ARLA MAE COLLINS IS EARLY DECEMBER BRIDE

Klamath Lutheran church was the setting for an early December wedding on the fourth of the month at 7:30 p.m. when Arla Mae Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. Johnson, 4831 Summers lane, was married to Ira C. (Buz) Heath, Jr., son of Mrs. Viola Heath, 913 California, and Mr. Ira C. Heath, Sr., of Sacramento, California. The double ring candlelight service was read by Rev. Irvin Tweet in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple.

Escorted to the altar by her step-father, the bride wore a shell pink brocaded, satin ballerina length gown. The dress was cut low in the back with a sweetheart neckline above a tight bodice and gathered skirt. The waistline was emphasized with seed pearls and small rhinestones. Her hat was a matching flowing veil. Her pink satin slippers completed the delicate shading of her bridal attire.

Her jewelry was a three strand pearl necklace and an opal ring, a family heirloom, belonging to her mother, was the something old. The traditional blue garter was worn and she had a penny in her shoe. The bride carried a white Bible, a confirmation gift, under an orchid and baby breath with satin streamers.

The church was decorated with gold and mauve chrysanthemums, marked the pews.

Mrs. Dean (Mercedes) DeWitt, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a navy lace ballerina length dress, had a framing shoulder collar, light bodice and circle skirt. Four square cut rhinestones accented the front of the bodice. Her cap, of navy velvet, came to a point in the center of her forehead and had a teardrop rhinestone attached. Her shoes were matching navy blue linen opera pumps. She carried a bouquet of shell pink carnations set in a lace base with short, satin streamers.

Chet Morris, bride's brother-in-law sang for her wedding. He sang "O Perfect Love" before the ceremony, and "The Lord's Prayer" following the service.

Mrs. Johnson, the bride's mother, wore a lovely deep purple after-noon dress with matching hat. Her accessories were black, and she wore a corsage of white rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Heath, chose a royal blue after-noon dress and black accessories.

QUOTA CLUB

Quota club's annual Christmas party for members, husbands, and guests was held Monday night at the Pelican.

Dinner tables were attractively decorated with Christmas ornaments and candles. Elizabeth Derby was in charge of decorations. Dorothy Pinniger and Hazel Morrison were on the entertainment committee, and Juanita Nellis led the group in singing.

Christmas gifts were exchanged at the close of the evening. Approximately 18 members and 18 guests enjoyed the party.

A New Organ You Can Play

Whether or not you ever played any musical instrument, you can, after a few minutes instruction, play the new Hammond chord organ.

Sounds unreasonable, but a large and rapidly growing list of local chord organ owners proves it is true. A new kind of music which anyone can read at a glance comes with the chord organ. You play lead and full harmony bass and also pedal bass, beautifully, right from the beginning.

We have a chord organ privately placed in the store where, after a few minutes explanation, you can sit down and play as you always wished you could.

We invite you to come and enjoy a thrilling new experience. Louis R. Mann piano company, 120 N. 7th.

It's as great a mistake to judge a diamond by its size as it would be to say that all fat people are brilliant executives.

Diamonds, like people, have definite personalities, some flashy but off color—others more modest but flawless.

At the left you see five lovely diamond rings all with 1/2K diamonds and to the untrained eye identical—yet the individual characteristics of these stones make a difference of $380.00 in their true value.

We would like to show you our diamond comparison chart. There's no obligation and you will realize why it's most important to carefully select your jeweler before you select your diamond.
