

Gambling Tax Rolling In

By The Associated Press
The government has collected at least $200,000 in gambling taxes since the new 10 per cent levy went into force two months ago, an Associated Press survey disclosed today.

That sum was paid by professional gamblers in about one-fourth of 48 states. Some collectors of internal revenue declined to make the figures public. Others said their records were quite incomplete. Still others said they collected nothing.

Congressional backers of the tax predicted it would raise 400 million dollars a year. This would average out to more than 30 million dollars a month.

Collection sums in five figures were reported in only three states—Ohio, Florida and Indiana.

At Tacoma, Wash., the collector's office said $14,805.42 was collected from gamblers' income by the new tax for the month of November. Some 350 returns were filed. The figures for December had not been compiled.

Water Power Sale Talked

WASHINGTON (AP)— Securities and Exchange Commission members discussed Thursday requests that they hold a hearing on the proposed sale of Washington Water Power Company common stock to Washington State.

The discussion was held at a closed meeting of the commission, Secretary Orval DuBoise told a reporter. No decision was reached.

The commission has until the close of the business Saturday to decide whether to hold a hearing on the proposed sale.

American Power & Light Company, which owns the Washington State's common stock, notified the commission last week the three districts had offered 62 million dollars for the stock. The disclosure brought more than a dozen requests from Washington and Idaho state officials and members of Congress during the commission to hold a hearing.

New Man Takes On Coast Survey

SEATTLE (AP)— The Coast and Geodetic Survey announced Thursday appointment of Cmdr. S. B. Grenell as supervisor of the Northwestern District with headquarters in Seattle.

Commander Grenell succeeds Capt. Jack Senior, retired. The new supervisor has spent 12 seasons on survey work in Alaska, principally in the Aleutian Islands and Bering Sea. He has been executive officer of the Explorer for the past two seasons.

PIN CHAMPIONS — Mrs. Marion Ladewig, Grand Rapids, Mich., and Julie McMahon, Fairlawn, N. J., hold trophies after winning national individual all-star bowling titles in Chicago.

A SAFE APPROACH — Donnie Tamala, 4, places hand under Bushman's jaw after body of the famous gorilla was placed on exhibition in Chicago's Museum of Natural History.

FORT ROCK
By ROBERTA MCGEE
A triple installation ceremony took place Monday evening Dec. 31 at the Summer Lake Grange Hall, Fort Rock, Ore. Officers were installed for the coming year. Fort Rock was very well represented by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ritcher, Fred Owen and Jerry, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eskelin, Ed Eskelin, Bernie Sult, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Klerk, Roberta McGee, Mr. and Mrs. Hazel Ward and Maralyn, Charlie Stingley, Mr. and Mrs. A. Kaley, Mrs. Leon Gilder and Avon Derrick.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eskelin and Ed were business visitors in Lakeview on Monday afternoon, Dec. 27. Ed returned to Lakeview again on Tuesday when Bud Parks, who they attended a telephone meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Trauger of Portland were overnight guests Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Parks. The Traugers were on their way to California. Trauger is writing the geological report on underground water in Lake County. The report will appear in one of the government bulletins when completed in the near future.

The Christmas church service scheduled at the Grange hall Sunday afternoon was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McGee. Instead, due to climatic conditions, such as snow—which when measured at 7:15 p.m. Sunday evening was 10 inches, which meant that on an average of one inch of snow per hour fell the weather detained a few of the members that were planning to be on the program. Rev. Darl Huns sermon was quite touching.

Christmas carols were sung by the 17 persons who were present. Saturday the Fort Rock Carol Singers started from Fort Rock and headed east to carol all they could reach.

The Fort Rock school children had a Christmas party on Friday afternoon, December 21, with the children exchanging gifts. There was also a birthday cake, decorated in the Christmas theme. Joan Perry who is now 8 years old. The children sang Happy Birthday and the class presented her with a lovely pencil. Mrs. Floyd Branch, Joan's mother, served the birthday refreshments. John Harrison furnished the refreshments for the Christmas party.

Wednesday morning and it is snowing some more here in Fort Rock. It is the most snow I have seen in a long time.

Donald and Howard McGee left for Portland Wednesday morning to see if they can obtain a new diesel motor for the mill.

Mrs. Floyd Branch and Clinton and Joan Perry spent Christmas in Lakeview with Floyd's family. Ralph Webber took his mother, Mrs. Laura Webber, to the bus Monday to return to Medford to stay with her son Harry and family.
