March Wheat Puts
Market Up Today

CHICAGO (AP)—Demand for March wheat, as well as for all soybean contracts, perked up the grain market toward the close Thursday.

There may have been some hedge lifting in wheat, traders said, as West Germany had asked for offers of Red wheat and was expected to take a fairly sizable quantity before the week is out.

Action of soybeans was a little harder to figure, grain men said. Beans seemed to draw some strength from a firmer tone in cottonseed oil at New York.

Wheat closed 1 1/2 cents lower to 1 cent higher, March $2.61 1/2, corn 1 1/2 lower to 1/4 higher, March $1.94 1/2, oats 1 1/2 higher, March $6 1/2, rye 1 1/2 higher, May $2.12, soybeans 1/4 to 2 cents higher, January $3.02 1/2, and soybean meal a hundred pounds lower, January $14.47.

Bulls Hail Move
Up On Stock Lists

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market rolled ahead Thursday in a drive that hopeful bulls hailed as a renewal of the traditional year-end rally.

Gains at the outside ran to between 1 and 2 points among leading issues. Losses were scattered and of little moment.

The volume of business came to an estimated 1,400,000 shares, just under yesterday's 1,520,000.

Rails, steel, and oil alternated their leadership and they were joined by many individual issues from time to time.

Six Months
Held For Robbery

SIX months in custody, three in Klamath county jail, and the others at Ashland, in connection with armed robbery Tuesday night of 72-year-old Gerald Wick, 1820 1/2 Wainland, of $340 and theft of about $6 from the Henley school safe.

Held here under $3500 bail on charge of robbery by assault, force and violence, not armed with a dangerous weapon.

Claude Clarke Worley Jr., 17, 700 Owens.

Robert Gene Ambrose, 18, Hope street.

Eugene Phares Book, 18, 3708 Av.

Book was returned here this afternoon according to state police.

Kenneth Smith, 19, Jack Am-rose, 19 and Gerald Tucker, 17.

Worley, Robert Ambrose and Book were picked up by city and state police last night.

They were questioned at state police headquarters and admitted taking part in both robberies, state officers said.

Officers stated the youths here said they were riding in a car along S. 6th about 10 p. m. Tuesday.

They saw Wick walking along and three of the boys got out of the car and followed him to a clearing and the SP roundhouse and the victim.

Statements given by the three youths held here revealed Tucker and Book attacked the elderly man with their fists and heavy boots and Robert Ambrose took wallet from him that contained $340.

The other three remained in the car, officers said, picked up Tucker, Book and Ambrose and then went to Mallin to a dance.

About 2 a. m. the next morning, police said the boys stated, three of them went into the Henley school, knocked a dial off the office safe and got only $6.

Information received by police here revealed Kenneth Smith, Jack Ambrose and Gerald Tucker separated from the other three after the money taken from Wick was divided, and hired a cab to drive them to Ashland.

Police there were alerted and the three were arrested at the Ashland Hotel and held under violation of an Ashland city ordinance, illegal possession of liquor by minors.

In District Court late this morning, Worley, Robert Ambrose and Book waived preliminary hearing.

Dist. Atty. D. E. Van Vactor indicated they would be arraigned in Circuit Court this afternoon.

The three youths held in Ashland will be returned here by state police this afternoon for further questioning and will likely be held under the same charge.

Kenneth Smith also faces a district court charge of giving liquor to a minor. He was scheduled to face trial December 12 on that count, but the case was continued with the Rev. Richard Graef, Zion Lutheran church, officiating. Vault cementation is to be in the Linkville cemetery.
