

Daytime Circles Meet

The four daytime circles of the First Methodist church, met on November 8. Martha circle, met at the home of Mrs. Bertha Saylor, 601 N. 11th. Seventeen members and three guests attended.

Mrs. Lee McBride lead the devotions and Mrs. John Yaden gave the lesson and took for her subject "The Life of Helen Keller."

Plans for the bazaar were discussed. Esther circle met at the home of Mrs. Joe Kennedy, at her home at Weyerhaeuser. Fifteen members and four guests were present. Mrs. E. M. Chilcote gave the devotions and Mrs. Peterson, of the OTI gave the lesson. Plans for the bazaar were discussed.

Mary circle met with Mrs. E. B. Sinclair, 3740 Summers Lane. Sixteen members were present. Mrs. E. Putman gave the devotions and the lesson. Plans for the bazaar were discussed and quite a number of things were turned in.

Ruth circle met with Mrs. Gus Vlahos, 2202 Main St. Ten members were present. Mrs. Lawrence Phelps gave the lesson. Mrs. G. A. Gaster, the devotions. They also made plan for the coming bazaar.

Summer Lake

By MRS. E. R. NELSON

Mrs. E. M. Carlson and Mrs. W. H. Harvey were joint hostesses at a card party at the Grange hall Friday, November 16. It was a guild benefit party and the attendance was good. A neat sum was realized from the affair. E. M. Carlson won high prize for men. Mrs. Ruth Graves, high for women. Mrs. Muriel Nelson low prize and James Foster, low prize for canasta.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Elder left Sunday, November 18, for Eugene where they went for medical check ups. They had no definite plans as to when they would return.

Among business visitors in Lakeview Tuesday, November 13 were Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Harris. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lynch and David O'Connor.

Mrs. E. M. Carlson and Mrs. E. R. Nelson were callers on Mrs. David O'Connor November 13.

The regular school movie shown at the Ana River school house Tuesday, November 13, was well attended. The picture shown was "Call Northside 777," starring James Stewart, Richard Conte and Lee Cobb.

Bob Rhoades of Klamath Falls was a business visitor here November 13.

Church services were held in the Episcopal church Sunday, November 18, at 3:30 p.m. This will be the time schedule for the winter months. Mrs. Herbert Nelson and Mrs. Lawrence Casner from Paisley, accompanied by Mrs. James Foster on the organ, played a variety of hymns. Next church services will be held December 16.

As of November 19, the precipitation in this area has been 1.60 inches.

John O'Leary, brother of Mrs. David O'Connor, returned from Portland early last week when he had gone for an operation on one of his eyes. He is now recovering nicely and is at the home of his sister.

Joe Penington is installing a new water system on his ranch, the former Jack Parlin ranch. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Foster were visitors in Bend and Redmond, November 14 and 15.

Mrs. Gertrude Caldwell is helping Mrs. A. Deboy through the hunting season.

Installation of the new Grange officers for the coming year will be held at the Grange hall, Monday, December 17, in new state deputy, Vern Lantz, from Redmond, will be the installing officer. Joint installations will be held in union with Fort Rock and Valley Falls.

Home Economics club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. H. C. Harris, November 29. Members are asked to bring gifts for the TB hospital, to be sent to The Dallas hospital for Christmas. Gifts should be labeled for men or women. Needlework, crochets for both men and women, combs, stationery and stamps are acceptable as gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Vic Minkler have arrived here from Shelton, Wash., for an indefinite stay on their ranch here. They had the misfortune to hit a deer on the highway close to home and their car was badly wrecked.

L. E. Elder, Mrs. H. C. Harris and Mrs. E. R. Nelson attended Pomona grange at Westside, November 17. The day was pleasantly spent with other county grangers. State Deputy Vern Lantz, from Redmond, was in attendance. Congratulations are extended to the Valley Falls grange, which won a first prize in the attendance contest, and the Summer Lake grange, which took second prize. The group was supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Passage of Valley Falls, attending the Valley Falls grange session in its new hall for the first time. The hall has been well planned by that organization and every available hour has been spent working on the building with the energetic home economics members serving hot dinners for the workers. When completed the hall will be one of the nicest and best in the state. We enjoyed our evening with the new grange, whose members are all very friendly and hospitable.

Mrs. Art Stallcup of Macdonald was the luncheon guest Tuesday, November 20, of Mrs. Cliff Branham and Mike.

MR. AND MRS. PERRY R. SKINNER, who were recently married in Sacred Heart Catholic church in Alturas. Father Dominic Antonelli officiated. Mrs. Skinner is the former Joan Marie McHugh, daughter of Chief of Police and Mrs. P. J. McHugh, Alturas. —Photo by Souther

JOAN McHUGH RECENT BRIDE

In a beautiful double-ring ceremony in the Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Alturas, Joan Marie McHugh and Perry R. Skinner were married. Father Dominic Antonelli officiated.

The bride was groomed in a white slipper satin floor-length dress with bodice and peplum trimmed in white nylon lace. Her long, trailing veil was edged in nylon lace and was held in place by a seed pearl crown. She carried a white prayer book with a white orchid held by white satin streamers.

Mrs. Van Riley, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a gold tulle ankle-length gown with matching cap and mitts. Bridesmaids were Mrs. K. O. Dunbar of Paradise and Miss Jeanne McHugh, sisters of the bride. They were groomed in deep rust tulle with matching caps and mitts. The three attendants carried matching bouquets to carry out the fall theme.

Best man was Carroll England, of Robins, a close friend of the bridegroom. Clifton Jones and Van Riley were ushers.

A royal blue crepe dress with matching accessories was chosen by the bride's mother, while Mrs. Ed Chidoss, Woodland, mother of the bridegroom, wore a black tulle two-piece dress with matching accessories.

Following the ceremony the guests were received at the home of the bride's parents, 1209 Second St.

For her going away ensemble, the bride chose a rust and black tulle suit with black accessories. The newlyweds are honeymooning in southern California.

The bride is the daughter of Chief of Police P. J. McHugh and Mrs. P. J. McHugh. She is a graduate of Modoc Union High School and attended Chico State college two years. She is presently employed in the office of the White Pine Lumber Co.

Mr. Skinner, a native of Woodland, is the son of Mrs. Ed Chidoss of Woodland. He was graduated from Woodland High School and Lassen Junior College in Susanville. He is employed by the Mountain Lily Dairy.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Chidoss, Mr. and Mrs. James

FACULTY WIVES MEET AT OTI

The regular meeting of Oregon Technical Institute faculty wives was held in the recreation room of Kings hall at 7:30 p.m. November 13.

The meeting was called to order by the president Mrs. John Howard. After the business meeting was completed, it was voted to have a Christmas party Wednesday in the recreation room of Kings hall at 7:30 p.m. December 12.

Faculty wives are to invite their husbands to be their guests of the evening. There will be an exchange of gifts.

Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Delmar Jones, Mrs. Roy Green and Mrs. Grant Bailey. All faculty instructors and wives are invited.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Albert McVey and Mrs. George Harper Jr. They presented the ladies with coronas representing an OTI football roster.

The next meeting will be the evening of December 12th at Kings

★ OUR... Personalized Christmas Card ★
Albums are now on display! Order Now... for best selection and avoid last minute limited stocks.
★ PIONEER OFFICE SUPPLY 629 Main ★

BPW MEETING

Business and Professional Women meeting Monday night, November 19 for dinner at the Willard hotel heard Elise Perry U.S. exchange teacher to the British Isles last year, compare Thanksgiving here this year and celebration of the day last year in austere England.

Clever Thanksgiving decorations, pilgrim hats and plumed turkeys made from pine cones centered the tables. Four Mills school boys, accompanied by Ruth Lobanugh sang three numbers. Mandy Lee, Galloway Bay and Johnny Won't You Stay Awhile.

Plans were made for the annual Christmas party at the county inn, sponsored by BPW. Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus will visit the men and women and gifts will be presented to each one.

The dinner was well attended. Edna Albrecht presided.

★ CONVERT YOUR OLD COTTON MATTRESS ★
Don't buy a new mattress!
★ Carlsons ★
Into a 312 coil INNERSPRING
A $9.95 32.50
Quality ★
Save with Carlsons' Phone 4510
2405 So. 6th

Fort Klamath

Mr. and Mrs. Don Sanders and their two sons, called to Stockton, Calif., by news of the death of her father, John Lafayette Klamplin. Funeral services were held Saturday, November 10, at the Friable, Warren, funeral chapel at Stockton, and the body of Mr. Klamplin was forwarded via rail to his old home at Wetumka, Okla., where final services were held and interment made in the family burial plot. He is survived by his aged father, his widow, four sons and four daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Erickson of the Modoc Lumber Co. camp entertained with a dinner party Wednesday November 7, when the following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Beem and Lee Mayfield of Klamath Falls; Mr. Walter E. Brithune, who is timekeeper for the county, and also a resident of Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. James Van Wormer and son Douglas returned last week from an elk hunting trip in the Lakeview locality. During their ten-day stay, they were guests of State Police Officer and Mrs. Homer Snyder. Snyder and his father caught a fine five-point bull elk but the Ft. Klamath hunters were unsuccessful. Other local hunters making unsuccessful forays into the Prairie City area in Eastern Oregon on the track of the wily elk were Bob Henderson, Cliff Thompson, Don Winder, Howard Luderhans, Brattain, Charles "Buck" Johnson and Raymond Van Wormer, the two latter being from Grater Lake national park. The group reported very poor hunting in the Prairie City elk country.

The open season on elk west of Fort Klamath was also a blank; not one elk having been reported killed this season; as a matter of fact, even a track of an elk could be seen this year, the creatures having disappeared entirely with the opening of hunting season, although they have been numerous up until this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Reese enjoyed a wonderful vacation trip to Portland via the scenic Columbia river highway, a section of Oregon which they had not visited before.

They are recent newcomers here, having purchased the Fort Creek motel this past summer, coming here from Bakersfield, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. John Palmer and family were Sunday visitors at the home of her mother and grandmother, Mrs. Edna Page, Orib and Mrs. Viola Leever.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Knowles are the proud parents of a baby boy, born October 24, at Klamath Falls hospital in Klamath Falls. This is their first child, and he has been named Jeffrey Blakey. On arrival he tipped the scales at a good lusty weight, 8 pounds and 1 ounce. Mrs. Knowles and Jeffrey came home last week after having stayed with relatives in Klamath Falls for some time after leaving the hospital. The arrival of the infant makes grandparents of Mrs. Knowles' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thomas of Fort Klamath, and it is a tossup who is the proudest over his birth, the parents or the grandparents. This is their first grandchild.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brisco visited here Sunday with his father, Charles J. Brisco of the Crater Lake cafe, and also with Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Roeder and sons, Donald and Clark. Mrs. Roeder is Brisco's sister.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Hackler were Mr. and Mrs. R. McClaren, Mrs. J. H. Carnahan and Mrs. Esther Lawler, all of Klamath Falls. Spending Tuesday at the Hackler ranch home were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pauley, also of Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley and son Wilfred, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Denton, left Tuesday, November 13, on a motor trip which will take them to New Mexico. There they will visit at Carlsbad with Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Kizer and children. Mrs. Kizer being the former Maxine Loosley; also in New Mexico they will visit at Eunice with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Byous and family. Mrs. Byous being another of the Loosley family, the former Ethel Loosley. The Loosleys and Mrs. Denton plan to be back in Fort Klamath on December 1.

A preview of things to come in the way of weather was given to Harris, November 29. People last weekend, November 11, when Old Man Winter lashed out with his first icy blast of the season. Following a period of crisp nights and sunny days, the weather changed, and on Saturday the skies were gloomy and overcast, the driving south wind bringing snow Saturday night and Sunday. The wind had not abated Sunday night, but the snow had turned to rain and from present indications the early snow will be soon gone. Snowplows were in operation for the first time this season, the state highway crew keeping the roads cleared of snow Saturday night and early Sunday.

The many duck and goose hunters came here for the hunting of the migratory fowl have been cursing the fine weather and praying for a storm which they swore would better the hunting conditions; however, we have certainly had a storm, and hunters are still disgruntled at their failure in bringing down the high-flying ducks and honkers.

James Leggett spent several days with his wife and sons at their home here, coming from Hanford, Wash., where he is employed at the atomic bomb plant. Primary purpose of his visit was to bid good-bye to his son, James Jr., who has been enjoying a 30-day furlough with his mother and brother Ronnie. He left for Seattle, Wash., bound for Adak, Alaska, where he will be stationed with the Seabees, having enlisted over a year ago in this branch of the naval service.

Women's Club Langell Valley

LANGELL VALLEY—Mrs. Wes Dearborn and Mrs. Doug Smeicer entertained the Langell Valley Women's club at the Parish hall on November 15. President Beila Morris was in charge. Members voted to send a donation to the community chest. They planned a dance for December 15 to pay for candy and treats for the children at the annual Christmas tree and program. Music will be by the Smoothies. Mrs. Alfreda Lunday will be chairman of the December dance. Mrs. Morris, Mrs. George Fernlund, and Mrs. Ray Davis were in charge of the December dance.

RECORDED CONCERTS

The concert hall division of the Klamath Musical Arts council announced the start in a series of public recorded concerts to be presented Sunday, November 25 at 3 p.m. at the Louis R. Mann Piano company, 120 N. 7th. The public is cordially invited to attend this free concert. The program will feature selections played by some of the world's greatest and finest orchestras. Members are urged to attend the one and one-half hour of superior music.

Merrill

By ROBERTA DEWEY

MERRILL—The student-teacher reunion held Friday evening at the Merrill grade school gym in observance of American Education Week was a huge success, both financially and socially.

Credit for the well-planned evening of entertainment and fun goes to the executive committee of Merrill Parents-Patrons who sent out the invitations, handled the program, and served refreshments. As a result $150 was netted which will be used to purchase rental instruments for students wishing to play in the school band.

Harold Hendrickson, high school principal, ably assisted by Guy Merrill, introduced the old-timers present, and many hearty laughs were heard when students of the old Gale school "revealed actual happenings" at their school. A prize was presented John Colwell oldest student present. Mrs. George Offield and Mrs. Lewis Kandra received the award. A November 29 meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Joe De Grande.

Many parents and friends visited the school during American Education Week.

Jackie Portorfield had several young first, second and third grade friends at his recent birthday party.

Vernon Grove, Glen Skeels, Vern Livingston, all of Salem, and Doug Sawyer, Eugene, were weekend guests of Joe De Grande's. They were here to hunt ducks and geese.

Rev. and Mrs. Melvin Griffith and their son were guests at the Keno Gospel Center Sunday. After church, the Griffiths were dinner guests of Rev. Milford.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley and son Wilfred, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Denton, left Tuesday, November 13, on a motor trip which will take them to New Mexico. There they will visit at Carlsbad with Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Kizer and children. Mrs. Kizer being the former Maxine Loosley; also in New Mexico they will visit at Eunice with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Byous and family. Mrs. Byous being another of the Loosley family, the former Ethel Loosley. The Loosleys and Mrs. Denton plan to be back in Fort Klamath on December 1.

A preview of things to come in the way of weather was given to Harris, November 29. People last weekend, November 11, when Old Man Winter lashed out with his first icy blast of the season. Following a period of crisp nights and sunny days, the weather changed, and on Saturday the skies were gloomy and overcast, the driving south wind bringing snow Saturday night and Sunday. The wind had not abated Sunday night, but the snow had turned to rain and from present indications the early snow will be soon gone. Snowplows were in operation for the first time this season, the state highway crew keeping the roads cleared of snow Saturday night and early Sunday.

The many duck and goose hunters came here for the hunting of the migratory fowl have been cursing the fine weather and praying for a storm which they swore would better the hunting conditions; however, we have certainly had a storm, and hunters are still disgruntled at their failure in bringing down the high-flying ducks and honkers.

James Leggett spent several days with his wife and sons at their home here, coming from Hanford, Wash., where he is employed at the atomic bomb plant. Primary purpose of his visit was to bid good-bye to his son, James Jr., who has been enjoying a 30-day furlough with his mother and brother Ronnie. He left for Seattle, Wash., bound for Adak, Alaska, where he will be stationed with the Seabees, having enlisted over a year ago in this branch of the naval service.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Knowles are the proud parents of a baby boy, born October 24, at Klamath Falls hospital in Klamath Falls. This is their first child, and he has been named Jeffrey Blakey. On arrival he tipped the scales at a good lusty weight, 8 pounds and 1 ounce. Mrs. Knowles and Jeffrey came home last week after having stayed with relatives in Klamath Falls for some time after leaving the hospital. The arrival of the infant makes grandparents of Mrs. Knowles' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thomas of Fort Klamath, and it is a tossup who is the proudest over his birth, the parents or the grandparents. This is their first grandchild.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brisco visited here Sunday with his father, Charles J. Brisco of the Crater Lake cafe, and also with Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Roeder and sons, Donald and Clark. Mrs. Roeder is Brisco's sister.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Hackler were Mr. and Mrs. R. McClaren, Mrs. J. H. Carnahan and Mrs. Esther Lawler, all of Klamath Falls. Spending Tuesday at the Hackler ranch home were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pauley, also of Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley and son Wilfred, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Denton, left Tuesday, November 13, on a motor trip which will take them to New Mexico. There they will visit at Carlsbad with Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Kizer and children. Mrs. Kizer being the former Maxine Loosley; also in New Mexico they will visit at Eunice with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Byous and family. Mrs. Byous being another of the Loosley family, the former Ethel Loosley. The Loosleys and Mrs. Denton plan to be back in Fort Klamath on December 1.

A preview of things to come in the way of weather was given to Harris, November 29. People last weekend, November 11, when Old Man Winter lashed out with his first icy blast of the season. Following a period of crisp nights and sunny days, the weather changed, and on Saturday the skies were gloomy and overcast, the driving south wind bringing snow Saturday night and Sunday. The wind had not abated Sunday night, but the snow had turned to rain and from present indications the early snow will be soon gone. Snowplows were in operation for the first time this season, the state highway crew keeping the roads cleared of snow Saturday night and early Sunday.

The many duck and goose hunters came here for the hunting of the migratory fowl have been cursing the fine weather and praying for a storm which they swore would better the hunting conditions; however, we have certainly had a storm, and hunters are still disgruntled at their failure in bringing down the high-flying ducks and honkers.

James Leggett spent several days with his wife and sons at their home here, coming from Hanford, Wash., where he is employed at the atomic bomb plant. Primary purpose of his visit was to bid good-bye to his son, James Jr., who has been enjoying a 30-day furlough with his mother and brother Ronnie. He left for Seattle, Wash., bound for Adak, Alaska, where he will be stationed with the Seabees, having enlisted over a year ago in this branch of the naval service.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Knowles are the proud parents of a baby boy, born October 24, at Klamath Falls hospital in Klamath Falls. This is their first child, and he has been named Jeffrey Blakey. On arrival he tipped the scales at a good lusty weight, 8 pounds and 1 ounce. Mrs. Knowles and Jeffrey came home last week after having stayed with relatives in Klamath Falls for some time after leaving the hospital. The arrival of the infant makes grandparents of Mrs. Knowles' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thomas of Fort Klamath, and it is a tossup who is the proudest over his birth, the parents or the grandparents. This is their first grandchild.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brisco visited here Sunday with his father, Charles J. Brisco of the Crater Lake cafe, and also with Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Roeder and sons, Donald and Clark. Mrs. Roeder is Brisco's sister.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Hackler were Mr. and Mrs. R. McClaren, Mrs. J. H. Carnahan and Mrs. Esther Lawler, all of Klamath Falls. Spending Tuesday at the Hackler ranch home were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pauley, also of Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley and son Wilfred, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Denton, left Tuesday, November 13, on a motor trip which will take them to New Mexico. There they will visit at Carlsbad with Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Kizer and children. Mrs. Kizer being the former Maxine Loosley; also in New Mexico they will visit at Eunice with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Byous and family. Mrs. Byous being another of the Loosley family, the former Ethel Loosley. The Loosleys and Mrs. Denton plan to be back in Fort Klamath on December 1.

A preview of things to come in the way of weather was given to Harris, November 29. People last weekend, November 11, when Old Man Winter lashed out with his first icy blast of the season. Following a period of crisp nights and sunny days, the weather changed, and on Saturday the skies were gloomy and overcast, the driving south wind bringing snow Saturday night and Sunday. The wind had not abated Sunday night, but the snow had turned to rain and from present indications the early snow will be soon gone. Snowplows were in operation for the first time this season, the state highway crew keeping the roads cleared of snow Saturday night and early Sunday.

The many duck and goose hunters came here for the hunting of the migratory fowl have been cursing the fine weather and praying for a storm which they swore would better the hunting conditions; however, we have certainly had a storm, and hunters are still disgruntled at their failure in bringing down the high-flying ducks and honkers.

James Leggett spent several days with his wife and sons at their home here, coming from Hanford, Wash., where he is employed at the atomic bomb plant. Primary purpose of his visit was to bid good-bye to his son, James Jr., who has been enjoying a 30-day furlough with his mother and brother Ronnie. He left for Seattle, Wash., bound for Adak, Alaska, where he will be stationed with the Seabees, having enlisted over a year ago in this branch of the naval service.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Knowles are the proud parents of a baby boy, born October 24, at Klamath Falls hospital in Klamath Falls. This is their first child, and he has been named Jeffrey Blakey. On arrival he tipped the scales at a good lusty weight, 8 pounds and 1 ounce. Mrs. Knowles and Jeffrey came home last week after having stayed with relatives in Klamath Falls for some time after leaving the hospital. The arrival of the infant makes grandparents of Mrs. Knowles' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thomas of Fort Klamath, and it is a tossup who is the proudest over his birth, the parents or the grandparents. This is their first grandchild.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brisco visited here Sunday with his father, Charles J. Brisco of the Crater Lake cafe, and also with Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Roeder and sons, Donald and Clark. Mrs. Roeder is Brisco's sister.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Hackler were Mr. and Mrs. R. McClaren, Mrs. J. H. Carnahan and Mrs. Esther Lawler, all of Klamath Falls. Spending Tuesday at the Hackler ranch home were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pauley, also of Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley and son Wilfred, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Denton, left Tuesday, November 13, on a motor trip which will take them to New Mexico. There they will visit at Carlsbad with Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Kizer and children. Mrs. Kizer being the former Maxine Loosley; also in New Mexico they will visit at Eunice with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Byous and family. Mrs. Byous being another of the Loosley family, the former Ethel Loosley. The Loosleys and Mrs. Denton plan to be back in Fort Klamath on December 1.

Venture Club Aids Red Cross

Venture club held its monthly project meeting, Tuesday evening, November 20, at the home of Mrs. T. C. Griggs. The club started on their new project of making layettes for the Red Cross.

The goal is to complete one layette a month, and the girls were especially busy trying to complete the November and December because of Christmas activities in December.

Refreshment committee for the evening was Phyllis Cavanaugh and Josephine Reginato.

Langell Grange

LANGELL VALLEY—The Langell Valley grange met at the community hall on Tuesday evening for their regular meeting. Election of officers was held with Martin Brown, master, Floyd Meeker, overseer, Eddie Grailan, lecturer, Chris Hood, steward, George Fernlund, assistant steward, Edna Hood, chairman, Bill Novotny, secretary, Rosa Meeker, Ceres, Doris Schmiedl, Pomona, Miriam Potucek, Flora, and Bette Staller, lady assistant steward.

Members of executive committee are Joe Potucek, Charles Schmiedl, and Louis Staller.

Grange meets every second and fourth Tuesday of the month.

KENO

By MRS. JOE DE GRANDE

Rosalie De Grande was guest of honor at a recent birthday party. There were 18 guests. Games were played and refreshments served.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hill and family have moved to Portland.

Magician Robert Emrico entertained a large crowd here recently.

Nine girls received their Girl Scout pins at a recent Troop 13 ceremony. The troop now has 18 members. A November 29 meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Joe De Grande.

Many parents and friends visited the school during American Education Week.

Jackie Portorfield had several young first, second and third grade friends at his recent birthday party.

Vernon Grove, Glen Skeels, Vern Livingston, all of Salem, and Doug Sawyer, Eugene, were weekend guests of Joe De Grande's. They were here to hunt ducks and geese.

Rev. and Mrs. Melvin Griffith and their son were guests at the Keno Gospel Center Sunday. After church, the Griffiths were dinner guests of Rev. Milford.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley and son Wilfred, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Denton, left Tuesday, November 13, on a motor trip which will take them to New Mexico. There they will visit at Carlsbad with Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Kizer and children. Mrs. Kizer being the former Maxine Loosley; also in New Mexico they will visit at Eunice with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Byous and family. Mrs. Byous being another of the Loosley family, the former Ethel Loosley. The Loosleys and Mrs. Denton plan to be back in Fort Klamath on December 1.

A preview of things to come in the way of weather was given to Harris, November 29. People last weekend, November 11, when Old Man Winter lashed out with his first icy blast of the season. Following a period of crisp nights and sunny days, the weather changed, and on Saturday the skies were gloomy and overcast, the driving south wind bringing snow Saturday night and Sunday. The wind had not abated Sunday night, but the snow had turned to rain and from present indications the early snow will be soon gone. Snowplows were in operation for the first time this season, the state highway crew keeping the roads cleared of snow Saturday night and early Sunday.

The many duck and goose hunters came here for the hunting of the migratory fowl have been cursing the fine weather and praying for a storm which they swore would better the hunting conditions; however, we have certainly had a storm, and hunters are still disgruntled at their failure in bringing down the high-flying ducks and honkers.

James Leggett spent several days with his wife and sons at their home here, coming from Hanford, Wash., where he is employed at the atomic bomb plant. Primary purpose of his visit was to bid good-bye to his son, James Jr., who has been enjoying a 30-day furlough with his mother and brother Ronnie. He left for Seattle, Wash., bound for Adak, Alaska, where he will be stationed with the Seabees, having enlisted over a year ago in this branch of the naval service.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Knowles are the proud parents of a baby boy, born October 24, at Klamath Falls hospital in Klamath Falls. This is their first child, and he has been named Jeffrey Blakey. On arrival he tipped the scales at a good lusty weight, 8 pounds and 1 ounce. Mrs. Knowles and Jeffrey came home last week after having stayed with relatives in Klamath Falls for some time after leaving the hospital. The arrival of the infant makes grandparents of Mrs. Knowles' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thomas of Fort Klamath, and it is a tossup who is the proudest over his birth, the parents or the grandparents. This is their first grandchild.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brisco visited here Sunday with his father, Charles J. Brisco of the Crater Lake cafe, and also with Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Roeder and sons, Donald and Clark. Mrs. Roeder is Brisco's sister.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Hackler were Mr. and Mrs. R. McClaren, Mrs. J. H. Carnahan and Mrs. Esther Lawler, all of Klamath Falls. Spending Tuesday at the Hackler ranch home were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pauley, also of Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley and son Wilfred, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Denton, left Tuesday, November 13, on a motor trip which will take them to New Mexico.