

Draft Revision Drops IQ Standard

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The cases of some 300,000 men who previously failed to meet mental standards for military service will be re-examined by draft boards, starting next month.

Congress lowered minimum mental standards when it revised the draft act last summer.

Selective service director Lewis B. Hershey, announcing yesterday that the cases of about 300,000 men will be re-examined, made no estimate of how many may be found fit for service under the new standards.

Hershey said about 25,000 will be called up for re-examination each month, sandwiched between men sent to the armed forces examining centers with 1-A ratings.

C. E. KRUEGER

Krueger New Shop Manager

Clement E. Krueger, Eugene, this week took over as manager of Craig's women's wear store here.

Krueger is a native of the Klamath basin, and attended schools here. In the past few years he has been working in department stores, primarily in the women's department.

Mrs. Krueger is the former Isabel Titus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Titus, Keno. She and four children remain in Eugene until Krueger locates residence here. Krueger is a member of the Exchange club, and in Eugene was president. He is also an Elk and a member of the Knights of Columbus.

Mrs. Cecil Reimer, special merchandiser from New York, has been in charge of Craig's the past few months until Krueger was available.

WINNERS IN CHRISTMAS CONTEST "The First Sign I Saw That Reminded Me of Christmas This Year Was," laugh as Payless Drug Mgr. Noel Flynn daubs tears from the eyes of fellow sponsor Sam Neslin of the Oregon Woolen store. Thirteen-year-old Pat Purser, 5653 Delaware, and eight-year-old Kenneth Probst, 2427 Orchard, show prizes they've won by writing in letters on the Christmas subject to station KFLW. Joe Green of the B and B Radio and Electric shop, also a "loser" in the contest, wasn't around when the picture was taken. Included on the prize list were presents sent personally by Perry Como.

Bethlehem Hotels Booked in Advance As 1951 Years Ago

BETHLEHEM, (AP)—The barbed-wire of no-man's-land will be opened to let 2000 Christians living in Israel worship at Christmas day services in this Arab-occupied village where Christ was born.

The announcement came today from the foreign ministry of Moslem Jordan, whose troops occupy Bethlehem and the old city of Jerusalem as a result of the Palestine war of 1948 between Jews and Arabs. They are still technically at war under armistice.

The 2000 pilgrims will be in addition to diplomatic and consular corps personnel who can cross the line at any time. Foreigners in Israeli-controlled territory also are allowed in the Arab-occupied part of Jerusalem and Bethlehem with Jordan visas but are not allowed to return through Israel once they have

Woodworkers Split On Vote

PORTLAND, (AP)—The CIO woodworkers' executive board went home yesterday without naming a new president for the 110,000 member union.

For four days the board checked the vote in last September's election but board members failed to reach agreement on whether James E. Faddling, incumbent, or A. L. Hartung, won.

Both Faddling and Hartung are from Portland. Earlier the "woodworker" the union's newspaper, said that Hartung was elected. The board criticized the publication for carrying the story.

The board will meet again Jan. 4 in an effort to certify the election and install new officers. Reason for the board's failure to certify the election to date is not known. It is believed, however, that a number of votes have been questioned.

3000 Seek Job Digging Snow

DETROIT, (AP)—Nearly 3000 men seeking jobs as snow shovelers mobbed a city hiring hall last night.

Ninety policemen were called to restore order as the men pressed around the door of the hall, pushing and shoving to get in.

Police said most of the men were laid-off factory workers seeking money for Christmas. Officials said it was the largest group of job seekers since the depression.

After the men had been lined up, 1000 were hired at $141 an hour and sent out in gangs of 25 to clear the streets of snow and slush. The other 2000 were turned away. The crowd had formed early in the day at word that snow shovelers were wanted. Some waited all day.

Dance Honors "Old Jerry"

INOT, Me., (AP)—Jerry's dance is now a happy memory. Villagers, young and old, shook the granite hall whirling a final "haymakers jig" last night in memory of the music-loving cheesemaker who died 26 years ago.

The dances are no more because Jarius Hilborn would have been 100 years old yesterday.

Old Jerry left a will when he died at the age of 74 setting aside $30 to pay the fiddlers for an annual hoe-down until his 100th birthday anniversary.

Oldtimers say the first dance was held in a blizzard, and last night over 100 townspeople bucked a snowstorm to pay him final honors.

Mrs. Bertha Hilborn, still spry at 78, twirled with her partner then bowed her head with the rest of the townspeople for a moment of silent remembrance for her husband.

It was the only favor Jerry asked in return for his annual party. As the wood fire warmed the barn-like granite hall, oldsters passed on stories of Jerry's kind deeds and his love of music.

Norman Sturtevant told how Jerry collected thousands of rolls for his gramophone. In the daytime Jerry would play tunes on the steps of the country store. On quiet evenings he would stick the big horn of the gramophone out the window of his home on the square and serenade the village.

Jerry was a bachelor until his 73rd year. Mrs. Hilborn confesses with a quick smile that she does not know why he plunged into matrimony past three score and ten.

RESIGNS PORTLAND, (AP)—Roy E. Cannon for the past 23 years Superintendent of Multnomah county schools, will resign Jan. 1. He announced his resignation yesterday. He recommended Errol C. Rees, his assistant, as his successor. Rees formerly was with the Clackamas county school system.

Gotham's Budget Sets New Record

NEW YORK, (AP)—A $505,483,395 capital budget for 1952, largest in New York City's history, was adopted yesterday by the city council.

The budget provides for permanent improvements to be built by the city during the coming year. It is not the total budget, which runs to more than a billion dollars annually.

The budget still requires the signature of Mayor Vincent R. Impellitteri.

A New Organ You Can Play

Whether or not you ever played any musical instrument, you can, after a few minutes instruction, play the new Hammond chord organ.

Sounds unreasonable, but a large and rapidly growing list of local chord organ owners proves it is true. A new kind of music which anyone can read at a glance comes with the chord organ. You play lead and full harmony bass and also pedal bass, beautifully, right from the beginning.

We have a chord organ privately placed in the store where, after a few minutes explanation, you can sit down and play as you always wished you could.

We invite you to come and enjoy a thrilling new experience. Louis R. Mann piano company, 120 N. 7th. —Adv.
