SOROPTIMIST

The regular meeting of the Soroptimist Club of Klamath Falls was held Thursday noon with President Ota Smith presiding.

Mr. W. J. Owsley, tax accountant, was introduced by Jennie Southwell. Mr. Owsley gave an enlightening talk about our new revised tax laws which went into effect recently. This proved a timely and interesting subject to all members.

Ethel Matthews reported that she attended a Soroptimist meeting in Phoenix, Arizona with Laura and Lorene Bertram, both former Klamath Falls members. Laura Bertram is reported in good health and sent her greetings to local members.

Lorraine Johnson received the award of the day.

Bonanza
By CORA LEAVITT
Mr. and Mrs. Owen Peppie of Bonanza who have had a run of bad luck were given a surprise Christmas Eve when Rev. Gordon Ashbee took a gift of over $300 to them from 88 friends. The Peppie home burned to the ground several weeks ago just the day before Owen underwent major surgery at Klamath Valley Hospital. Another nice Christmas present was the bill from Dr. George H. Adler marked paid in full. The Peppies are living in the Bill Bechold's house while the Bechold's are in Portland visiting their daughter and family. The Peppies will live in one of the apartments belonging to their daughter and family. The Peppies daughter and son-in-law, the O. C. Wells. They plan to build a new home in the near future.
Mr. and Mrs. Bill Beavert and daughters, Jackie and Joan of Portland, spent Christmas holidays with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Horn.
George Maxwell of Monmouth was here visiting relatives and friends. He was a dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Prough on Christmas Day along with Mr. and Mrs. Elva Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Maxwell all of Bonanza, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Prough and Craig of Klamath Falls.
Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Brown and the Les Leavitt's of Langell Valley visited at the Owen Peppie home on Christmas Eve.
Ralph Dixon is home for the Christmas vacation from his studies at Ashland College.
Mr. and Mrs. Bill House of Bly visited her brother, Aaron Andrews and family on Christmas Day. Their father was out from Klamath Falls for a few days with Aaron.
Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Bold and Gary and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Puddy spent Christmas in Klamath Falls with Mr. and Mrs. Happy Davidson.
Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Carnes from Texas visited their son, Ted Carnes and family. Other guests on Christmas Day at the Carnes home were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lovelady, and Oliver and Charles and Howard Koerje.
Mr. and Mrs. Owen Peppie had Christmas dinner for the following: Mrs. O. C. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Peppie and Pamela, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Peppie and David, and Nonie Peppie. Their son Ted called from Anchorage on Christmas Day.

ALOHA CLUB
