Shirley Scorns Big Video Offer for Life on Farm

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
HOLLYWOOD, (AP)—Shirley Temple, who's living on a three-acre farm just outside of Washington, D. C., as the wife of Lieut. Commander Charles Black, has given up her career for good, according to pals. Even $2,000,000 for a big TV deal couldn't lure Shirley away from the farm.

Both Eddie Cantor and his wife, Ida, will have casting approval of her role when Hollywood films "The Eddie Cantor Story," Ida's already on record with, "I don't want any glamor puss to play me," and Eddie theory is: "If they don't believe the actress who plays Ida, we're in trouble."

Academy proxy Charles Brackett, who has casting approval on the possibility of televising the Oscar awards in March, "There's not a remote chance." But what a great public relations move it could be.

Greer Garsons poo-pooing Gilda Gray's story that she was an extra in one of Gilda's English movies. "I think," Greer let it fly, "that Gilda got her shimmies mixed."

One director's opinion on Deanna Durbin, who's rumored ready for a film comeback. Norman Taurog speaking: "She's a brilliant performer who was ruined by Hollywood. It was a case of the wrong choice of vehicles. Deanna's still great. She hasn't lost her ability."

Jane Greer's wordage on why she's made only three movies in two years: "The studio's mad at me. I get my pay check every week, but I'm in Hollywood to make good pictures, not just money."

"The public saw a lot of me when I was trying to learn something about acting. Now that I've Capper served two terms as Kansas governor before being elected to the senate in 1918.

Death Claims Arthur Capper

TOPEKA, Kas., (AP)—Arthur Capper, a Kansas Republican who served in the U.S. senate for three decades, died last night at the age of 88.

Capper retired from politics three years ago, giving up his senate seat January 3, 1949.

In recent months his health had been bad and he became critically ill with the pneumonia two weeks ago.

Capper, who started newspaper work as a printer's apprentice at $1 a week during his high school days, owned two daily newspapers and eight farm magazines with a combined circulation of 4,500,000 (M).

PAPERS
 The newspapers are the Topeka Daily Capital and the Kansas City, Kas., Kansan. He also owned two radio stations.

He was a leader in farm legislation during his years in congress. He was chairman of the senate agriculture committee when he retired. Legislation bearing his name included the Capper-Volstead act, the legal foundation for farm cooperatives, and the Capper-Tincher act providing for regulation of grain exchanges.

He frequently was referred to as the Republican voice of the Midwest farmer.

Children were his main hobby although he had none of his own. He lent hundreds of thousands of dollars to farm youths through the Capper "Pig and Calf clubs" which gave youngsters a chance to own their own livestock. He also established a crippled childrens fund.

PARTIES
 For more than 40 years he gave

Hildegrade Neff, Tyrone Power's Garboish leading lady in "Diplomatic Courier," denied that estranged hubby Kurt Hirsch served her with divorce papers or that she got a secret unhitching in Paris. It will be a Los Angeles or Reno divorce for Hildegrade, who says of a possible marriage to Director Anatole Litvak: "We are very good friends and I like him very much, but as long as I'm not free, I can't talk about marriage."

There's a film deal on the front burner for "The Long, Long Trailer," Buddy Twiss' hilarious account of a cross-country auto junket with a house trailer.

Line in the British film, "Lady Olivia Rides Again": "You needn't have talent to be a film star, but you've got to LOOK as if you have it."

SPY SENTENCED
NUERNBERG, Germany, (AP)—Herbert Schulz, a German construction engineer, was sentenced to four years in prison here for spying for the Soviet Union. Schulz admitted before U.S. high commission court Wednesday that he regularly supplied Soviet intelligence in East Berlin with information on U.S. army installations in West Germany.
