Bloodmobile Due In KF Tuesday

The Red Cross bloodmobile makes its seventh official visit to Klamath county tomorrow when it sets up its shop at the Klamath Falls armory.

Last month 259 pints of blood were collected here, and this month Red Cross officials hope to exceed even that. More than 300 donors are needed, according to Exec. Secy. Virginia Dixon.

The blood unit will be open tomorrow from 1 to 6 p.m., and donors may make appointments by calling the Red Cross office at 7184, 3213 or 4293.

Santa Claus, too, will make donation of a present to America's servicemen tomorrow—a pint of blood.

Blood Program Chairman Mrs. Hugh Swaney reported this morning that his name had been placed on the appointment list for tomorrow's donor period.

HEARST AUCTION—NEW YORK, N.Y.—Auction of an antique and art collection of the late William Randolph Hearst Friday brought a first-day total of $75,655 in the two-day sale.

The defense department announced Saturday it has placed a "multimillion dollar" contract for M-1 with the International Harvester Co. It gave few details, beyond saying deliveries are scheduled to begin early next year.

Elderly Man Dies Of Heart Attack

Na Clinton Nealeigh, 78, was found dead late yesterday afternoon in the yard of his residence, 1756 Fargo. He apparently died of a heart attack.

A neighbor reported last seeing Nealeigh about 4 p.m., and said he was on his way out to feed his rabbits and livestock at the time.

Nealeigh is thought to have one daughter, but no survivors had been located late this morning. The body was taken to Ward's funeral home, where arrangements will be announced later.

Free Book on Arthritis And Rheumatism—HOW TO AVOID CRIPPLING DEFORMITIES

An amazing newly enlarged 44-page book entitled "Rheumatism" will be sent free to anyone who will write for it.

It reveals why drugs and medicines give only temporary relief and fail to remove the causes of the trouble; explains a specialized non-surgical, non-medical treatment which has proven successful for the past 33 years.

You incur no obligation in sending for this instructive book. It may be the means of saving you years of untold misery. Write today to The Ball Clinic, Dept. 2608, Excelsior Springs, Missouri. Adv.
