BELLINGHAM CHURCH SCENE OF WOLF-UNDERWOOD RITES

The Church of the Assumption in Bellingham, Washington, was the setting for the wedding of Mary Eva Wolf to George Clifton Underwood. Reverend John J. Horan officiated at the double ring ceremony at 7 p.m. December 8, before a small gathering of relatives and friends. Given in marriage by her father, Michael Wolf, the bride wore a gown designed with lace bodice, lace scalloped puffed and nylon net skirt over taffeta, with matching lace mitts. Her shoulder-length veil was held in place by a Juliet cap trimmed with seed pearls.

She carried a shower bouquet of Tallman roses and stephanotis. The maid of honor, Helen Osborne and Aileen Lind, bridesmaid, wore pink and lime green net dresses. They wore stoles to match and carried yellow and bronze chrysanthemums.

Best man was David L. Rankin, United States Navy. Ushers were Russell L. McRea, also United States Navy and Delbert Wolf and George Wolf, brothers of the bride.

Organist was Mr. Nils Bosen. Vocal solos, "Ave Maria," "Panis Angelicus" were sung before the ceremony by Shirley McKicken.

Mrs. Wolf, mother of the bride, wore an aqua crepe dress with black accessories and her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Underwood, mother of the bridegroom, chose a navy blue dress with navy blue accessories. She wore a corsage of white rosebuds.

The reception was held in the parish hall immediately after the marriage service. Mrs. W. Wildeman and Mrs. W. Fisher, aunts of the bride, poured. Jean Underwood, sister of the bridegroom, cut the wedding cake, assisted by Mrs. A. Fisher, aunt of the bride. Polly

Kayser was in charge of the guest book.

For her going away costume the bride wore a moss green suit with black accessories and the flowers which centered her bridal bouquet were worn as her corsage.

The couple spent their honeymoon in Seattle and Klamath Falls. Plans had been made for a March wedding, but sudden overseas orders necessitated postponing three months planning into ten days. George did not get his leave until Friday, and the wedding was on Saturday.

The new Mrs. Underwood's future address is at present indefinite.

The Christmas cantata "The Nativity" held at Glenlivet Methodist church had a record attendance. Standing room only was available after the organ prelude. Helen Guillard was the organist. She arrived early this fall to take over her duties as second grade teacher. In Denver she was very active in musical functions. The cantata was under the direction of Roger Wilson.

A Great Northern Railway survey party has been in Chemult the last week. They did most of their work on skis. The party was from Seattle and they hoped to make it home for the holidays. The local snow survey taken for the Bureau of Agriculture and Cooper showed 26 inches of snow on the level. However, the last two storms have brought it up into the 50 inch bracket.

Mrs. Hope Brader reports there has been an unusual amount of Christmas mail and packages going through the local post office this year.

The primary department of the local Sunday School has a picture window of the Nativity on display all through the holidays. Everyone is invited to see it.

The George Eppersons are spending a few days in Rogue River with friends.

Mrs. Sally Damon and mother left Sunday to spend Christmas at Lakeview with relatives.

The local Christmas party and program was held at the Wheel. About 60 attended. The program consisted of a children's chorus singing "Frosty the Snowman," "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer," "Santa's Christmas Card," "Christmas Bells by Delphine Fletcher, Christmas Cheer by Butch Ramsey, Christmas Wishes by Denby Jessup. The closing Last Wish by Normie Masten.
