

Virginia Bagley December Bride

Yellow and white chrysanthemums and lighted white tapers in candelabra were the background for the exchange of marriage vows between Virginia Mary Bagley and Robert Lloyd Ball, Sunday, December 2 in the Congregational church. The double ring ceremony was read at two thirty o'clock by Rev. Donald Cassida. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ona Bagley, 2440 Vine, the groom is the son of Mrs. Myrtle Ball, Canby, Oregon.

Proceeding the ceremony, Mrs. Marilyn King with J. H. Eckert at the organ sang, Cadman's "Because" and "I Love You Truly." Mr. Eckert also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore white satin, Colonial style with yoke and Peter Pan collar of Chantilly lace. Sleeves were long and pointed at the wrist. Her finger-tip nylon net veil was caught by a tangle of seed pearls. She carried a nosegay of miniature white chrysanthemums, freesia and pink rose buds with narrow white satin streamers.

For something old she wore a wristwatch, gift of her parents on graduation from high school. Something new was a gift from the groom, pearl earrings. Her wedding veil worn by Mrs. Dean Seane was something borrowed, she wore a blue garter and a coin in her slipper.

Marian Jewell, maid of honor wore a frock of blue green taffeta and nylon net. Her flowers were white mums and yellow rose buds fashioned in a nose gay and she wore a bandeau of the same flowers in her hair.

David King was best man. Ushers were Robert Schroeder and Paul Flury.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Bagley chose a gray ensemble with black accessories and a gardenia and red rose buds at the shoulder. Mrs. Ball wore navy with the same flowers at her shoulder.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony.

Bulge Boert cut and served the pretty four tiered wedding cake after the new Mr. and Mrs. Ball shared the first slice. Assisting were Mrs. Charles Jacker and Mrs. L. F. Castel. Pouring of the coffee mums were Mrs. A. E. Garman and Mrs. Irven Wettlaufer.

For traveling, Mrs. Ball chose a black and red, finely checked dressmaker suit, black accessories with a cluster of white carnations and yellow rosebuds at the shoulder.

Following their return from a honeymoon in San Francisco and other bay points they will be at home at Apt. 3, 319 East Main. The groom is a veteran of both world war two and the Korean war. The bride after graduation from Klamath Union high school attended Southern Oregon college, Ashland.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Garman, Paradise, California, Mrs. Irvin Wettlaufer, Milwaukee, Oregon, Mrs. Gene Morris, Ashland.

McKUNE-McCLELLAN NUPTIALS AT PEACE MEMORIAL CHURCH

In a setting of white chrysanthemums and lighted candles in tall candelabras at Peace Memorial church November 3 at 4 p.m. Betty Jean McKune, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. McKune, 4077 Frieda avenue, became the bride of John O. McClellan, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McClellan, 1290 Patterson. The double ring service was read by Rev. Dwayne Proett.

Carl Hagel sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. Sam Mushen at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory satin styled with a sweetheart neckline, long fitted sleeves pointed at the wrist, a light fitted bodice and small train. A halo of small crystal beads and seed pearls held her fingertip veil of illusion net in place.

She carried an arrangement of stephanotis, streamers of white ribbon and an orchid on a white ribbon. Mrs. Robert Davies, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor, and she wore an ankle length frock of orchid taffeta, with matching fingerless gloves and a headband of net and white baby chrysanthemums. Dorothy McKune, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore a gown identical to that of the matron of honor, except that it was lime green. Both attendants carried a nosegay of large and small chrysanthemums.

Candlelighters were Neil Olson and Ralph Crawford. Harold Peyton was best man. Ushers were Dale Olson and Robert Davies.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. McKune chose a blue crepe dress with complementing accessories and she wore a white o-oid corsage. Mrs. McClellan wore a purple crepe dress with matching accessories and a purple orchid.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Beale Reeder, grandmother of the bride, cut the three tiered wedding cake. Those assisting at the wedding were Fay Deigh, Mrs. Ken Engle, Mrs. Harry Morgan, Mrs. Jack Moore and Mrs. Frie. Christinia Lewis passed the guest book.

The new Mrs. McClellan wore a gray suit with red accessories for her going away costume. After a short wedding trip the
