MRS. WILLIAM ALFRED KITTREDGE, the former Janet Leslee O'Connor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Edward O'Connor, Corvallis, whose marriage in the Church of the Good Samaritan in Corvallis on December 8 at 4:30 p.m. was an event of statewide interest. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kittredge, 1225 Pacific Terrace.

"MR. AND MRS." happy newlyweds, Janet and Bill Kittredge, who will be at home to their friends at 411 N. 26th street, Corvallis, where Bill is a junior in agricultural engineering at OSC.

"BROTHERS and SISTERS" were also part of the immediate bridal party: From the left, Patrick Kittredge, best man and brother of the bridegroom, William Alfred and his bride. Next to her is her sister, Mary Ann O'Connor, bridesmaid to her sister, and Roberta Kittredge, the bridegroom's sister, who was also a bridesmaid.

JEANNE MERRILL, DAUGHTER OF Mr. and Mrs. C. Guy Merrill, well known members of a pioneer family in Klamath county, became the bride of Captain Thomas T. Auberry on December 9, in the Elmendorf air base chapel, Anchorage, Alaska. Major Conner B. Cole officiated. One of those things that cannot happen . . . happened; when the photographer, who was to take the wedding pictures didn't appear. One of the bridegroom's officer friends hurried to his quarters and returned with a camera. Mrs. Merrill brought the exposed film with her when she returned from her daughter's wedding. Our staff photographer developed it and the one picture of the newly married couple is the result.
