NEW YORK (A) — Don Gehrmann and Fred Wilt renew their mile feud in the Philadelphia Inquirer games Friday and to judge them by warmup tests, they ought to finish in almost a dead heat. Gehrmann, who won nine of the 11 races the pair had last year, ran 4:14 flat in the Washington Star games Saturday while Wilt, performing in the Metropolitan AAU senior games, broke the tape in 4:14:6.

Otherwise, the most noteworthy performance of the two laters was the surprise victory of Don Las in the pole vaulf over Bob Richards, who hadn't been beaten in 51 straight tests. Laz soared to a height of 15 feet 3 inches for his best performance. Richards could do no better than 14 feet 8 mehes.

Grants Pass beat Ashland, 58-47, Saturday night after losing a 43-43 decision to the Grizziles Priday.

The Pelicans' favored role in the district was somewhat dented by a whirlwind Mediord team Saturday night that ran like crazy for four full quarters to register a 51-44 upset on Pelican Court.

Big Ralph Carroll scored 24 points in a herculean attempt to pull the game out of the fire—but it wasn't-enough against a team that was high for the full distance and refused to cool off.

MISS GILMORE
There's no doubt the Pels missed the services of Cai Gillmore who twisted an ankle in Friday's game and sat out Saturday's rematch.

But Medford had its fast break hitting on all five, particularly in the third quarter when the Tornado pulled ahead by 19 points in a game that had been touch and go for the first half.

Don Spinas better known for his football exploits, led the third-quarter blitz on the Pels that gave Medford a plushy 39-29 lead after a 24-all half time deadlock. Spinas scored 20 for the evening but his four field goals in the third frame broke Klamath's back in a game where every point loomed large.

Seven times in the first half the lead changed and the game was tied the same number of times.

Halbrook scored 30 field goals and six free throws as he erased the state preprecord of 52 points set just four nights before by Johnny Frederick Jr., Tigard guard, against Newberg. Halbrook had established the old mark of 51 in a Portland high school game last year. After Frederick's feat, he swore to regain the record, and against Molalia, his Lincoln team-mates helped Halbrook by feedling him passes every time they got the ball. Substitute Forward Howard Sullivan sparked the Wolves' last-frame rally, scoring all of his total seven points. Charles Pinion and Leroy Vanover also had more than a little to do with the scoring binge.

The Owls led 13-10 at the first quarter gun and 25-20 at the helf. OCE closed the gap in the third quarter as the two teams went into the fourth quarter tied 35-all. Pinion scored 14, Harold Pitcher added 13 for the Monmouth five.

Final score was 37-34.

Henley pierced Malin's man-toman defense for a 20-13 halftime lead. Then the Mustangs switched to zone in the second half and slowed Henley's fast break. The count was closed to 23-25 at the end of three quarters and Wayne Rick scored the basket that tied the game 31-all at the end of regulation playing time.

Virgil Yadon gave Henley a 32-31 lead on a free throw. Rick made it 33-32 for Malin, then Bob Hill handed the Hornets a 34-33 lead.
