JANSSEN-WALKER WEDDING IN ST. AUGUSTINE'S CHURCH

Sadie Janssen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Janssen, Olene, became the bride of Ernest Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Walker, Bonanza, November 22. The service was read at ten o'clock in the morning by Rev. Father Phelan in St. Augustine's church at Merrill.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white satin, trimmed in nylon net and Chantilly lace. She carried a white prayer book on which was a single red rose.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Glenn McGregor, sister of the bridegroom. She was most attractive in a gown of pink lace and net over tulle, and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations with matching headband.

Best man was Joe Nork of Bonanza.

For something old the bride wore a necklace which had belonged to her grandmother, Mrs. Sady Janssen. She also wore the traditional "something blue."

A reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

After the cutting of the cake, which was baked and decorated by Mrs. Vera Murdock and Mrs. Christine Murray, the following guests were served: Mrs. Sady Janssen, Mr. C. L. Janssen, Sonny and Harry Janssen, Mr. and Mrs. Vic Murdock and children, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hardin and Mrs. M. Murray, and children, Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Hankins and children, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McGregor and children, Nork, Dan Duarte, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Walker and Jimmy and r. and Mrs. Charles Walker and Bob.

After a trip to the coast the couple are at home in Bonanza.

CALCOTE-GILLETTE VOWS SAID AT FIRST BAPTIST

Katherine Calcote, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buster Calcote, Eldorado, Texas, whose marriage to Jack L. Gillette, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Gillette, Shady Pine, was solemnized in the First Baptist church November 25, is one of Klamath Falls' young and attractive new matrons. Rev. E. M. Causey read the service at 2:30 p.m. before an altar banked with an arrangement of orchid and white chrysanthemums, ferns and lighted tapers in tall candelabra. Delbert Lyman, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Robert Lyman were ushers and also were the candlelighters preceding the ceremony. Mr. J. D. Stanley, uncle of the bride, gave her in marriage.

Katherine was regal in a heavy white satin gown, princess style, off the shoulder lines with fine nylon net yoke trimmed with a wide lace flounce, long pointed sleeves and a court train. Her veil was of illusion net, finger tip length, with a halo of seed pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a white bible on which was placed a white orchid surrounded with red rosebuds tied with long satin streamers. Her only jewelry was a string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Glenna Rowland was matron of honor. She wore a pink tulle floor length gown with a jacket back, her long gloves matched the frock, and her flower arrangement was of the same bronze pom-pom chrysanthemums as were in her basket bouquet.

Bridesmaids were Corrine Lyman and Ruth Barnes, sister of the groom. They were dressed the same as the matron of honor, except that their dresses were pale green and the flower and hair arrangements were orchid.

Ronnie Herschberger played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Greydon Broyles who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Best man was Howard McGee. Ushers were Delbert Lyman and Robert Lyman.

Mrs. J. D. Stanley, aunt of the bride, wore a frock of black nylon crepe with a net overskirt trimmed in black velvet applique. She wore black accessories with a corsage of red rosebuds.

Mrs. Gillette, mother of the bridegroom, chose a winter tan wool suit for her son's wedding. Her accessories were in beige and black and her corsage was of bronze rosebuds.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors.

Mrs. Mary Garvin, Mrs. Midge Lyon and Mrs. Jack Weber poured. Mrs. J. D. Stanley cut the cake and Mrs. Dexter Elliott passed the guest book.

For her going away costume the new Mrs. Gillette chose a navy blue gray wool suit with winter white and black accessories. Her corsage was the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Immediately following the reception, the new Mrs. Gillette and her family, where they visited at the bride's home, returning by way of old Mexico. They are now at home, 135 N. 1st street.

Out of town guests were: Maxine Gillette, Al Gaudi and Michele Ayres all of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morrow of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Howard McGee, Mr. and Mrs. Donald McGee, Fort Rock and Mrs. Jamie Farnsworth of Deep Creek ranch.

LIBRARY CLUB AT MERRILL

MERRILL—The social parlor at the Merrill Presbyterian church was attractively decorated in keeping with the approaching holiday season when the Merrill Library club held its annual Christmas party December 6.

The luncheon tables were centered with miniature Christmas trees and colorful ornaments. Tall lighted red tapers in crystal holders were placed on either side.

Following the potluck luncheon, gifts were exchanged. The outgoing president Mrs. Ray Merrill was given a lovely compact by club members, and Mrs. Leonard McNeil, the treasurer for the past eight years, received a beautiful vase.

Mrs. Jack Wynant and Mrs. Dwan Blackman delighted the group with a medley of songs, accompanied by Arlene Lemler at the piano. A reading "Papa's Letter" was given by Lucile Gray.

After the program, the business meeting was held. Mrs. Harvey Denham, book committee chairman reported that seven new books had been purchased, and also that 52 books were brought down by the county librarian Evelyn Cooper. Books on the Jean Elliot Memorial shelf will be repaired. Mrs. Murray Howard, card and visiting committee chairman, also reported.

New officers were elected as follows: Mrs. William Walker, president; Mrs. T. W. Chaburn Sr., vice president; Mrs. Claude Shuck, second vice president; Mrs. Harriet Fotheringham, secretary; Mrs. Jack Wynant, treasurer; and Mrs. M. A. Bowman, parliamentarian.

Concluding the afternoon's program, Mrs. Lucile Gray led the group in singing Christmas carols. Hostesses for the party were Mrs. Ray Merrill, Mrs. E. Webb-Bowen, Mrs. Leonard McNeil, Mrs. John Kirby, Mrs. Warren Walker, and Mrs. John Beer. Assisting about the room were Mrs. T. W. Chaburn Sr., Mrs. Cliff Shuck, and Mrs. Jack Wynant.

Housewarming At Haley Home

BONANZA—Mrs. Cecil Haley was surprised by a group of friends December 7 with a housewarming shower in her beautiful new home. Hostesses for the party were Faye Weimer, Esther Brown and Margaret Burnett.

A social afternoon was spent and guests particularly expressed their interest in the impressive view from each window. The tastefully arranged home is situated on a hill and has a commanding view from every direction.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Cecil Haley, Mrs. Oliver Haley, Mrs. Merrill Stewart, Mrs. Owen Pepple, Mrs. Florence Horn, Mrs. Ivan Bold, Mrs. Roy Fernlund, Mrs. Clayton Sharpe, Mrs. Ernest Givan, Mrs. Bechoud, and Mrs. Jerry McCarty, all of Bonanza. Mrs. U. S. Reeder, Mrs. Tena McKinnon, Mrs. Glen Dehlinger, Mrs. Babe Reeder, Mrs. Bobbie Stapleton and Mrs. Harold Dehlinger, all of Henley, Mrs. Gordon Ashbee, Mrs. Lester Jones, Mrs. Harry Frazier and Mrs. Lester Leavitt, all of Langell Valley.

NOW OR NEVER CLUB DINNER

MERRILL—Members of the Now or Never club gathered at the Merrill recreation hall Sunday afternoon, December 9, for a turkey dinner and gift exchange. Following dinner cards and a variety of games were enjoyed.

Klamath Falls members present included Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Blake, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Blake and Kay, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Turner and Garda, and Charley Hallett.

From Merrill were Mr. and Mrs. Max Harterode, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Falvey, Mr. and Mrs. Paschall Hodges, Garry and Janis, Mr. and Mrs. William Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Don Harris, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Harris, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lewis.

LIBRARY CLUB

Multicolored jumbo candles of varying heights grouped on a bed of holly on the tea table, and holly and candle decorations around the room set the scene for the Library Club Christmas meeting on December 10.

Mrs. Don Zumwalt as music chairman introduced the musical part of the program, which consisted of the high school orchestra, the boys' sextette, the girls' sextette and the a cappella choir, under the direction of Andrew Loney. Their traditional and beautiful selections of Christmas and classical music were warmly received.

Following the theme of "Merrie England," Miss Elise Perry of the high school faculty gave a first-hand report on how the holidays are celebrated in the British Isles. Miss Perry recently spent a year as a United States exchange teacher in Wales.

Family heirlooms and personal souvenirs of England were displayed by Mrs. Leslie Rogers, who pointed out as of special interest the antique vacuum type teapot which would pour without tipping, the Blue Willow soup tureen brought to this country by her great grandparents, the unique juicer for use on grapes and berries, and an antique silver teapot and tray. Also in her collection were many other items of china and silver, beaded purses, linens and a collection of lovely dolls.

Hot spiced plum pudding with rum and sauce was served to the guests from the Christmas tea table. Mrs. Frank Weaver was responsible for the refreshments, and Mrs. R. P. Ellington and Mrs. W. A. Shannon poured the tea.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Leslie Rogers and Mrs. Fred Hoagland.

The tea was given by the officers, who are: Mrs. Loren Palmerston, Mrs. Fred Hoagland, Mrs. Leroy Carter, Mrs. Calvin Lamb and Mrs. Jack Shulze.

January 14 will be the next meeting of the Library club, and the program continuing the "Magic Carpet" theme will be on Scandinavia.
