

TUNA TIPS
 In a hurry tonight? Then prepare some of the new ready-cooked rice. While it's steaming, open a can of cream of mushroom or celery soup. Combine with a can of tuna, a few sliced stuffed olives and a bit of chopped parsley or chopped green onion. Heat and thin with a little milk or sherry wine. Serve over the hot rice.

Creamed tuna in a firm ripe avocado half is a deluxe dish. Top with a sprinkling of Parmesan cheese or chopped nuts and heat until the avocado is hot. Serve at once.

To your favorite creamed tuna, just before serving, add an avocado cut in cubes. Heat a few minutes, stir gently, and pour over hot cooked rice.

Are there leftover vegetables in your refrigerator? Then make a tuna-vegetable chowder. Fry a strip or two of bacon until crisp. Set bacon aside and cook a chopped onion in the drippings until barely tender. Add a peeled and cubed potato and a cup of water and cook until tender. Add the leftover vegetables, a can of "Bite Size" tuna and 2 cups of milk. Heat to boiling, add crumbled bacon, and sprinkle with paprika. Serve with crisp crackers.

A super dish on a cold night! Line individual casseroles with mashed potato. (Use instant mashed potato if you're in a hurry.) Then top with a layer of cheese sauce, a layer of tuna, and another layer of sauce. Top with crumbs and bake until brown.

Valentine idea! Mold perfection salad in heart-shaped molds (chopped cabbage, celery, pickle and pimento in well-seasoned smon-flavored gelatin). Top with a generous serving of tuna salad. Serve with hot rolls.

For unexpected company—Make

2 cups of white sauce; add a can of tuna, a can of mushrooms and some cooked or canned peas. Pour into a casserole and top with canned biscuits (or make them from a mix). Bake 15 to 20 minutes or until biscuits are done and brown. There'll still be time to make the basketball game—or a favorite television show.

Home Extension News

BONANZA
 The Bonanza Home Extension Unit met at the home of Mrs. Alta Dixon's home for a project on Ironing Boards.

Mrs. Borneham demonstrated further details on textile painting.

Feg Brundage, Klamath County Four H leader visited the group during the afternoon seeking leaders for Four H work.

The white elephant was won by Eula Frough. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Frough, lesson to be on "Step Saving Kitchens."

Twelve members were present.

KENO
 The Keno Home Extension unit met at the home of Mrs. Ray Hinchaw on Wednesday, Jan. 9.

The lesson was on "easier ironing No. 2." A small number of members attended due to illness and inclement weather. The purpose of this meeting was to learn how to make a table ironing board. The project leaders were Mrs. Ray Hinchaw and Mrs. L. L. Ramsey.

Mrs. Harold Simmers was the only member to complete the board. It was decided at the meeting to donate ten dollars for the "Pollo Fund."

Mrs. Robert Rhowton was a visitor.

SETTLEMENT BROKEN UP
 JOHORE BAHRU, Malaya (AP)—A spokesman for the Johore state government has explained why the Mawai settlement of 1,200 was abandoned and its families resettled in other areas. The settlement could not be defended against Communist terrorists. The residents said they did not wish to be put behind wire in the area, he said.
