs, the first being the Christmas party and buffet dinner for husbands and families of club members. This will be an event of Friday evening, December 14, at the clubhouse, dinner at six to be followed by a gift exchange from a Christmas tree. Gifts are to be brought by each person attending, cost of adult gifts not to exceed fifty cents, and for children under twelve, not over twenty-five cents.

In charge of the kitchen and dining room will be the following club members: Mrs. Frank Edwards, Mrs. Joseph Halford, Mrs. Ord Wormer.

The committee in charge of decorating and gift exchange is composed of Mrs. Joanne Taylor, Mrs. William A. Page and Mrs. Wilbur B. Heacock.

The date of Friday evening, December 21, was chosen for the annual community Christmas tree and program which will be held at the local Methodist church. In cooperation with fellow club members, a program will be presented by Mrs. Frank Strahan and her elementary grade pupils; also included will be a number by local cub scouts, under the direction of den mother Mrs. Joseph Halford, and a feature by the Bluebird group of campfire girls, directed by their leader, Mrs. James Van Wormer.

Appointed to serve as a committee in full charge of all arrangements for the holiday affair for the community were the following: Joseph Halford, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson and Mrs. Ord Pritchett.

It was announced during the meeting that the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the local Methodist church will present a miscellaneous program on the evening of December 8. Mrs. Hansford T. "Mike" Williams is director of the program, proceeds to go toward defraying cost of the new chairs or pews for the church. Details of the program will be announced later.

Members voted unanimously that the club would continue sponsorship of the local scout pack, which includes the boy scout, cub scout and explorer groups. The club is also sponsor of the Horizon group of camp fire girls, which has Mrs. Frank Strahan for its leader.

Adopting a suggestion from the floor, members will try in future to be on hand early, as the meetings will open promptly at the regular meeting time, 2 p.m.

Mrs. Don Sanders was welcomed as a new club member this time. Mr. and Mrs. Sanders and their two sons are new Fort Klamath residents, having recently purchased the Watson apartment house here.

At the close of the business meeting, refreshments were served by Mrs. Bert Gray, assisted by Mrs. Frank Strahan. The Thanksgiving motif was carried out in table appointments and individual favors.

Present for the afternoon were Mrs. Don Sanders, Mrs. Hansford T. Williams and daughter Martha, Mrs. Charles M. Noah, Mrs. James Van Wormer, Mrs. Ord Pritchett, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson and son Roger, Mrs. William A. Page, Mrs. Joanne Taylor, Mrs. Wilbur B. Heacock, Mrs. Frank Edwards, Mrs. Katherine Nichols, Mrs. Edith Moon, Mrs. Harold Wimer, Mrs. Bert Gray, Mrs. Frank Strahan, Mrs. Joseph Halford, and a special guest, Mrs. Mae Daly, niece and house guest of Mrs. Frank Edwards, visiting here from her home at Wilmington, North Carolina.

Hostesses were Mrs. Vern Hengl, Mrs. Wayne Niehaus, Mrs. Glen Kircher, Norma Lee Genger, Mrs. William Priebe and Mrs. Guy Stieger.

Chief game for the evening party, given at the Steiger home, was cooed with Mrs. Merrill Hoppe taking first place and Mrs. W. T. Oates low. Mrs. Walter Zimmerman won a special award.

Invited guests included Mrs. Robert Doak, Mrs. Ivan Doak, Mrs. Harry Pearson, all of Williamson River, Mrs. Bob Mathis, Mrs. Gus Page, Mrs. Gene Page, and Mrs. Clarence Jenkins, all of Fort Klamath, Mrs. William Wampler, and Mrs. John Bradley, both of Klamath Falls, Mrs. Callie Clark, Mrs. Anton Zading, Mrs. David Potter, Mrs. Walter Zimmerman, Joanne Weddle, Mrs. George Reed, Mrs. W. PATTY McMILLAN TAKES MARRIAGE VOWS IN OAKLAND

Radiant in a white satin wedding gown, Patricia Ann (Patty) McMillan daughter of Mrs. Kenneth Bold, 620 Jefferson, and Floyd D. McMillan, 1307 Division, was given in marriage by her uncle, Virgil Stewart, to Neale Tveitmo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Tveitmo, Berkeley. The eight o'clock service was read by Alf M. Kraabel, pastor of the Central Lutheran church, Oakland, before about 225 invited relatives and friends on October 27.

The altar was dotted with white chrysanthemums and lighted candles. White satin bows marked the aisle.

Patty's bridal gown was styled with an Elizabethan collar, heavily beaded with seed pearls, long fitted sleeves and a court train. Her veil of illusion net, fingertip length, was anchored to a band of orange blossoms and seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet fashioned of white roses, bouvardia and stephanotis tied into small bows in the white satin streamers.

Mrs. Duane Blackman, (Darlene Knowles) was matron of honor, Donna McVay and Mary Lou Case were bridesmaids. All wore strapless ballerina dresses in deep rose with mist blue net overskirts and stoles. Their head pieces were identical in maroon and pink flowers. The corsages were also the same, except that the matron of honor's was maroon, centered with a pink border, and the bridesmaids were reversed in color.

The little flower girl, Robin Tveitmo, was dressed in the bride's honor's was maroon, centered with a pink border, and the bridesmaids were reversed in color.

Neale's best man was his brother, Owen Tveitmo, and the ushers were Jack Ketchum, Don Berry and Herbert Shifflet.

The reception was held in the church parlors immediately after the ceremony.

Some of Patty's former schoolmates who attended her wedding, and are now living in the bay area, were: Beverley Young, Patty Kenneth, Owen Beckley and Doris Ethridge.

For her going away costume the bride chose an oxford gray dress-maker suit with winter white accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid.

Mrs. Bold wore a mauve afternoon dress with a chintilly lace top and chiffon skirt. Her corsage was a purple orchid.

Mrs. Tveitmo chose turquoise blue crepe in an afternoon dress and her corsage was a white orchid.

Patty a graduate of KUHS, was active in all school functions. She was a Pep Peeper, track queen and student body president. At Oregon State college, she became a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority.

Neale is a graduate of University of California, where he majored in criminology. He is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity. Bob Colombatto sang "O Promise Me," "O Perfect Love," and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by the organ.

VINSON-RAMSEY NUPTIAL RITES

First Presbyterian church was the scene of a late wedding, November 10, when Oleta Vinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Vinson, 2124 Applegate, was given in marriage by her father to Sam W. Ramsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam F. Ramsey, Dunsmuir. White chrysanthemums tied with white satin ribbon marked each side of the aisle, and they also dotted the altar where Reverend David F. Barnett Jr. read the seven o'clock service.

The bride's gown was of white satin, princess style, and of special interest was the veil; fingertip length of illusion net edged with a wide band of handmade imported lace held by a tiara of white seed pearls. Her bouquet was red roses centered with a white orchid.

Her maid of honor, Betty Shearer wore a light orchid dress, styled with a pointed waist, of the shoulder and cap sleeved. She carried a bouquet of white and pink scattered carnations.

Flower girl was Barbara Vinson, who was dressed as the maid of honor.

Best man was Jimmy Lawson, and ushers were Jim Morley and Myers Gustavson.

Immediately after the ceremony the reception was held at the Winema hotel for the 100 guests. Mrs. G. H. Vinson, aunt of the bride served the coffee. Betty Ramsey, sister of the bridegroom served the cake, and Mrs. K. W. Vinson, aunt of the bride passed the guest book.

For her going away costume, Oleta chose a brown checked suit with brown accessories, and wore as a corsage the orchid which had centered her bridal bouquet.

After a honeymoon in the bay area, the couple is at home, 2051 Wantland.

Both are graduates of KUHS. Oleta is a student in medical dental office training at OPI, and Sam served three years in the navy. He was 22 months on the USS Penguin, a submarine salvage rescue ship, attached to the submarine Atlantic fleet. He is now with the Southern Pacific.

Out of town guests included: Mrs. Ruth Rogers, Ventura, Oleta's aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Sam F. Ramsey, Dunsmuir, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Vinson and children, from Pennsylvania, Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Howard, aunt and uncle of the bridegroom, Central Point.
