

THIS QUICK DESSERT, peach coconut cream pie can be whisked up in minutes after you get home from the office or the ski slopes. Brings a bit of sunny summer to your winter dinner table. (See recipe)

PEACH COCONUT CREAM PIE CRUST 10 sugar honey graham cracker crumbs, finely rolled (1 1/3 cups)

garine 1/2 cup sugar Blend together sugar honey graham cracker crumbs, softened butter or margarine and sugar. Pour mixture in 8-inch pie plate; firmly press into an even layer against bottom and sides of plate. Bake in moderately hot oven (375 F.) about 8 minutes. Cool. CREAM FILLING 2 1/2 cup sugar 1/2 teaspoon salt 1/2 cup cornstarch 2 cups milk 2 egg yolks, slightly beaten 1 tablespoon butter 1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla 1 package frozen sliced peaches, defrosted 1 can shredded coconut Blend together sugar, salt and cornstarch in saucepan. Gradually stir in milk. Cook over moderate heat, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens and boils. Boil 1 minute. Remove from heat. Stir half the mixture into egg yolks. Then stir into remaining mixture in pan. Boil 1 minute more, stirring constantly. Stir in butter and vanilla. Cool. Pour into chilled sugar honey graham cracker crust. Drain defrosted peaches well. Arrange a layer of sliced peaches on cream filling. Sprinkle shredded coconut on top of peaches. Garnish with a circle of sliced peaches if desired. Chill thoroughly.

B.P.W. Brave Storm Reach Mon. Meet

A number of civic projects were brought to the attention of Business and Professional Women at the regular meeting Jan. 21 in the Willard Hotel at which Beth Griggs, presided in the absence of the president, Edna Albrecht. Barbara Carnini asked that all members who planned to donate blood at the next meeting of the bloodmobile in February, contact her at phone 7621 so that BPW can be registered as a unit instead of individually. It was announced there will be no regular meeting Feb. 4 due to presentation that night of the Civic Drama Guild play "Darkness at Noon." There will be a board meeting Feb. 11 at the home of Mary Bothwell and the next regular club meeting will be Feb. 18. It was urged that all members fill out the questionnaire on the back of the last issue of Independent Woman and mail at once to the designated address. Ten members will assist with the annual March of Dimes Dance at the armory Saturday night. Thirty members have turned out for the choral singing planned for the annual convention in May. It was announced by Ruth Lohaug. Program numbers arranged by Ellen Upp included dance and acrobatic acts by the Bismpan family and musical numbers by the Harmonaires, Alice Baker, Esther Storis and Florence Calhoun with Susan Vandenberg at the piano. Clever table arrangements centering around a winter theme were made by 19-year-old Sharon Ross, daughter of Mrs. Lillian Ross. Places were laid at dinner for 64.

LEND AN EAR AND YOU shall HEAR a little yarn about LEAP YEAR... there are ways and ways to catch a MAN... use your wiles, your baby blue eyes... woo him through the inner man and feed him apple dumplings... catch him in a butterfly net or go to CURRIN'S for EXPERT beauty help from a BEAUTY CONSULTANT straight from HELENA RUBENSTEIN in NEW YORK. Starting next MON. DAY, January 28, Ruth Wilcox who helped make so many of us lovely last year will be back at CURRIN'S Beauty Bar to show you how to smooth and tint and "angelize" your skin. She'll be demonstrating the new "WINGED STAY-LONG MAKEUP" that you can put on when you open your peepers in the early dawn and still look presentable when you step out for luncheon with the boy down the street. It's SECOND NATURE for SOME of us to know what colors to blend with eyes and hair and skin coloring... for OTHERS like Martha, the ritual of make-up is as mystifying as initiation into a new cult... but NONE of us can know until we've TRIED it how utterly gorgeous woman can BE with HELENA RUBENSTEIN'S "winged stay-long make-up" so dial THIS number, 2-3475... ask for an appointment any time during the week from JANUARY 28... hours from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. then jump the snowdrifts towards CURRIN'S... OR... Write a postal card (remember the extra cent), drop in and let Ruth Wilcox make you a Cinderella and show you how to STAY one. Remember, it's Ruth Wilcox from HELENA RUBENSTEIN at Ninth and Main.
