Virgil Freed, Oregon State College agronomist, described a new spray, IPC Chloro, which he said would aid in controlling velvet and other annual grasses in fescue stands. The new spray soon will be available commercially, he said. James Short, Redmond, league president, appointed a committee to investigate a proposed tonnage tax on Oregon grown seeds, the proceeds to be used to advertise the industry.

George B. Davis ef Oregon State College reported that rough handling damaged 43.5 per cent of the Oregon potato crop. He said the damage resulted in a grade reduction of 13.1 per cent of the marketable crop. Virgil Freed, Oregon State Col-

Damage Bond Held Legal

SALEM IF — Truckers who get permits to haut overweight loads on county roads can be required to put up bond against damage to the roads or bridges, Attorney General George Neuner ruled Tuesday for District Attorney Robert G. Davis of Douglas County.

A bond isn't required, Neuner said, because the county can make a contract in which the hauter agrees to pay for the damage.

Tuna Import Slash Asked

WASHINGTON (#2-A west Coast congressman proposed a slow down Monday on imports of brine-packed

Rep. Mack (R.-Wash.) told reporters he has prepared a bill to increase the duty on the product from 121/2 to 45 per cent.

Imports—primarily from Japan—increased from 3,779 cases in all of 1949 to 204,341 cases in the month of September, 1951, he said.

"This increase threatens to cause vast unemployment among the 23,000 cannery workers and fishermen employed by the Pacific Coast 112 million dollar tuna industry," Mack declared.

Members of other Camp Fire Girl councils from forthern the gon have been invited to spend the day in Klamath Falls during the national directors' stay.

the national directors' stay.

Mrs. Percy Murray is in charge of all arrangements during Miss Allen's brief time in Klannath Falls.

Miss Allen has been associated with Camp Fire Girls, Inc., since 1941 when she became assistant national director. In April 1943, she was appointed national director. Her wide experience in administration, education and community relations has aided her in making the organization one of the nationally-recognized youth agencies in the country. Miss Allen graduated from Mississippi State College for Women, Columbus, Miss., and received a Master of Arts degree from Columbia University, New York.

John D. Billett, 24-year-old used car salesman, was arrested on the bank robbery charge Monday night.

Deputy Sheriff T. A. Callicott said Billett later admitted kidnaping Richard Evan Ricky Heuricksen, who had been missing since last October. Callicott said Billett then led officers to the three-room house where the 14-year old boy was held. The lad had bruises over much of his body but otherwise was in fair physical condition.

Callicott said the boy told of numerous sexual indignities at the hands of his captor. The man slept with him most of the time he was held, Callicot said Ricky told him.
