All Grains Steady On Market

CHICAGO. (AP)—Cash corn got up above $2.00 on the Board of Trade today while all corn futures sold at new seasonal highs. All other grains also firmed.

While some white and mixed corn has sold above $2.00 this year, the price today was paid for the yellow variety—marking the first time since 1948 that yellow corn has brought that much. Corn futures also were at their best price since mid-1948.

Grains in wheat sent all those deliveries to new seasonal peaks. With both the December and March selling above $2.00, they were at the best price for any wheat future since February, 1948.

All rye and all deferred soybeans contracts made new seasonal highs.

Strength in the cash market and a strong shipping demand, coupled with rather light receipts, sent corn higher. Wheat was bought on expectations of large export sales this week. A lower cotton crop forecast and firmness in soybean oil brought buying into soybeans.

Wheat fell back rapidly just before the close, setting new lows in several contracts and ending the day 1/8 lower to 1/4 higher, December $2.68 1/2.

Corn closed 1 to 2 1/2 higher, December $1.96-1.95 1/2, oats 1/2 higher, December $1.00-1.00 1/2, rye (down with wheat in the closing minutes) 1/4-1/2 lower, December $2.16, soybeans 1/4-1/2 higher, January $3.09-3.09 1/2, and lard 27 cents lower to 3 cents a hundred pounds higher, December $16.20.

Selected Issues

Show Some Gains

NEW YORK. (AP)—A few selected issues made fair gains in late trading today but generally the stock market was fairly even mixture of advances and declines.

American Telephone, United Airlines and International Telephone became active near the close in a session that was on the slow side most of the time.

Most of the changes in either direction were small fractions and the volume was running around 1,200,000 shares.

Canadian Pacific was a popular issue during most of the session, although it received lesser attention in late trading than during the early hours.

After opening on a block of 3000 shares at 1/4 higher, Canadian Pacific continued to gain a steady 30,000 shares of the stock had changed hands before noon.

Back of the popularity, traders said, was announcement of a five-to-one stock split by Consolidated Mining and Smelting of Canada, in which Canadian Pacific is a large holder.

Police Check Cab Theft

Complaint of larceny by bailer has been filed in the district attorney's office against a man accused of stealing a Hurrey Cab Co. taxi cab.

Police reported the cab was reported missing this morning and two employees of the company had left town with all their belongings.

The cab taken was a 1950 Pontiac sedan, license number B-1976.

The accused driver was reported as heavy set, weighing about 200 pounds, 26 years old, about 5 feet eight inches tall and having a ruddy-complected face.

Council Faces Two Problems

The Klamath Falls city council may have two items of major interest on its slate for tonight's meeting.

One regards Klamath Annex, the S. 6th flophouse which the county health department is expected to ask be closed, and the second regards licensing of tavern amusement devices.

City Attorney Henry Perkins was to have re-drawn the city ordinance licensing amusement devices to make it explain more clearly what devices are included.

The county health department has reported it will ask the council to close up the flophouse as a health and sanitation menace.

Also on the council's agenda are dozens of license renewal applications for various types of business licenses.

School Boards Slate Meet

Matter of athletic insurance is to be discussed at a regular joint meeting of the elementary and high school boards tonight, 7:30, at Klamath Union high school.

Mrs. Lucille O'Neill, who is a member of both the city and state boards, is to discuss elementary and secondary standards of teacher certification. She recently attended a state board meeting in which the subject was clarified.

Also on tonight's agenda is a discussion of problems some teachers have in meeting academic requirements.

NO TIME FOR HASTE

A problem complicating the practice of pharmacy is presented by the patient who, arbitrarily, demands haste in the preparation of a prescription.

As such as twenty-four hours, or more, occasionally may be necessary to fill a prescription properly. It is possible that a complicated process is involved, or that a rare, hard-to-get drug is called for. Minutes may turn into hours as your pharmacist meticulously transforms the written word of your physician's prescription into a healing remedial agent.

Don't hurry your pharmacist. Give him precious time necessary to compound into exacting balance the drugs your doctor's prescription demands. Your pharmacist wants to serve you, but he must have time to place in your hands a preparation carefully compounded especially for you. Your pharmacist is aware of his serious responsibility. He is vitally interested in guarding your health.—Reprinted from a copyrighted advertisement published by Parke, Davis & Company, Detroit 32, Michigan.

Contract In Driver Case

The contract Erwin (Joe) Searles had with Cascade Laundry, in which he agreed not to go to work for a competing firm if his employment was terminated with Cascade, was superseded by another one, according to the latest legal filing in the circuit court equity proceeding.

The latter contract was one between E. D. Isensee, Cascade owner, with Teamsters union local 911, signed in July 1948, subsequent to the one Searles signed with the company.

Searles' employment by Cascade as a driver-solicitor was ended several weeks ago and he went to work for Superior-Troy Laundry having the same route he covered for Cascade.

Isensee has asked the court that Searles be required to comply with their agreement that he wouldn't go to work for a competing firm for six months after leaving Cascade.

R. B. Maxwell, representing Searles, has filed an answer to the Isensee complaint claiming that the pact between Searles and Isensee was superseded by one between Isensee and the teamsters union, which controls the pay, hours and working conditions of the laundry drivers.

Dismissal of Isensee's suit and recovery of Searles' law costs are asked.

Yule Lighting Contest Slated

Rules and regulations of this year's Christmas lighting contest will be announced later this week. Chairman Bob Kent announced today.

The junior chamber of commerce is sponsoring the competition this season. The contest has been tentatively slated for December 21-22, with the announcement of winners due on the 24th.

Deadline for the contest registration is December 21.

Two Thefts Reported

Two robberies over the weekend netted thieves about $240 in cash.

Ray Womser, present owner and operator of Roy Call's Auto Co. 1948 S. 6th, reported $40 taken from a safe in the company's office.

State police and sheriff's deputies are investigating theft of approximately $100 from a filing cabinet in the office of Shasta school on Shasta Way.

Entry to the auto company office was made by breaking a window Saturday night in the rear of the building on Owens street.

City police reported the burglary was apparently a one-man job.

At first the burglar evidently tried to punch off the safe lock and punch tumblers on the dial. When that didn't work, the robber then rolled the safe back into the company shop and used tools from the shop to saw through hinges of the safe and remove the door.

At Shasta school, officers report, the robbery apparently took place Friday night.

Front door of the school was left open and entry made to the school office with a pass key. The filing cabinet was not broken open, but opened with a key, officers said.

The money taken was in a money bag, but approximately $40 in cash and $25 in checks in a cash box was not distributed.
