O'Brien, Seattle Beat Trotters

SEATTLE (AP)—Johnny O'Brien and the Seattle University Chieftains upset the professional Harlem Globe Trotters basketball team 84 to 81 in a clash for the U.S. Olympic Games Fund here Monday night.

O'Brien, the nation's No. 2 small college scorer, rolled up 43 points against the veterans led by Goose Tatum. O'Brien made 25 points in the first half and 18 in the second even though the Trotters put a double guard on him.

Indiana Five Upsets Iowa

By The Associated Press
Only four collegiate basketball teams—Illinois, St. Bonaventure, Kansas and Duquesne—were left on the list of unbeaten Tuesday following the startling upset of Iowa.

Indiana shattered Iowa's 12-game winning streak Monday night with a 62-69 victory at Bloomington, Ind. It was a crushing setback for the Hawkeyes, for it not only ended their victory streak but also knocked them out of first place in the Western Conference race.

Quits Laxatives - finds amazing relief

"Had tried method after method to relieve constipation, until I lost faith," admits New Jersey woman. "Then I started to eat Kellogg's ALL-BRAN daily and was amazed at the fine results!"

Delicious ALL-BRAN may bring back your youthful regularity if suffering has been due to lack of bulk in diet. It's the only type ready-to-eat cereal that supplies all the bulk you may need.

ALL-BRAN is rich in iron, high in cereal protein, provides essential B and D vitamins. Not habit-forming. Eat 1/2 cupful of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN daily; drink plenty of liquids. If not satisfied after 10 days, send empty carton to Kellogg's, Battle Creek, Mich., and get DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK!

Demo Hats Crowd Ring As Truman Keeps Mum

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON
WASHINGTON (AP)—A record crowd of Democratic presidential candidates was sprouting suddenly Tuesday as President Truman kept mum on his own plans.

Some party politicians said the list may swell to 20 if Mr. Truman delays announcing his decision until near convention time in July.

But most of those stepping to the Democratic spotlight are in the role of "favorite sons."

A candidate in this status normally holds the party's convention vote from his own state until he is nominated or pledges it to some stronger candidate.

Two Democratic hats landed in the presidential ring Monday in Illinois, as slates were filed for Sens. Kefauver of Tennessee and McMahon of Connecticut for the April 8 primary.

Kefauver, former chairman of the Senate Crime Investigating Committee, called a news conference for Wednesday noon PST and friends speculated he'd probably announce his candidacy then.

Mrs. Kefauver said over the weekend she and her husband had talked over the matter and she had "a feeling" he would run.

The Republican presidential primary in Illinois also was enlivened when Harold E. Stassen, former Minnesota governor, and Gen. MacArthur were entered in opposition to Sen. Taft of Ohio.

However, MacArthur telegraphed the Illinois secretary of state Tuesday asking that his name be withdrawn.

Col. Lawrence Bunker, a spokesman for MacArthur, said the general's name was entered without his knowledge.

Illinois election officials said the law states that any candidate may withdraw his name.

But the man who entered the general in the race, Earl Daly of Chicago, said he would take legal action, if necessary, to prevent MacArthur or anyone else from withdrawing the general's name.

Daly, founder and director general of the "MacArthur and McCarthy for '52 Club," said, "we are aware that Gen. MacArthur is not a candidate but we believe he'd accept a draft."

The Illinois primary is advisory only and is not binding on the state's convention delegates.
