Indians Fail To Make Quota

KLAMATH AGENCY — Not enough members of the Klamath Indian tribe turned up here yesterday to constitute a quorum for doing business at a scheduled meeting of the tribal council.

One hundred adult members of the tribe are necessary to form a quorum. Only about 80 came to the council meeting.

Another session has been scheduled for next Thursday.

Business on the docket includes action on the bill to allow members of the tribe to withdraw, taking with them 80 percent of their share of tribal wealth, discussion and action on allowing the state of Oregon to take over certain legal jurisdiction on the reservation now exercised by the federal government; and action toward ending the federal liquor prohibition to Indians law.

An agency officer said the Indians did not appear interested enough in the issues to turn out and that if no quorum is present at next Thursday's scheduled meeting the agency will notify congress interest in the voluntary withdrawal plan is insufficient. Congress must pass the legislation to put it into effect.

Black was the favorite color for automobiles during the depression years. The trend today is toward lighter colors for passenger cars.

The term "journeyman" originates from the French word "jour" meaning "day." All workers were known as day laborers in the Renaissance period.

Actress Denies Bedroom Misconduct

SANTA MONICA, Calif., (AP)—Actress Janis Carter denies that she ever joined with film executive Noah Dietrich in boudoir misconduct.

Miss Carter, 30, has been named as co-respondent in a separate maintenance suit filed by Dietrich's wife, Carol, who accused him and the actress of 10 "acts of inidelity."

Miss Carter filed her answer in superior court yesterday. She denied everything and demanded that she be paid for defending herself against the charges. Dietrich, chairman of the board at RKO studio, also has denied the allegations.

Oregon Convict Nabbed In Calif.

SACRAMENTO, Calif.—William T. Russell Sr., 39, who escaped from the Oregon state penitentiary at Salem, July 7, was arraigned yesterday before U. S. commissioner Adelia C. McCabe.

Russell, who once boasted he would never be taken alive, surrendered Tuesday to FBI agents who had tracked him to nearby Del Paso heights.

He was held in jail in lieu of $1000 bail. The charge was unlawful flight to avoid confinement.

The FBI said Russell had committed 50 robberies before he was sentenced to a three year prison term.
