

Jobs Daughters—Meet tonight at 8 at Manion Hall.

Meeting Change—The Fairhaven Home Extension Unit will meet January 23 at Joan's kitchen at the fairgrounds instead of today as planned. Study at that date will be on Easier Ironing Steps No. 2. There will be a potluck luncheon.

BPW Meet—Ellen Upp, attendance chairman of Business and Professional Women will be chairman of the attendance program planned for next Monday night, Jan. 21. A vaudeville of local talent is planned. It is also announced that a choral group is being organized to sing during the state convention here in May and anyone who can sing and is interested in joining, will be welcome. Attendance each meeting because practice time following the meetings is all that can be arranged.

Nursing—A course in Home Nursing will be offered by the local Red Cross chapter beginning Jan. 21. Class will meet from 1 to 2 Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, at the Armory. This is a 14-hour course, with the 7th lesson devoted to civil defense training. Thirty-two of the newest techniques in home care of the sick will be taught by Mrs. Eleanor B. H. Registered Nurse. Instruction is free; the only cost is 60 cents for a nursing textbook which the student keeps. All interested are invited to register by calling the Red Cross, 7184.

Meeting—The Sheep Belles and their Beaux of Keno Road will meet Saturday 3 p.m. at the home of Ellen Olson, Keno Road. Don't forget boys and girls.

Promoted—Sherman R. Preslar, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Preslar, 352 Jordan, has been promoted to Pfc. He is serving with the 7th Infantry Division on the Korean front. Sherman is a platoon runner, Company K, 31st Infantry Regiment. He entered the service April 13, 1951.

Duty—Theodore H. Chapman, aviation machinist's mate second class, USN, son of H. A. Chapman, 1415 S. 8th St., Yakima, Wash., has reported for duty at the Naval Station, Alameda and has been assigned to the overhaul and repair dept. He is authorized to wear the Good Conduct and Korean ribbons. The 20-year-old sailor attended KUHS.

Meeting—The Fire Belles will meet tonight, 7:30 at the home of Mrs. Sarah Snyder, 3149 Cortez.

Visitor—Jim Smeicer, son of O.P. Smeicer, Altus, Okla., and well known here as a guest this week of an aunt, Mrs. Edgar Williams and family, 611 Addison. Jim received a serious shoulder wound in heavy fighting in Korea September 8 and was captured by the Chinese Reds. He was alone at the time and was taken to a temporary prisoner camp where the Chinese treated him kindly but had no facilities for caring for his wound. He was released October 30, probably for propaganda reasons. He is spending a few days in Altus with his father and will return to Madison Hospital, Tahoma, by Feb. 13 for further treatment.

ALL-OUT
PORTLAND —The little town of Iree in Grant County has a big place in the March of Dimes. The town's residents—all 50 of them—have contributed more than $15 per person. It was raised at box social. The total there was the town's annual March of Dimes $770. More is still to come from school children's contributions.
