Gracie Phillips, who recently broke her ankle, is back in school. Rev. and Mrs. Wayne Miller were the recent recipients of a surprise grocery shower. Members of the congregation brought their gifts before the pastor and his wife arrived for the prayer meeting. After services, the curtains were pulled back from the ante room and a substantial supply of groceries was revealed.
Another grocery shower was given by Mrs. Jewel Cater, as hostess, for Mrs. Lena Dennis. Many neighbors and friends were present to enjoy the hospitality and to show their friendliness and neighborliness to Mrs. Dennis.
Mrs. Othel Graham has received word from her brother Bill Lee that his wife had fallen off the porch and broken an arm. The Lees are living at Hayfork.
A pink and blue shower was given recently for Mrs. Clifton Dick by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Martha Byes.
Mrs. Hazel McDonald was hostess at a pink and blue shower given on November 16 for her niece, Mrs. Fern DuMilleu.
Mrs. D. Derner arrived by plane last week from Germany, being met at San Francisco by her husband. The Derner's were married in Germany last winter and it has taken nearly a year to make the necessary arrangements to bring her over here. Mrs. Derner says the Joe was so bad in San Francisco that it took them four hours to land the plane.
Mr. and Mrs. Foyler White and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Olen Hill and children left recently for their old home in Oklahoma.
Mrs. Ida Swift was hostess on November 20 when she entertained friends at a surprise birthday party of Mrs. Donna Soote. Those present were Sylvia Weaver, Topsy Tiedall, Alma McGonagle, Phoebe Johnson and the guest of honor, Mrs. Soote.
