Puzzled Taft Gets Answer
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Taft's assertion that Eisenhower-for-President supporters are "crying to high heaven" against the methods of Taft's campaign manager brought a "rightfully so" retort from Sen. Ives (R-N.Y.) Monday.

Taft, an announced candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, said Sunday that those seeking the nomination for Gen. Eisenhower have been contending Taft couldn't win the election next November.

The Ohio senator added he wasn't able to understand "why the Eisenhower people should cry to high heaven" because Taft's manager, David S. Ingalls, had made the same argument against naming Eisenhower to head the GOP ticket.

"It's more than that," said Ives, an Eisenhower backer. "The Taft people are trying to tear down Eisenhower by innuendo, and I think the result has been to enhance the general's chances for the nomination."

Taft, who expressed his views on a television program said in reply to a question that he will support Eisenhower for the Presidency if the general wins the nomination. Grinning, Taft then said to newsmen:

"I might ask whether you know whether he will support me if I should be nominated?"

Tax Bureau Plan Praised
WASHINGTON (AP)—Budget Director Frederick J. Lawton told a Congressional committee Monday he believes President Truman's plan to reorganize the Internal Revenue Bureau provides for a better climate for morality and integrity.

He conceded, however, that it doesn't insure honesty in the tax collecting service.
Lawton and Internal Revenue Commissioner John J. Dunlap faced critical questioning by members of the House Executive Expenditures Committee hearing testimony on a resolution to reject Mr. Truman's reorganization plan.

The program, aimed at reshuffling the scandal-ridden bureau and placing it under Civil Service, has met with a cool reception by Congressional leaders.
They hit away at the cost of the program. Lawton said the plan contemplates adding 7,400 employees, but he said he couldn't estimate its cost.
Lawton told the committee the 7,400 additional personnel in the revenue bureau—added to the present 57,000—would go chiefly to enforce the gambling tax Congress enacted last year.
The number of milk cows on U.S. farms has changed little in the last three years.
