

GOP Friends Expect Ike To Stop Demos' Activity

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON, (AP)—Republican friends here expect Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower to repudiate efforts to put his name on the Democratic ticket in the March 11 New Hampshire presidential primary.
At the same time, they believe the general will not react either affirmatively or negatively to a petition Gov. Sherman Adams has said will be filed to list him on the Republican ballot in the same primary. A Democratic Eisenhower petition also is expected to be filed.
Under New Hampshire law, a prospective candidate is given 10 days after the filing of a petition in which he may ask that his name be withdrawn. If he does not make such a request, it is placed on the ballot. New Hampshire holds the first presidential primary next year. Republican Eisenhower-for-president leaders said they believe the general simply will notify New Hampshire officials that he is not a member of the Democratic party and does not want to run on its ticket.
That would have the effect of an indirect announcement that he is a Republican and is willing to become a presidential candidate. He still would not be publicly committed to make the race.
The Eisenhower rosters among the Republicans say they believe this would have the effect of placing him firmly in the GOP camp and killing off what to them are the politically-embarrassing reports that he might turn out, after all, to be a Democrat.
There is mounting evidence here that the general is being kept fully aware of developments under the leadership of Sens. Lodge (R-Mass.) and Duff (R-Pa.). He is reported to have given GOP efforts in his behalf tacit approval but to have reserved for some time to come the final decision on whether he will run.
Among others, Sen. Carlson (R-Kan.) was reported to have given Eisenhower a briefing about the New Hampshire primary situation in a recent visit to the general's North Atlantic treaty organization headquarters.
At Topeka, Carlson yesterday expressed belief that Eisenhower will be an "affirmative candidate" for the GOP nomination but may not take his position known until February.
"The general has to take off his uniform before he can express himself," Carlson told a news conference. That, Carlson indicated, may happen anytime after the NATO conference at Lisbon, February 2.
The general's plans should be pretty well known by the time of the New Hampshire primary, Carlson said.
The GOP Eisenhower rosters evidently have the double-barreled hope that they can win a victory in New Hampshire which will (1) start a handwagon movement and (2) convince the general that he is a popular choice among Republican voters.

KU Concert Set Tonight

The KUHS a cappella choir, the boys and girls glee clubs and the orchestra will present the 1951 edition of the annual Klamath Union high school Christmas concert tonight at 8 in the school auditorium.
Under the direction of Andrew Loney Jr., director of music, the concert will open with a procession of Adeste Fideles by the choir and glee clubs. Fourteen pieces will make up the concert, including antiphonals "While Shepherds Watched Their Sheep" and "Beautiful Savior."
The choir and orchestra will close the program with an arrangement of "Twas the Night Before Christmas," with incidental solos by Shirley Crawford, Gerry Hunt, Gerry Inl, and William Matthews.

Horses Refuse Snowy Party

DETROIT, (AP)—Either the modern horse has become soft—or 11 inches of snow is too much.
The Michigan Humane Society staged its annual Christmas party Wednesday for Detroit horsemen. Oats, hay, carrots, were free to all comers.
Some 500 society members were on hand to greet the guests. But less than 40 horses showed up. Clifford Johnson, society executive director, sadly decided, "The snow is too deep for the horses to be out working. Besides, they don't have on their winter shoes."
