

Luxury Keynote of Oldsmobile Classic '98'

PANORAMIC VISION is obtained from every seat in the Oldsmobile Classic '98' Holiday coupe. New rear deck styling accentuates the long, low look of the '98' Series, which has an overall length of 213 inches for 1952. Interior fashions set a new high in luxury, featuring colorful leather and basket weave nylon upholstery harmonizing with the deep pile carpeting and the interior trim. There is a distinctive Holiday medallion on the brightwork just above the rear fender. The 1952 Oldsmobile is powered by the more efficient 160-h.p. "Rocket" engine with the new high performance Quadrijet carburetor. New GM hydraulic steering is available as optional equipment. The new Oldsmobiles are now on display at Dick B. Miller Co.

Master Of Noms De Plume Trying To Decide What To Do Now - Has Wide Choice

NEW YORK (AP) — A bright young man, who never finished high school, but who won acclaim as a skilled surgeon, is trying to decide what to do next.

"Being an impostor is a tough habit to break," he says. Despite his lack of schooling, Ferdinand Waldo Demara, Jr., 30, has posed successfully as a doctor of philosophy, an eminent zoologist, and has been, among other things, a college psychology professor and trappist monk.

As a one-time psychology professor at St. Martin's College, in Lacey, Wash., Demara said, "I just kept ahead of the class. The best way to learn anything is to teach it."

The collapse of his latest master hoax, during which he performed sensational brilliant operations as a surgeon in the Royal Canadian Navy, has left him uncertain.

"I'm tired of aliases, or as I prefer to think of them, noms de plume," he said. "But how can I use my own name after all that's happened?"

At his parents' home in Lawrence, Mass., Demara told his amazing story to Life Magazine, which gives the account in its Jan. 28 issue.

Demara used the name and credentials of Dr. Joseph C. Cyr, of Grand Falls, New Brunswick, to get his surgeon's commission, much as he had used academic records of others in his other phony roles.

Probe Pushed In Mystery Death

EUGENE (AP) — The findings of an autopsy were awaited Thursday to determine the cause of Julian Francis Moritt's death.

Moritt, 36, an employe of the Blachly-Lane County electric cooperative, was found dead in a pool of water at Blachly Wednesday.

He wore night clothes, covered by an overcoat. Footprints led from the Blachly station, where he slept, to the pool.

3rd Bennett Recall Opens

PORTLAND (AP) — The third recall attempt against Portland City Commissioner Jake Bennett was filed Wednesday. To be successful, this one first needs 23,770 signatures of registered voters, then needs a favorable majority at the May 6 election.

Neither of the other recall attempts reached the ballot. The first was several years ago and the second was some two months ago.

This one was filed by Dave Goldman, publisher of the Portland Statesman, an East Side Portland newspaper.

The causes listed by the recall petition: "Discourteous, abusive, uncouth, insulting, with personal, scandalous attacks, insults, ridicule and abuse toward respectable citizens."

Bennett has been waging a steady attack on liquor and gambling. Goldman said no member of the recall committee is connected with taverns, pinball or punchboard distributors.

'KIDNAPS' SON — Tommy Manville du Monceau, 14-months-old heir to part of the Manville asbestos millions, shown (left) with his mother, the former Lorraine Dresselhuys, was spirited out of the United States and flown to Belgium by his father, Count Ivan G. du Monceau de Bergendal (right). A Federal court issued an order for the child's delivery "forthwith" to the court.

K.H.S. Highlights

By JEAN OWENS Future Homemakers of America already have their plans in full swing concerning the annual basketball banquet which is sponsored yearly by that group. The girls plan the menu and prepare and serve the dinner to the Pelicans and their dates, all of the coaches and several members of the faculty. Usually the affair is held in the school cafeteria, although a permanent date has not yet been set. The banquet follows the basketball season.

Two Bandits Die Of Wounds

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Mexican officials said Thursday a blistering gun fight on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande near here took care of four bandits who pulled a daring daylight raid on a Juarez, Mexico, bank.

However, about $70,000 of the $174,000 loot is still missing.

Two bandits were killed in the half-hour battle and two were captured.

Alfonso Rey was killed instantly early Wednesday in an exchange of gunfire at San Lorenzo, six miles south of Juarez on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande. His brother, Leopoldo Rey, died later in a Juarez hospital.

Officials said they had no idea where the rest of the loot from the Banco Nacional de Mexico was hidden.

OCS Eyed As Quick Out

FORT SILL, Okla. (AP) — Men in combat zones may be using the Officers Candidate School at Fort Sill as a means of returning to the United States, an officer disclosed Wednesday.

Col. F. G. Smith, artillery OCS commandant, said many men particularly from the Far East Command, come to Fort Sill and then resign almost immediately.

Smith said it makes it appear "that the OCS system may be used as a means to return to the United States."

Under present Army policy these men are barred from re-assignment overseas. When they withdraw from the OCS course they are usually assigned to a post in the United States to serve the remainder of their terms, Smith said.

Pelton Residents Await Blowoff

PORTLAND (AP) — Opponents of the proposed Pelton Dam on the Deschutes River waited Thursday to see if the State Fish Commission would start its threatened legal action against the dam now.

Such a move could be touched off by the Portland General Electric Company's announcement Wednesday that a field office was being established at Madras for surveying and core drilling on the dam.

At the time P. G. E. got approval of the Federal Power Commission to build the dam, the Fish Commission said it would take legal action whenever P. G. E. attempted to start construction.
