

Doherty - Murray Wedding

MRS. RODNEY N. MURRAY, formerly Marie Doherty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Doherty, Lakeview, Oregon. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Murray, 812 Pacific Terrace.

Two Beautiful Brides

S o c i e t y
By MILLY
RAMSBY

Photos by Galerian.

Blakeman - Hilton Wedding

MRS. ROBERT JAMES HILTON, formerly Elizabeth Louise Blakeman, daughter of Mrs. Ruby Patterson, 1844 Lancaster, whose marriage was solemnized in the chapel of First Presbyterian church, Colorado Springs, October 22. Her husband is the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Hilton, 435 Hillside.

Photo by Nickolson.

LEAVING ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH in Lakeview after the ceremony November 23 . . . The new Mr. and Mrs. Murray leaving for the reception at Hunter's Hot Springs hotel.

MR. AND MRS. PERCY MURRAY, parents of the bridegroom, who recently observed their silver wedding anniversary looking very youthful and altar-bound themselves.

A TOAST AT THE RECEPTION . . . James to his happy bride. The reception was held November 17 in the Pelican Party room. He has reported to Fort Lawton to await orders for duty in the medical corps of the US army with the far east command.

THE BRIDE AND BRIDE GROOM and their guest book (l to r) with the bridegroom's sister, Jean and brother, Richard Hilton.

DODGING A SHOWER OF RICE . . . the happy couple were caught by the camera as they left for their honeymoon and home . . . Chicago . . . where they will live.

THE BRIDE WITH HER attendants, from the left, Marcella Murray, bridesmaid, Julia Doherty, maid of honor, Rosemary Murray, Mrs. Don Blythe and Margaret Simpson, all bridesmaids.

A FORERUNNER OF MANY family gatherings is the picture of Dr. and Mrs. Hilton and their new daughter, Elizabeth Louise, and their son, Robert James Hilton . . . one of the many pleasant interludes at the reception given for the couple.