Legion Auxiliary Christmas Party

BLV—American Legion auxiliary entertained members of the American Legion and their families December 18 at their first annual Christmas party.

There was a gift exchange after a potluck dinner. The gifts were distributed from a beautifully decorated tree, and candy, balloons and popcorn balls were given to all children present.

Bly unit 13 of American Legion auxiliary, originally known as the Watts-Paizke-Griffin unit in honor of servicemen killed in world war two is the youngest in the state.

Although its membership is small many contributions have been made to various service organizations, among them gifts to the Disabled Veterans hospital in Portland which the veterans may select free to give to anyone of their choice. Also they sent Christmas gifts to all boys from Bly now in service overseas.

Camp Fire Girls Final Ceremonial In Chiloquin

CHILOQUIN — On the last occasion on which the Masonic hall was used before the fire, Norma Lee Gienger led her group of Camp Fire Girls through a final ceremonial and turned them over to a new guardian, Mrs. Leonard Swanson, and her assistants, Mrs. John Mannering and Mrs. Walter Collins.

On that occasion Fire Maker ranks, the third in line, were given to Marcia Prescott, Judy Collins and to Carmen Hill. Wood gatherer rank, the second in line, was taken by Louise Niehaus, Louise Heglund and Marilee Collins.

New girls inducted into the group that night were Sharon Wilder, Jessie Case, Janice Crain, Gail Mannering, Carmen Thompson, Claudia Heglund, Evelyn McDaniel, and Linda Mendenhall.

Introduced at the ceremonial were the two new groups of Blue Birds and their guardians, Mrs. Dwight Kircher and Mrs. Albert Brisco.

Royal Neighbors Elect Officers

Royal Neighbors of America held their regular meeting on the evening of December 14 with Orville Julia Williams in charge.

Oregon State Supervisor Mae Logan was a visitor and with district deputy Jessie Steele was introduced and presented with corsages. Two other visitors, Mrs. Vivia Edwards, Elmwood, Wisconsin, and Mrs. Lillian Ferguson, Medford, were given the grand honors.

Election of officers for 1952 was held and the following were elected: Ada Barleen, orator; Lillian Rosson, vice orator; Elsie Longmire, chancellor; Jessie Steele, recorder; Lucile Heller, receiver; Alice Hoover, treasurer; Karen Lancaster, inner sentinel; Illia Simpson, outer sentinel; and Jennie Arnold, manager. Julia Williams will serve as past orator for the coming year.

State Supervisor Logan announced that Supreme Orator Francis Torkelson would visit southern Oregon district April 23, 1952.

Plans were made for the annual Christmas party to be held in the K.C. hall December 23 at 3:30 p.m. There will be a tree, program and treats.

The Christmas birthday dinner will be December 28 at 6:30 p.m. in the dining room of the K.C. hall. The lodge and 3-R club will furnish beer, and the rest of the dinner will be potluck.

Camp Fire Group Has Party For Norma Gienger

CHILOQUIN — On the Tuesday preceding her marriage to Jan. Rodgers of Cottonwood California, Norma Lee Gienger was honored at a surprise shower given for her by her group of Camp Fire Girls. The girls planned a fake treasure hunt with Miss Gienger and a few girls being the only ones actually following clues, which led them to the home of Mrs. Gerald Wohl, where all the other girls and the new assistant guardians of the group were waiting to call "Surprise."

Carmen Hill, president of the group and Beverly David, planned the party and the clues. Refreshments were furnished by the guardian, Mrs. Leonard Swanson, of Collier park and her two assistants, Mrs. John Mannering and Mrs. Walter Collins.

Gifts were opened from Marcia Prescott, Jane Clark, Carol Barnes, Carmen Thompson, Sharon Hecceck, Ruth Ann Adams, Judy and Mary Lee Collins, Margie Wright, Evelyn McDaniel, Linda and Minda Mae Mendenhall, Rose Collins, Bernice and Della Erickson, Sharon Wilder, Beverly David, Gail Mannering, Louise and Claudia Heglund, Marlene Dumont, Carmen Hill, Peggy DuBois, Elaine Jackson, and Louise Niehaus. Cherry, Gerry and Micki Jo Wolff also gave gifts.

AAUW Meeting

December 13 at 6:30 p.m. the American Association of University Women held its annual Christmas party in the Felician party room.

The recent graduate group headed by Miss Zetta Spurling was in charge of the affair. The rooms and tables were beautifully decorated with candles, evergreen and to the season.

After dinner Harriet Mueller, toastmistress, asked Mrs. William Wales Jr. to introduce the new members: Mrs. Gene Favel, Mrs. Shockey, Mrs. Carl Miller, Mrs. Phillip Bloom, Carolyn Collier and Patricia Kennedy and present each with a Christmas corsage. Harriet Mueller accompanied by Ruth Lobach sang "The Virgin's Slumber Song."

Mills School Syncopaters, Don Finney, Wayne Pounds, Milton Stone and Delmar Mayfield, accompanied by Ruth Lobach sang three numbers.

"Truth or Consequences" provided the remainder of the evening's entertainment with members giving skills as their part of the consequences. Climaxing the evening was the gift exchange and group singing.

KLAMATH ART ASSOCIATION

The Klamath Art association held its regular monthly meeting Monday evening, December 17, in the church of the Latter Day Saints.

Lorraine Johnson presented the Christmas program giving the historical background of Madonna paintings from the beginning of Christianity to modern times. Reproductions of Madonna paintings from each major period of history were shown.

The program ended with a Christmas tableau of the Madonna and child. Mrs. Evans portrayed the Madonna, Lissa Balentine was the angel kneeling at her feet and Mrs. Boyd Sprague played the Ave Maria as the musical background.

After the program refreshments were served and the members present leafed through Lorraine Johnson's large collection of the No. 1 editions of the French publication L'Illustration.

BRIDGE PARTY AT BONANZA

BONANZA—Mrs. Lester Leavitt entertained with a bridge party at her home on December 12. Large tables were in play with Mrs. Leland Harris winning the main prize, Mrs. Bill Becholdt second high and Mrs. Bill Burnett won the traveling prize.

Holly, red candles and chrysanthemums were used for decorations, refreshments and prizes were carried out with the Christmas tree.

Guests included Mrs. Frank W. Brown, Mrs. Paul Monroe, Mrs. Jack Weimer, Mrs. Cecil Haley, Mrs. Bill Becholdt, Mrs. Harry Frazier, Mrs. Bill Burnett, Mrs. I. B. Morris, Mrs. Frank DeBel, Mrs. John Sullivan, and Mrs. Leland Harris.
