REWARD UNCLAIMED
The Herald and News of Friday, Dec. 7, carried an ad. from the Church of Christ which "DEMANDED" the reward that Mr. Alderson offered in the same paper on Nov. 26—OR—"the signature of Pastor P. C. Alderson" on two propositions for debate.

The Church of Christ and Pastor Alderson have not agreed on a debate. However the reward was offered, and even though the time given for bringing the texts has expired, Mr. Alderson will extend the time to the Church of Christ or any other church or person. He will be glad to pay the reward when said texts are produced.
So for the Church of Christ has not submitted even one text.
Signed
P. C. Alderson

Newest Lutheran Church Showing Steady Growth

The new Lutheran church now being formed here is showing a steady growth, according to the Rev. M. Roderick Anderson. And it's a particularly healthy growth, the minister says, because most of the new church families are groups that were not previously active in either of the other two Lutheran churches in the city.
