Gas Station Theft Checked

Burglary of the Signal Oil Co. service station last night at 9th and Pine resulted in theft of $38 and a card index box full of charge account slips.

Also taken was an electric razor belonging to Floyd Stone, station manager.

Police reported entry was made by breaking a window in a side door of the station office.

The money taken was in the index box and also the station cash register. Stone said the thief missed a larger amount of cash in a money bag sitting on a shelf.
