The state of the second A HAPPY NOTE OR TWO

by LLOYD H. DERBY

has made up its mind to do something about Music
... not with the usual "Leg - Art and Filmsy-Plotted boy meets girl stuff ... but in good, solld entertainment with something behind it ... and featuring GOOD Music. This is not a new thing in Hollywood. They have given us fine pletures dramatizing the life of Chopin, Schumann and others. But right now big plans are underway Chopin, Schumann and others. But right now big plans are underway and before long a Jesse Laske film will be produced on the subject of School bands, reflecting the wide spread and growing interest in the people making their own music. 20th Century Fox has bought the rights to the life of John Phillip Sousa, which will make meaty entertainment for our Music-Minded folks.

Radio and Television are also going along with the trend to produce fine Musical shows. And it all looks good to us. The new interest in music gives a great measure of hope for the future. For where music goes . . . there's less room for greed, selfishness and sickness

At this time I'll give out with a tip on one of the "Great" shows for Klamath Falls. Rafael Mendez, who is now acknowledged to be the greatest trumpet player in the world will give a concert in Klamath Falls some time in April. Plans are afoot at this time to—to have Jesse Laske appear here if Klamath Falls with Mr. Mendez. Another tip . get your tickets to that concert the first day they are available because this will be 100's sell out.

Juvenile Delinouency????? Sure it.

Juvenile Delinquency????? Sure it Juvenile Delinquency???? Sure it presents many many problems but of one thing you can be quite sure . . . If your family make music together you can be sure of harmony, more true family understanding and high morale. This thought should be well taken by many of our "Younger familles" who are just well on the road to having a family. We can help you on selecting an instrument and we can help you in selecting the type of music you're interested in . . we are you're interested in . . . we are here to supply them. Come in and talk to us anytime at DERBY'S MUSIC CO., 120 North 7th St. Phone 4519.

Corinne, currently decorating the Martin-Lewis comedy, "Sallor Beware," smiled sweetly and almost dropped the dagger between her teeth as she said:
"I've always followed Papa's advice." OLYMPIA IP — Harry R. Bay, night editor of the Eugene, Ore. Register-Guard, was named public information officer for the State Civil Defense Department Tuesday. Bay is a graduate of St. Martins College here. Before joining the Register-Guard in 1950 he was news editor of the Shelton-Mason County Journal, and a part-time correspondent for the Associated Press and the Daily Olympian.

He will assume his new position in about two weeks, D. E. Barbey, state civil defense director, said Bay's salary will be $426 a month. He will assume his new position in about two weeks, D. E. Barbey, state civil defense director, said Bay's salary will be $426 a month.

Those five melodic inutes you've been hear ing ever since the turn of the year Just before the "Breakfast Club," feature the baritone voice of this handsome young man, John Conte, He got his first big break in radio several years ago as the singing M.C. on the Fanny Brice-Frank Morgan radio show. The Charlie Magnante Trio supply accom paniment for his singing with accordion, guitar, and organ. It's a cheery program for starting your day right, weekday morn-ings at 7:55 on the network that America's sold

Another 5-minute strip program at the other end of the day started just this week. "World Flight Reporter", heard daily at 5:25 p.m., features Dan Peterson in on-the-spot interviews of "Names" the news headlines of the day as they arrive and depart from New York's Idlewild Airport, Personalities from government leaders to prominent world travelers will be heard from day to day.

Starting next week, "Dean Cameron" will be back with his leisurely talk about this and that and his seasoned philosophy slanted housewife-wise. He'll be heard at 3:30, as the "Perfect Husband" bows out. (Could it be they're become extinct?) Then "Mary Mariin" will move back to 3:45, giving "Requestfully Yours" full sway for a whole hour, once more, starting at 4:00.

While casually listening to the "Breakfast Club" the other morning, suddenly wondered why everyone who'd been called to the mike had a southern accent. And then I remembered that Don McNeill and his gang are down in the land where southern accents grow. The "Breakfast Club" Is on a two-weeks tour of the south, working, if you can call it work, as they travel. Next week McNeill will settle down in Miami for a week of fishing and Peter Donald will take over M.C. duties on the "Breakfast Club" which we presume will be back in Chicago by then. Peter Donald received a warm welcome when he substituted for Don last July. "The Breakfast Club" is heard Monday through Friday from 8:00 to 9:00 a.m.
