Truman Gives Up Plan To

Appoint Committee For Cleanup of Administration

By ARTNUR EDSON
WASHINGTON () — President
Truman said Thursday if General
Elisenhower wants to run for President and be the target for mod and rotten egge—it's all right with him.

despite his admiration for the general, if he thought that was the thing to do.

Once, Mr. Truman remarked almost wistfully it seemed that he had always hoped that Elsenhower was a Democrat.

him.

But when he was asked if he would support Eisenhower. Mr. Truman said he doesn't think the country would prosper under any Republican candidate.

Mr. Truman stressed at his news conference what he has asid many times before: He has a big cointion of Eisenhower, and he likes him, and he wants him to stay on as the top commander of United Military Forces in Europe.

He's doing a good job, Mr. Truman said.

He's doing a good job, Mr. Tru-man said.

And, he said, Eisenhower will stay on the job until he himself asks to be relieved. If Eisenhower should receive the Republican Presidential nomination, Mr. Tru-man said, of course he will have to resign his position.

Service Pay Up Doomed

WASHINGTON () — Thirty eight Republican senators Thursday launched a drive aimed at having President Truman dismiss Philip Jessup as U.S. Ambassador-at-Large.

The demand came in the form of a resolution asking the Senate as a whole to express the conviction that Jessup "does not command the confidence of the American people."

Sen. Bridges (R.-N.H.). Republican floor leader, said such a statement would be, in effect "a request that the President recall Mr. Jessup and replace him with a man in whom the American people have confidence."

Jessup now is serving as a U.S. delegate to the General Assembly of the United Nations in Paris.

man said, of course he will have to resign his position.

In other highlights of his weekly meeting with newsmen, Mr. Truman said:

1. He has given up the idea of a special commission to ferret out wrong-doings in the government. Attorney General J. Howard McGrath, as the government's chief law enforcement officer, will carry out the job. He said McGrath will remain in the Cabinet.

2. He has named a committee to see that firms with government contracts do not discriminate in hiring workers. The contracts carry a clause forbidding discrimination. Heading the committee on compliance is Dwight R. G. Palmer, chairman of the board of the General Cable Corporation.

Most of the news conference was given over to exchanges revolving about Eisenhower's statement Monday that (A) he is a Republican:

(B) would accept a "clear call" from the GOP to be its Presidential nominee, but (C) will not engage in pre-convention activities and will not ask to be relieved of his present military assignment.

In the course of a bantering series of questions, Mr. Truman repeated what he has said before—that Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohlo is the man he hopes the Republicans will nominate.

The President refused to say whether he intends to run again, but he made it plain he would not hestitate to run against Eisenhower McDonald would succeed W. Stuart Symington, who has resigned.
