Officials VFW Guests at Malin

MALIN—Honored guests at the meeting of the Malin VFW Auxiliary, Thursday evening, December 13, were Mrs. Bertha Ambers and Mrs. Patricia Henry, district senior advisor of district 8, who made their official inspection visit. Both ladies are of Pelican Post auxiliary of Klamath Falls.

It was reported that seventeen Christmas boxes were prepared by the members and sent to the local boys who are stationed in the states or serving overseas. Another project handled by the members was to dress 19 dolls and purchase other toys which were all sent to the VFW National Home at East Rapids, Michigan for the kiddies Christmas party held there. Candy canes were purchased and will be distributed to all members of the Brownie Girl Scout troops, which are the auxiliary sponsors. Members, children and grandchildren were also the recipients of candy canes. Following the meeting the members enjoyed a gift exchange and refreshments, served by Marie Vacknitz. Those who were present for the meeting were: Mrs. Alice Eassey, Pauline West, Marie Vacknitz, Mary Victorine, Rose Van Meter, Millie Gregg, Minnie Kirtley, Ruth Morrow, Blanche Bolgrain and the guests, Mrs. Bertha Ambers and Mrs. Patricia Henry.

MERRILL MOOSE TURKEY DINNER

MERRILL—The annual Academy of Friendship Women of the Moose turkey dinner was held in the Moose hall on Sunday evening, December 16. The full course dinner was served in family style to Mrs. Mary Grove, Mr. and Mrs. John Stoll and Richard, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sherrill and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Bradshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Ickenbie, Lillian Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Ray VanMeter, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Aubrey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spolek and family, Mamie E. Giacomini, Harriet Potheringham, Mr. and Mrs. Max Harterode, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hundley, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lahoda, Paul Lahoda, Mr. and Mrs. Oroville Elvert and family, Mr and Mrs. John Baley, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Fry's, Patsy Hornbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Fields and family, and Mr. and Mrs. John McNeil. The tables were beautifully decorated with a cookie house, Santa Claus and his sleigh, and hand-made noisettes. Favors of hand crocheted nut cups were given to all members present. The decorations were all made by Mary Grove, Academy of Friendship chairman, who was introduced and presented with a gift from her co-workers. Blanche Fris won the doll, also made by Mrs. Grove. Cards and music were enjoyed later in the evening.

TULELAKE ROTARIAN DINNER

TULELAKE—Chester J. Main was master of ceremony at the annual Christmas party and Rotarian dinner Wednesday night at the Sportsman's hotel. A lighted tree, Christmas decorations and holly carriages for the ladies added to the holiday spirit. Mrs. Dave Bridge, music instructor in the high school presented nine girls as a chorus for carols. John Houston, Klamath Falls was guest speaker. Other Klamath Falls guests were Mr. and Mrs. Elton Thompson. Places were marked at tables for 90 guests.

SOROPTIMIST

Klamath Falls Soroptimist club met with their son and brother at the Pelican party room Thursday noon for their Christmas luncheon and program. The meeting was opened by President Opha Smith and welcomed the many guests. The tables were beautifully arranged with greens and decorative small Christmas trees built around tall red candles. Popcorn balls were with ribbons and placed on the table at each place. Rose Poole had as her guest Ruth Bathiany from Brookings and a former member of the club. A number of Venture club girls were present as guests of their Soroptimist sponsors. Bea Bell won the award of the day. Several Christmas greetings were read to the club from regional and federation officers. A Christmas letter was read from Ruth Stark, a former member who is now residing in Utah. Greetings were also received from the Klamath Falls sister club in England. Eloise McIntyre was chairman of the day and arranged the Christmas program. She introduced the Madrigal singers who were Miss Ruth Lobough, Miss Ellen O'Keefe, Mrs. Jane Craig, LaMarr Jensen, John Drysdale, Donald McKenzie, Bennett Lotsgaard and Miss Harriet Mueller. Miss Mueller gave a short history of the Madrigal singers of years ago and told how they used to sing, sitting around four sides of a table. The group sang several Christmas numbers. The speaker for the day was Rev. David Barnett Jr., pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Rev. Barnett talked on the Christmas story and the lessons to be found in the story. It was announced at the close of the meeting that there would be no luncheon on December 27th.
