Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, has ar-rived at Lackland air base in San Antonio, Texas, according to word received here by his parents. Wil-ired left here Jan. 3 for Portland, where he was inducted into the U.S. Air Force, in which branch of the service he has enlisted for a four-year period. Walter Midkiff and his brother-in-law, Al Smith, made a business trip to Crescent City, Calif., leav-ing Wednesday. Hansford T. "Mike" Williams is recovering at Hillside Hospital in Klamath Falls from surgery which he underwent there this week. After having been confined to the Hillside Hospital for a week suffering from a severe cold which threatened to develop into pneu-monia, Charles J. Bricco came home Thursday in a taxi from Klamath Falls. The minute the doctor said he could return home, Bricco decided he would do just that, and instead of waline for relatives in Fort Klamath or Klam-ath Falls to bring him back here, he came by taxi. He is welknown all over Klamath County, and has for many years been owner and
