Chicago Has Bad Fire Day

CHICAGO, (AP)—Some 150 fires on Chicago's coldest December 16 on record drove more than 550 persons from their homes, took two lives, and caused an estimated $800,000 property damage.

Two extra alarm fires emptied Negro occupants of an apartment building and a hotel on Chicago's south side into 12 degrees below zero weather. The buildings were destroyed at a loss estimated by firemen at $150,000. Of the 250 occupants, about 100 were children. One baby was treated for exposure.

The fires were only three blocks apart.

An explosion and fire in a trailer home near suburban Morton Grove killed Douglas Roberts, 30, aviation machinist first class stationed at Glenview naval air station, and his wife, Dorothy, 29. Firemen blamed a butane gas stove.

Firemen reported some 150 fires in the Chicago area and said three-quarters of the city's fire apparatus was in action at one time during the day. They estimated damage caused by overheated stoves and furnaces and faulty chimneys at $500,000.

A third extra alarm fire caused an estimated $150,000 damage to a southside warehouse.

Churchill Talks To French Boss

PARIS, (AP)—Britain's Prime Minister Winston Churchill and Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden arrived here today for talks with French government leaders.

They will lunch tomorrow with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and return to London Tuesday night.

The talks with French leaders were described in London as a prelude to Churchill's visit with President Truman in Washington early in January. He sails for New York Dec. 9.

Churchill and Edin in their discussions with Premier Rene Pleven and Foreign Minister Robert Schuman were expected to touch on Britain's possible contribution to a European army, need for continued mutual support in the Middle East, and financial problems involved in Western defense.

SNOWBOUND

PLATTSBURGH, N.Y., (AP)—Even Santa Claus was snowbound today by the storm that shackled the northeast. He had to postpone until December 21 a transport plane flight to upstate orphanages. The flight was the second in a series of toy-delivering trips to orphans.

IMPOSSIBLE

SALEM, (AP)—A general pay increase for state employes is impossible without a special legislative session to vote funds, state finance director Harry S. Dorman told the state emergency board yesterday.

BANKED SNOW doesn't last long at the city airport when this rotary rig starts smashing its way down the runways.

Lang May Testify Soon In Shooting; Doctors Say Wounds Not Critical

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., (AP)—Three physicians will examine actor's agent Jennings Lang, probaly today, to learn how soon he can discuss the Walter Wanger triangle shooting.

District Attorney S. Ernest Roll said he will name one of the doctors. The others will be Lang's physicians, Dr. Robert Riemer and Dr. Joseph Pollock.

This was decided yesterday after a lengthy conference among Roll; Grant Cooper, Attorney for Joan Bennett; and J. W. Ehrlich, attorney for Lang.

At the same time, Ehrlich assured Roll that "Lang has expressed to me his desire to cooperate fully with the authorities."

Wanger, husband of Miss Bennett is free under $5000 bond after admitting to Police Chief Clinton Anderson that he shot Lang last Thursday "because he tried to break up my home."

Lang was painfully but not critically wounded in the groin by bullets fired from a pistol at close range.

Meantime, Roll and Chief Anderson studied private detectives' reports which Anderson said were found in Wanger's car. Presumably the 57-year-old movie producer hired the detectives to report on activities of his 41-year-old actress wife and Lang, 39, her agent for 12 years and west coast executive of the Music Corporation of America.

Lang and Miss Bennett have denied any romance.

Neither Roll nor Anderson would even hint at what was in the private eye reports. Roll said they might be used as testimony in a trial.

The officials said a formal charge will be filed, perhaps tomorrow, against Wanger. He was booked on suspicion of felonious assault.

Wanger has moved from the family home in Holmby Hills to an undisclosed residence here.

Miss Bennett left the sanctuary of her mansion to attend church services.

Dr. Pollock, describing Lane's condition, said "several muscles in the right leg were torn by the bullet. This prevents him from moving the right leg.

"The bullet emerged through the right hip, tearing it badly. However, all signs are that Mr. Lang will heal satisfactorily with no permanent damage."

The doctor added it will take "many months" for the wound to heal however.

Band Swings In on Wheels

AP Newsfeatures

DENVER—Any good hot paraplegic sax players or drummers looking for a job?

Ken Raynie's got room for one of each in a little jazz combo he's getting together at Denver.

Raynie's got six members lined up so far.

First there's Shaloll Savage, a 14-year-old petite miss from Sioux Falls, S. D., who hasn't been able to walk since she was 6 because of polio. Sharoll sings with all her voice and all her heart—about the only two things she has to keep her busy during her treatment at a Denver sanatorium.

TWO VETERANS, TOO

Then there's Bob Storovich and Leon Kraft, a couple of right fast boys with guitars. Storovich, 29, came back to suburban Aurora from world war two with both legs paralyzed after he got in the way of some enemy flak and was shot down over Australia. Kraft, 25, a world war two navy veteran, became a paraplegic as a result of an auto accident near his home town of Russell, Kas., in 1945 and landed in Denver after long treatment at the Great Lakes Naval hospital.

A fourth member is Penny Greathouse, a pretty mean ukulele plucker. A former army nurse corp major and a veteran of Bataan and Corregidor, 35-year-old Penny survived many months in a Japanese prison camp, then lost the use of her legs in an auto accident after she got home to Denver.

Raynie has two ambulant members for the orchestra—Dick Soroka, a 20-year-old Chicago accordionist stationed at Lowry Air force base, and Barbara Neece of Denver, a 17-year-old pianist.

LEADER' HANDICAP

Raynie is a mortician by trade. During the war, he suffered a plane crash injury that paralyzed his right leg. He used to be in charge of recreation and entertainment for the Denver Tuberculosis society and his idea for a paraplegic band came about when he happened to see a fellow parked in a wheelchair happily strumming a guitar.

Also a musician of sorts, Raynie and his wife, Louise, a fill-in piano player, decided they ought to do something.

The result is "The Ramblin' Wrecks."

The band members picked that name themselves.

And says Raynie, "You ought to see their eyes light up when I tell them we've got an engagement at some hospital."

Singer Silent, Pipes Overworked

HOLLYWOOD, (AP) — Singer Frankie Laine isn't suppose to sing, or even talk, for two weeks.

His co-manager says the 38-year old- vocalist is under a doctor's orders to take a complete, silent rest at his Encino, Calif., home.

After two weeks, said the manager, Seymour Heller, the doctor can determine whether an operation will be necessary to remove two nodes, or growths on the vocal chords. Betty Hutton suffered a similar difficulty several months ago.

Heller said Laine has postponed all night club and personal appearance engagements until Feb. 13. He added that the doctors says treatment and rest, and a possible operation, will fix things without impairing Laine's voice.

"It's just a case of overworking the ol' pipes," Heller said.

Frankie feels like yelling, however. Thieves broke into his offices Saturday night and stole $4000 worth of recording equipment.

Captain Bligh was set adrift by the Pitcairn island mutineers in 1789.

Powers Rites Set Tuesday

DUNSMUIR—Masonic rites for A. T. Powers, 62, Southern Pacific engineer, and deputy pharoah, for California, Ancient Egyptian Order of Sciots, will be held Tuesday 2 p.m. in the Dunsmuir Masonic temple. Interment will follow in the Dunsmuir cemetery, Lloyd Noble's chapel in charge.

Powers, a resident of Dunsmuir since 1920, died in the Mount Shasta hospital Saturday morning. He had been hospitalized since November 26th following a heart attack.

A native of Sacramento he hired out on the Shasta division as a fireman September 15, 1920, coming from Chico. He was promoted to engineer September 9, 1941. The family home is at 1022 Florence.

Other lodge affiliations include Dunsmuir Lodge No. 297, A.F. & A.M. Dunsmuir Pyramis of Sciots, Fidelity chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, and the firemen and engineer brotherhoods.

He is survived by the widow, Lillian, sons William and John, Dunsmuir, and James, Sacramento; and daughters, Mrs. Samuel Mazzei, Dunsmuir, Mrs. Ellsworth Farris, Sacramento, and Mrs. Ray Wilson, Redding. There are ten grandchildren.

Chiloquin Plans Yule Tree Party

CHILOQUIN—A Christmas tree party for pre-school children, originally set for Friday, will be held Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. here for pre-school children.

Santa Claus will be on hand.

The program is being sponsored by the city of Chiloquin, the PTA and the Youth Center.

Mobs Break Up Plants In Japan

TOKYO, (AP)—Police in Osaka are looking for leaders of a mob which Sunday attacked four factories producing material for the Allied occupation forces.

Police said they suspected Korean Reds and the Japan Communist party had organized the attacks.

About 300 Koreans went in groups to the plants, reported owned by other Koreans. The mob broke windows and damaged machinery.

The newspaper Asahi said the mob shouted "don't make weapons which kill our compatriots."

Press Car Burns In Munsan Port

MUNSAN, Korea, (AP)—Here's a hot item from the Korean truce talks area. An oil stove set fire to the baggage car of the Munsan press train. The car was a total loss.

Equipment of many correspondents—most of whom were at Panmunjom for the armistice talks—was destroyed, along with some army supplies.
