

"I just can't go in the ring and face all those people—not in a last year's wrestling outfit!"

THE NOW — FAMOUS Harry Kids Matthews brush-off is paralleled in Jac Hurley's own managerial history.

Hurley is the canny skipper of Matthews, Mr. Box Office of the fistic business.

Hurley at one time handled a pretty fair country lighter.

Billy Petrolle was his name.

Petrolle, like Matthews, was called the greatest fighter of his day.

But, also like Matthews, there were no titles for Petrolle, the "Fargo Express."

WHAT IS Petrolle doing now?

IT ALL seems to tie in with Hurley's recent rejection of the IBC for a title fight for Matthews with Light Heavyweight King Joe Maxim.

with Light Heavyweight King Joe Maxim.

Matthews has admitted to close friends here that he's very happy with Hurley's managerial moves. He admits that he's made a lot of money and that Hurley is handling his business with finesse. Right now Matthews is without a doubt the top drawing card in the fistic world.

Chew this possibility for awhile: Say Hurley did sign Matthews for a fight with Maxim. And say Maxim punched him full of holes? In such an event, he could lose everything.

Ed note: This, of course, is purely hypothetical because it's lary opinion Matthews would unlinge Maxim anytime Hurley gave the "go ahead" nod from the corner.

Rickys won its fourth straight basketball decision in city league play at Altamont last night—that was expected. But the unexpected came when the Herald and Newsquint won its first to climb out of the league cellar. The Typographical errors, with Jay Griggs potting 31 points, nipped Hercules, 55-53.

Rickys won handily over Palmerton by a 64-39 count.
Cal Bonney paced the Rickys five with 17 points as the Jewelers stayed ahead of Palmerton Lumber Co. all the way, Jerry Dodds, ex-Gem baseballer, was high for the Lumbermen with 9.

Pred Floetke's 17 was high for the losing Hercules team.
Games Monday night pair Hercules and Hilltop at 7:30, Coca Cola and Palmerton at 9 o'clock flox scores.

Southern Cagers Start from Scratch

LOS ANGELES UP — Hot rivals in the Pacific Coast Conference basketball race, UCLA and Southern California, launch a two-game series Friday night, with the outcome of the Southern Division tilts rated a toss-up.

THE PELICANS won't

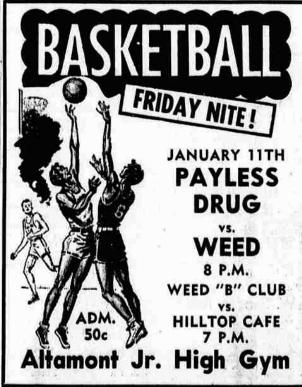

SALEM (#) — Doug Logue, high scoring Willamette University center, is almost over the measles and may be able to play against Linfield Saturday, physicians said Thursday.

Logue entered the campus infirmary with measles Wednesday, Doctors determined they were the three-day kind.

series Friday night, with the outcome of the Southern Division tilts rated a toss-up.

The two broke even in their games last week with Stanford and California, so all four are starting out again from scratch in the division campaign.

NEW YORK 15— Clever Rocky Castellani is an 8 to 5 favorite to make Ernie (The Rock) Durando of Bayonne, N. J., his 11th straight victim Friday night when they clash in the main ten rounder at Madison Square Garden.

OTI IN MONMOUT

Oretech Eyes Tie In OCC

Oretech's Owls could return to Klamath Falls Sunday with a tie in the Oregon Collegiate Confer-ence basketball race—but it will in the Oregon Collegiate Conference basketball race—but it will take some doing.

Art Kirkinand's Owls are in Monmouth for a Friday-Saturday date with the Oregon College of Education Wolves in the OCC openers for both teams.

Vanport already holds a lead in the four-team circuit with two victories over Eastern Oregon last weekend.

Dick Flaningam and Jim Paterson were singled out by Kirkland just before departure yesterday morning to join the 12-man traveling squad.

CHANGE

The OTI cage mentor indicated before he left he would return Homer Duncan to his familiar forward spot to team with Jack Pinkley on the starting five.

Wayne Holzfuss would get the center call, with Don Sutphin and Len Genetin holding the guard spots.

The second team would have form Schubert back at forward—he had been shifted to center—with Jerry Wyatt, John Koch, is relief center. Jack Brown has been moved up from the junior varsity for guard duty and Mary Hammack, letterman guard, will be able to see at least limited duty after an early-season tumble against Southern Oregon broke his wrist.

against Southern Oregon broke his wrist.

BIG THREE
The Big Three for the Wolves are Howard Pitcher, Howard Sullivan and Bob Bushnell.
A set shot artist, Sullivan led OCE in scoring last year. Pitcher is a boy who does everything well on the cage court. Although no more than six feet, his strong backboard work and movement in the key has earned him the center spot.
Oregon College's playmaker is Bob Bushnell, voted last year's 'most valuable player'.
The Owls have shown in 11 non-league games this season, winning seven.
The Wolves hold a 4-3 record in king's-X play.

STUDENT BODY president Tom Wells also knows a thing or two about the bending pastime. bone Wells will be entered in the 133-pound class by Coach Dutch Simons when the Pelicans host the Medford mat team tomorrow, 1:30 p.m., on Pelican court.

Matmen Meet Medford

Wrestling, called a minor sport at KUHS, but major in proportions the way the Pelicans make a habit of winning state titles, makes its first local appearance tomorrow afternoon on Pelican Court.

The Pels, winners of four straight mat titles, host Medford in a dual meet.

Coach Dutch Simons yesterday listed the boys who would probably see action against Medford.

Orville Swindler, the only returning state champion, will compete in the 121-pound class. Swindler has jumped up two divisions in the past year. He won the state title in the 103-pound class.

Others are Ronnie Conner (95), Joe Shearer (103), Donnie Dexter (112), Perry Williams (128), Tom Wells (133), Dean Johnson (139), Roland Biehn (145), either Don Shell or Elvis Mitchell (155), Forest Rutledge or Harold Simmers (165), Floyd Pierce (175) and Doug Campbell or Vernon Pryor (heavy-weight).

Metlers Lead In Victory

Hand Ldry. Scores Last Night Metler 54 Gun Store 43 Crater Lake 31 T&I 26

Metler Bros. Won its second straight last night at Fairview to lead the Victory basketball league, while Crater Lake edged T & I in the other game on the program. The Metlers beat Gun Store, 54-43, with Tex Robinson dunking in 22 points. Ronnie Cheyne belped out with just half that number, 11. It wasn't Bud Mullens fault the Gun Store lost. He hit for 19 to pace the losers.

Wentz led the Crater Lake attack with 13, while Sanders and Hosteler each had 9 for the Trades and Industry quint.

County Loop Rolls Tonight

The traffic in the top division of the Klamath County Class B cage league may be thinned out tonight when all eight teams go to the post in the second round of games that count.

Currently Chiloquin, Sacred Heart, Bonanza and Merrill share the top half of the standings with wins last week.

The first three are favored to keep their perfect league records when the Panthers visit Henley, the Trojans travel to Glichrist and the Antlers go to Malin.

But Merrill's share of first place, according to the dope sheets, will probably be snipped when the Huskies go to Bly to meet the Bobcats.

Seven o'clock preliminary games, in all cases, will pair junior varsity teams.
