MR. AND MRS. HAROLD DUANE HANSEN, whose marriage was solemnized at the First Christian Church, December 20, when Rev. George Alder read the service at 7:30 p.m. before invited guests and members of the family.

DONNA EACRET BRIDE OF HAROLD DUANE HANSEN

First Christian Church was the setting for the marriage of Donna Eacret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Eacret, 3055 Lodi, to Harold Duane Hansen, Tulelake, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hans K. Hansen, Pine City, Minn.

Donna wore a floor length gown of white slipper stain, with lace yoke trimmed in seed pearls, long sleeves with pointed wrists. Her fingertip length veil was held in place with a crown cap trimmed in rhinestones and her bouquet was two white orchids with pink throats on a white ribbon.

Maid, wore pink satin and carried a bouquet exactly as the other bridesmaid.

Best man was Ronnie Pince and ushers were Delbert Yordy, who also acted as candlelighters.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Eacret chose a royal blue dress with black accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations with gold ribbon.

Mrs. Hansen, the bridegroom's mother was unable to attend.

The reception was held at the church immediately after the ceremony. Luella Walkley poured coffee, Wynemias Redden cut the cake, Myrtle Prince was at the punch bowl and Yvonna Kirkpatrick and Donna Peterson assisted with the guest book and gifts.

Polly Haynes accompanied by Geraldene Johnson sang "I Love You Truly." Both are from Tulelake.

For her going away costume, the bride wore a brown suit with gold and brown accessories. The new Mr. and Mrs. Hansen went to Pine City, Minn., to visit with the bridegroom's parents, who were unable to attend their son's wedding. They will be at home in Tulelake after January.

MIRIAM CIRCLE

Miriam Circle of the First Presbyterian Church had a holiday meeting and potluck dinner at the church December 27.

Mrs. R. H. Dunbar led the devotions and called upon Mrs. J. B. Reed, Mrs. Marguerite Parker, Mrs. Hal Agle and Mrs. Fred Fletcher to speak on "What Christmas Means to Me."

Mrs. C. E. Dennis reported on the gift circle gave to an invalid, instead of exchanging gifts.

Mrs. W. B. DeWitt read minutes of a meeting of the group held just 17 years ago. Greetings were read from Mrs. Etie Rideout, a former member, now living in Portland.

Christmas carols were sung with Mrs. Genevieve Kettenbach at the piano and "Happy Birthday" for Mrs. Ada Sparreton, Mrs. C. E. Dennis and Mrs. Elia McMillan.

The next meeting will be held in the church on January 24 with Mrs. Marion Hanks and Mrs. Della Schroeder as hostesses. Mrs. Logan will lead the devotions and Rev. David Barnett will speak on "New Year" theme.

MRS. CHARLES FOSTERLING JR., who was recently married in Portland, is the former Jesalee Keffeler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Proebstel, Bly. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fosterling of Spanaway, Washington.
