

SOCIETY

by Milly Ramsby

Klamath Shrine Club Dinner Dance

MRS. LOUIS SERRUYS offers Noble Bob Thompson a "dainty morsel" with Mrs. Thompson reflecting the fun had at the dinner dance.

A COLORFUL AND LOVELY dinner dance was given by the Klamath County Shrine club recently, when Nobles and their ladies enjoyed an evening of cocktails, dining and dancing at the armory. Mr. and Mrs. George Flitcraft were chairmen for the affair.

A LITTLE HILLAH HARMONY of the Klamath County Shrine dinner dance with Andy Loney at the piano, Bob Elder, standing (l to r) Charles Morrison and Bob Thompson comprising the quartet.

MR. AND MRS. Russell Marshall left and Al Vince engaged in some animated conversation before dinner.

PAST POTENTATE AND RECORDER H. K. Mayberry from Ashland is shown with Mrs. Mayberry, and standing (l to r) Past Potentate Oscar Kittredge, Past Potentate George Hillis and Scott Warren who is president of Klamath County Shrine club.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE FLITCRAFT (left) and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fryck, interested in the "salted nut department."

LOUIS E. SERRUYS AND Mr. and Mrs. Willard Word, have a little chat during the post-dinner hour at the Shrine club dinner dance.

MRS. LLOYD C. PROCK and Mrs. Howard Pernell, seated, will soon be joined at the table by Lloyd C. Prock, standing (l to r) Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sprout Jr. and Howard Pernell.

Job's Daughters Formal Dance

JEAN OWENS, (l to r) Bud Deller, George Stevenson and Barbara Custer (Job's Daughters queen) reflect a definite reaction to one of Bud's witticisms.

DENNY TODD, left, Lamar Jensen, music department KUHS, and Barbara Johnson during a lull at the Job's Daughters formal November 22 in the girls gym.

GEORGE VLAHOS and Marlene Howard just before the dance soon filled out that program which Mrs. Floyd R. Waddell, Job's Daughters guardian, is shown handing to them.

GERTRUDE BRAMLETT and David French corsaged and boutonniere are ready for a full evening of dancing at the Job's Daughters formal the day after Thanksgiving.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS is an important date for teenagers, and as usual was well attended. Formal for the girls . . . it brought out the prettiest dresses and "hairdos."

All Photos on Page by Kettler.

JEANNIE CONDREY and Charles Guptill pictured as they pause for a moment on the dance floor at the Job's Daughters' formal.