

Youth Needs Talked BPW Monday Meet

The need for better and more recreation facilities for the young people of Klamath Falls was expressed in a stirring talk by Rev. Lloyd Holloway, pastor of the First Methodist church before the Business and Professional Women Monday night. He was introduced by Edna Russell following the 6:30 dinner hour at the Willard Hotel.

He stated that Klamath Falls is faced with a growing juvenile problem and suggested that funds raised here during the Community Chest drive might be diverted to help cope with the situation.

It was announced by Isabelle Brixner, chairman for the state convention to be held here this year that May 9-11 have been set as convention dates.

Blanche Petroff reported that 44 patients at the county infirmary were remembered with Christmas gifts, that carolers from Sacred Heart Academy sang at the infirmary and later at Hillside and Klamath Valley hospitals where treats were presented to every patient. Transportation was furnished all day by the Yellow Cabs and Hurry Cabs.

Ty Keller, Tulake vocalist sang three numbers, "Loveliest Night of the Year," "Daughter of Rosie O'Grady" and "Great Day" with his mother Mrs. Lynn Keller at the piano. Ty, following an audition here some time ago, spent several months at the Columbia Boys school New Jersey for instruction.

Sandra Pemberton, student of the Isadora Moldovan school of dance presented an acrobatic and an Oriental dance number.

Beth Griggs was program chairman. Tables were centered with arrangements of spring flowers and places were marked for 48 members and guests.

Busy Cooks Cut Corners Cookie Baking

Busy cooks like semi-sweet chocolate for their baking because of its convenient form. Morsels of semi-sweet chocolate can be used whole as in chocolate Crunch Cookies to stud the baked cookies with little pieces of chocolate, or when melted chocolate is required, the morsels melt faster for more efficient baking. Semi-sweet chocolate has a more delicate flavor than is delightful in home baking.

The recipe for Chocolate Crunch Cookies is printed on the back of each package of semi-sweet chocolate morsels, and the recipes for the other two delicious gift cookies are included with this article.

COCONUT COOKIES
1/2 cup butter or margarine
2/3 cups sifted confectioners' sugar
4 tablespoons evaporated milk
3 cups finely cut coconut
1 package semi-sweet chocolate morsels
Melt butter over low heat until lightly browned. Stir in confectioners' sugar, evaporated milk and coconut. Drop from teaspoon onto a wax-paper lined cookie sheet. When cool, shape into cones. Melt semi-sweet chocolate morsels over hot, not boiling water. Dip the bottoms of the cones into the melted chocolate; return to waxed paper until chocolate hardens. YIELD: 3 dozen cookies.

BROWNIES
1 package semi-sweet chocolate morsels
1/2 cup butter or margarine
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
1/2 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup coarsely chopped nuts
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
Melt semi-sweet chocolate morsels over hot, not boiling water. Cream butter; add sugar gradually and cream well. Add eggs, one at a time, and beat after each addition. Sift in the flour and salt; beat again. Mix in 1/2 cup of the nuts, melted chocolate morsels and vanilla. Turn into a greased 8-inch square pan. Sprinkle remaining 1/2 cup nuts over the batter; press in lightly. Bake in moderate oven (375 F.) 25 to 30 minutes. Cool, cut into squares. YIELD: 16 squares.

Supreme Court Hears Appeals

SALEM (AP) — Arguments in the first degree murder appeal of Mrs. Sigurd Hansen, Corvallis, were heard by the State Supreme Court Wednesday.

She was sentenced to life in the state penitentiary for the murder of her husband. She was accused of crushing him to death with their automobile in the family garage.

Her attorneys contend it was accidental, and that there was no evidence to justify the conviction.

The high court also heard an appeal today in the Portland General Electric Company's suit to prevent the city of Estacada from annexing territory which includes company property.

Yet Loans Paid Out In State

SALEM (AP) — The 6,300 Oregon World War II veterans who have state farm and home loans paid $489,045 in property taxes, the State Veterans Department said Wednesday.

The department pays the taxes by taking them out of the veterans' monthly repayments. By paying them before the November 15 deadline, the department got the 3 per cent discount and saved the veterans $15,125 in taxes.

FILES

SALEM (AP) — Howard Dent Jr. of the Dalles, filed Wednesday for delegate to the Republican National convention for the Second Congressional District.

He favors General Eisenhower for President.

A REAL PRIZE CATCH is a casserole that joins together the charms of cream of mushroom soup, big chunks of salmon, noodles and cheese. Make a gay garnish for the top with a thin curl of green pepper shaped in the outline of a fish. Serve piping hot.

Mushroom-Salmon Quick Winter Meal

MUSHROOM-SALMON
For that carefree feeling about cooking, turn your job over to those two fine friends—cream of mushroom soup for the cooking sauce, and a big deep casserole dish.

So many good quick-meals result from this harmonious team. The mushroom cream sauce plus a filler-upper ingredient like noodles and just a taste of meat can come out in the most mouth-watering concoctions.

A shining example of this is "Mushroom-salmon quick meal." Just the ticket to answer your lament for something simple but simply wonderful to serve this winter. The preparation is merely a matter of mixing the creamy rich soup-sauce with cooked noodles, chunks of salmon, and seasonings. A half hour in the oven and there's a scrumptious dish that comes easy, goes easier.

Mushroom Salmon Quick Meal
1/2 cup chopped onion
1/4 cup chopped green pepper
2 tablespoons butter or margarine.
2 cups medium-width noodles (about 4 ounces) cooked and drained
1 can (1-1/4 cups) condensed cream of mushroom soup

NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTION
If you resolved to entertain more this year, start right by planning a simple basic menu to serve when friends come to supper. For instance: Hot celery-tomato soup (1 can each of cream of celery and tomato soup plus 1 1/2 cans of milk) chicken-alfalfa salad, and toasted cheese rolls. Dessert — pineapple sundaes and cookies.

Sliced corned beef, thinly shredded green cabbage, and Russian dressing make a flavorful filling for a rye bread sandwich to pack into a lunchbox.

Rumpus Room Can Be Any Room Un-Used

Prescription for a rumpus room: Take any unused space in the house, add facilities for recreation, then mix family and friends well. Dosage: As often as desired, because this medicine is harmless!

A basementless house can have a recreation room, too. Or an attic-less home. Or a dwelling which has neither. Use an extra bedroom, if large enough, or a garage or utility room which can be spared. There is only one "must": the rumpus room should be as easy to clean as possible, with washable floors and walls such as clay tile, no matter where it is located in the house.

More and more homemakers are learning the value of the recreation room in sparing the rest of the house clutter and upset. The mothers of teenagers, particularly, rate the rumpus room high. Television, pingpong, coke-and-sandwich parties, and canasta sessions may all afford pleasure to young people in this room, while Mother and Father relax in the living room.

If you parents have been discussing the need for such a room and wondering where to locate it, bear in mind that any space of suitable size will do, whether or not it's the conventional site, basement or attic. Consult a builder or architect about installing durable clay tile, not only on floors and walls, but also on snack bar counters. The kids can keep the place clean themselves in a jiffy if all dirt-catching surfaces are simple to wipe fresh.

Homemakers can have a lot of fun decorating such a room inexpensively, too. Nautical motifs, with blue denim draperies carrying out the color theme; western schemes with lots of rustic furniture; Early American themes which call for the simplest of furnishings and accessories, all are easy to do on a budget and will please the younger generation.

Pork sausage patties served with mashed potatoes, sauerkraut and apples, and a green vegetable makes a hearty winter dinner.
