PETERSON-CORNETT RITES AT SACRED HEART CHURCH

Sacred Heart church was the scene of a nuptial mass on Saturday, November 24, when Barbara Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Peterson, 1405 Lakeview, became the bride of Lt. Jack D. Cornett, son of Mrs. Alma Cornett, Portland. Rev. T. P. Casey read the service at 9:30 a.m. The background of lighted tapers in tall candelabra, white chrysanthemums and woodruff ferns formed a charming setting for the ceremony.

In a gown of blush pink satin fashioned with a stand up collar and vee neckline. The light fitting bodice was fastened with small satin buttons extending from the neckline to the waist. The skirt featured a pleated and a chapel train. The bride's fingertip veil fell from a halo of braided satin, and her bouquet was an arrangement of crocus and dieffenbachia leaves centered with white carnations.

Mrs. Leland Clearwater, sister of the bride was matron of honor and only attendant. She was gowned in a coral taffeta styled like the bride's dress, and her headpiece was a halo of braided taffeta. Her bouquet was an unusual and attractive arrangement of crocus and dieffenbachia leaves.

Just before the ceremony Mrs. Marvin Nerzeth sang "On This Day O Beautiful Mother" and during the mass the Sacred Heart Academy choir sang several hymns, accompanied by Susan Vandenberg, who also played the wedding marches.

Best man was Manuel Viera of Sacramento and the ushers were Sam Ramsey and Richard Pieser, both of Klamath Falls.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Peterson wore a tangerine dress with violet and brown accessories and her corsage was of violets. Mrs. Cornett chose an aqua gown with black accessories and her corsage was white roses and violets.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the parish hall. Mrs. Alfred Erickson, sister of the bridegroom and Mrs. W. A. Bishop poured. Mrs. Stanley Pieser served the cake and Mrs. Arthur Wells presided at the punch bowl. Judy Pieser passed the guest book.

Out of town guests included: Mrs. Alma Cornett, Barbara Jean and Robert Cornett and Harry Smith all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Erickson and Sandra and Ralph of Rainier, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Tholmer and Mary Ann, Prineville; Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Meisner of Brookings; Mr. and Mrs.

Railroad Theme At Chiloquin Bridal Shower

CHILOQUIN — The railroad was the theme for a clever bridal shower given on Wednesday evening, November 28, for Norma Lee Gienger, whose marriage to James Rogers of Cottonwood, Calif.
