MORE MALE COOKS in the kitchen at St. Paul's, who will help the other men on the dinner committee, Saturday, December 1. "Spaghetti served with a smile" is the slogan for the evening. Horace Getz left, and Jim Miller are happy as the other committee members, under the chairmanship of John Schubert, not in pictures. —Photo by Kettler

ST. PAUL'S ANNUAL BAZAAR planned for December 1, will start with a business men's luncheon, with women cordially invited. Under the supervision of Mrs. Galen Onstad, luncheon will be served from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Other than the usual beautifully made aprons, dish-towels, Christmas cakes, puddings and cooked foods, the traditional fishpond will have a new twist, as yet a secret. "The Dark Horse Table" strictly a men's rummage affair, will display "anything from lawnmowers to screwdrivers." Rev. Galen Onstad, left, Mrs. Dorman Schaeffer, bazaar chairman, and Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby, seated, are shown making last minute plans. Mrs. Ramsby is one of the first members of St. Paul's, and worked years ago to make the church an actuality instead of a dream. —Photo by Kettler

PINOCHLE

LANGELL VALLEY—Mrs. Charles Schmiedl entertained at her home on the afternoon of November 13 with a pinochle party. The Thanksgiving motif was used in the decorations and the theme was carried out in the refreshments. High prize went to Mrs. Kermit Kyser and Mrs. Luther Noble won both the low prize and the traveling prize. Others present besides the prize winners and the hostess were Mrs. Joe Potuck, Mrs. Louis Stahler, Mrs. Ted Schmiedl and Mrs. Russell Walsh. Mary Anne Leavitt won the contest prize. The next meeting will be all day at the community hall to fill candy bags, decorate the tree and get ready for the Christmas party. Members will have a 50 cent gift exchange. Each lady is to take her own sandwiches and Mrs. Dorothy Fletcher will be hostess and furnish the coffee and doughnuts.

Following the meeting delicious berry pie and coffee was served by Mrs. Smeicer and Mrs. Dearborn to Mrs. I. B. Morris, Mrs. Elfreda Lindsay, Mrs. Lloyd Crawford, Mrs. Chris Hood, Mrs. Lester Jones, and Freda Dearborn.

MARILYN MILLER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Miller, 640 Conger, as she appeared before the Library club Monday, November 19, on one of the programs of the "Magic Carpet Series." For this particular one, Mrs. Twyla Ferguson chose "Paris Twenty Years Ago and Now" as the theme of her talk; and Marilyn, whose dancing preceded the talk, enchanted her audience with her interpretation of Debussy's Claire de Lune. —Photo by John Wilson

LIBRARY CLUB—Library club's "Magic Carpet" took members to France at last Monday's meeting in the city library club rooms. Posters and maps of France, obtained by Program Chairman Mrs. Clarence W. A. from the French consulate in San Francisco adorned the walls. The Parisian setting was also provided by a display of French articles contributed by Library club members.

Mrs. W. D. Miller, Mrs. Glen Bowen and Mrs. Eric Malors arranged a typical Paris street corner flower stand with real and artificial flowers.

Harriet Mueller, accompanied by Marie Obenchain, sang "Tes Yeux" by Reber, "Invitation to the Voyage" by Duparc, "The Mirror" by Ferrari, "Après un Reve" by Faure and "Femmes, Battez vos Maris" by Bax.

Speaker of the day was Mrs. Twyla Ferguson who told delightful incidents of her trips to Paris twenty years ago and two years ago. She gave many tips to prospective voyagers on what to see in France.

Marilyn Miller performed a dance, "Claire de Lune" by Debussy. Marilyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Miller and is a student of Mrs. Annae Uhrek.

French onion soup was served by Mrs. George Bessard and Mrs. Archie James in costume. Also wearing French peasant costumes were Mrs. Fred Hoagland and Mrs. Dick Newman, hostesses; Mrs. Charles Larkin, Mrs. C. J. Cox, Mrs. P. D. Mead, and Mrs. Lloyd Young, also committee; and Mrs. George Ader, general chairman of the day.

The next Library club meeting on December 10 will feature England, with Christmas music under the direction of Andrew Loney Jr.
