Fort Klamath

By MYRTLE WIMER
Christmas guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Sanders and sons were Mr. and Mrs. William Pickering of Enscanada, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Smith and son Jimmy of El Monte. Calif. Or. Christmas Eve, the Sanders home at their apartment house here was the scene of a jolly party, when an evening of dancing and fun was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Sanders, their house guests, and a number of local people as well as Mr. and Mrs. Larry Forina of Klamath Falis.

Mrs. Larry Fortna of Klamath Fails.

Mrs. Sanders left after Christmas for San Diego, Calif., on a combined business and pleasure trip, and expected to return home in two weeks. The two Sanders sons, Ray and Don, spent New Years at Sisters, Ore., visiting their sister and family.

Spending the New Year holiday here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kendall and family were their son-in-law, daughter, and two little boys, Mr. and Mrs. Theron Winn and sons of Grants Pass.

Loy Barker, insurance agent of Klamath Falls, was here Monday, Dc. 31, dispensing Happo few Year wishes as well as calendars for the coming year.

After spending Christmas with relatives at Springfield, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Whorton returned here Saturday, Dec. 29, and on Monday moved their household belongings from the Earl Jackson rental property here back to Springfield, their former home. Whorton is working as hooker and climber in logging there for the winter, and the family, including their small son Terry, will return here in the spring when the Modoc Lumber Co. of Klamath Falls resumes logging operations at the Seven Mile Division west of here, where Whorton is employed as top loader in the Se woods.

The New Year was ushered in by a Jolly party held New Year's Eve in the Bronco room of the Old Fort Tavern and Lounge, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Clay Thomas. The large crowd present was composed largely of local people, with several attending the party from outside points also. Music for dancing was played by Dick Varnum and his violin. accompanied at the plane by Mrs. Roy Deffenbacher of Chiloquim.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bricco drove up from Klamath Falls to spend New Year's Day with his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Morvir Roeder, their some Donald and Clark. Also with his father. Charles Bricco, of the Crater Lake Cafe and Tavern.

After a stormy week. New Year's Day was clear and cold, with a cloudless blue sky and the famous brilliant Klamath sunshine turning the winter Indiscape of mountains and trees into a thing of beauty indeed. At 8 a. m., thermometers here registered a frigid 14 below zero, and from present indications, will drop still further.

ent indications, will drop still further.

During December, there have been severe snowstorms and a rainy spell. As a result of the snowfall, the snow is unusually deep in the mountains as well as here in Wood River valley, and this in all probability accounts for the sight which amazed some local people on a trip to Klamath Falls Monday, Dec. 31. Mrs. Marvin Roeder, Donald Roeder, Mrs. James Van Wormer and son Douglas, were enroute to Klamath Falls when they saw a herd of 15 deer above the road at the lower Chiloquin junction of highway 97, a distance of 12 miles from here. Included among the deer were two magnificent bucks, with immense racks of horns.

For the past two weeks, two yearling deer have been fed at the William Brewer ranch north of Ft. Klamath, Brewer being assisted in taking hay to the animals by Jack Thomas, who is deputy game Warden and lives a few miles north of the Brewer ranch. No doubt the deep snow has forced the deer from their customary winter feeding grounds to a lower level.

Wilfred Loosley left Wednesday
Jan. 2, for induction into the U.S.
Air Force at Portland. Wilfred is 21, the only son of Mr. and Mrs.
Raymond S. Loosley, pioneer ranchers of Wood River valley, and has enlisted for a period of four years in the Air Force. He is a graduate of Chiloquin high school, and was a student at Southern Oregon College at Ashland before he decided to enter the service of his country.

Vote Slated For Taft, Warren

LOS ANGELES (P)—Now that he has been declared legally competent, John Michael Haggerty, 101, can go to the poils next election and "vote for Taft and Warren."

The judge complimented Haggerty on his physical appearance in Superior Court Thursday. The centenarian attributed it to abstinence from coffee, tea and hard liquor. He said he voted for President William Howard Taft and wants to cast a ballot for his son. Haggerty was adjuged incompent in 1934, but his niece and guardian certified that he is now capable of handling his own affairs. handling his own affairs.
