

ACE GETS NEW HELMET—Major Richard D. Creighton of Baton Rouge, La., is shown at an air base in Japan where he was presented a new helmet after becoming America's fourth jet ace in Korea. The white helmet has five red, white and blue stars painted on it, signifying the number of planes Creighton has shot down. He has flown 85 missions over North Korea.

K.H.S. Highlights

Lauramae Witte, president of the Future Homemakers of America club, has announced that 24 new members will be initiated in to the group at an induction to be held this evening in the high school auditorium. During the ceremony, each new girl will be presented a corsage of roses, which is the club's flower.

After the formal initiation, the girls will be feted in the cafeteria with salad, cookies and hot chocolate. FHA members are planning to make and stuff little toy animals for needy children this Christmas. They are also planning a caroling party for the near future.

As every club must have an income as well as expenditures, this group of home economic girls are planning cooked food sales and home-made candy sales, which sounds like an activity right "down their alley."

Other officers of the club are vice-president, Jerry Hardman, secretary, Jaunita Owens and treasurer, Erlene Cheney.

When you can hear the strains of "Jingle Bells" being sung and whistled by the students in the halls, you can just guess that Christmas is just around the corner and that thoughts are turning to the annual homeroom parties which are held the last day of school before vacation.

This year, student congress has promised a prize to the homeroom which does the best job of decorating their room. Decorations can consist of Christmas trees with all the trimmings, streamers, miniature scenes and any type of Xmas decorations.

Festivities of that last day of school will be highlighted with a matinee dance sponsored annually by the social committee, which is headed up by Robert Kindsvater.

Early Christmas For Cancer Victim
SPRINGFIELD, Mass., (AP)—Eight-year-old Kathleen Gains, who celebrated her Christmas on November 16, died late last night in Mercy hospital.

A cancer of the brain had afflicted Kathleen for nine months gradually taking her sight and hearing.

She had a Christmas party with a tree and gifts on November 16, and had received messages of cheer from all parts of the country and from Korea. Among them were telegrams from Dr. Ralph Bunche of the United Nations and Columnist Walter Winchell.

CHEESE POPCORN

Inopinee

Inopinee is just a fancy French word referring to the arrival of unexpected guests. Here's an easy solution to this problem:

Pour 1/2-cup of melted butter over a quart of hot popped corn. Sprinkle with grated mild American cheese and salt to taste. Toss until cheese is melted and butter distributed over all kernels. Serve hot... with cold, sparkling OLYMPIA BEER.
